

RHEUMATISM FOR OVER 16 YEARS

No Return of The Trouble Since Taking "Fruit-a-lives"

103 CHURCH ST., MONTREAL.

"I was a great sufferer from Rheumatism for over 16 years. I consulted specialists; took medicine; used lotions; but nothing did me good. Then I began to use "Fruit-a-lives", and in 15 days the pain was easier and the Rheumatism much better. Gradually, "Fruit-a-lives" overcame my Rheumatism; and now, for five years, I have had no return of the trouble. I cordially recommend this fruit medicine to all sufferers."

*HOME FOR BURIAL.—Mr. Danfèr McLeod, of Boston, Mass., arrived on the Island Thursday evening accompanying the remains of his sister, Mrs. Jenk'as from Boston, who died there a few days ago. On reaching Charlottetown Friday no connection could be made Eastward, Mr. McLeod engaged a motor car and had the remains brought East to Dundas this night. The burial of Mrs. Jenk'as took place at the Presbyterian cemetery, Dundas, on Friday, after which Mr. McLeod visited his father-in-law, Mr. Ronald A. McDonald, Hermanville, where he is now spending a few days prior to his return to his home in Boston.

GROWING DEAF WITH HEAD NOISES? TRY THIS

If you are growing hard of hearing and fear Catarrhal Deafness or if you have roaring, rumbling, hissing noises in your ears go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of "Purmit" (double strength), and add to it 1 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Closed nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dripping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone who is threatened with Catarrhal Deafness or who has head noises should give this prescription a trial.

*WEDDING BELLS.—At St. Charles Church, Lot 68, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Oct. 29th when Miss Mary A. Gallant was united in marriage to Paul, son of Eusbus Gallant, formerly of this place, now of Yarmouth, N. S. The ceremony was supported by Mr. Francis Peters. At the nuptial mass the happy couple drove to the home of the bride where breakfast was served to a few relatives.

The day was then spent by driving to Souris and enjoying dinner, returning home in time to join the nearest relatives who had assembled to a supper ably prepared by Mrs. Gill and Mrs. Angus Gallant. Owing to a recent death in the bride's family the evening was passed away quietly.

*ANNANDALE.—Shipping is quite brisk. There are four vessels loading at the lower wharf and two at the Launching wharf and quite a number up the river. Capt. Richards came in on Thursday after being away since May, carrying cargoes from Charlottetown to Pictou all the summer. There was quite a big basket social in the new hall on Thursday night, about 775.00 being realised.—The farmers have not taken up their turnip crop yet and only a few has been pulled for shipping. There is a very good root crop in this vicinity.—Mr. C. M. Howlett, Fortune Bridge, paid a visit to Annandale on Thursday evening, last.—Mr. Francis Jenkins, Durrell, was at the village for a few days assisting Mr. A. C. Myers with his shipping.—Miss Marion Dingwell, Little Pond, is in Mr. A. C. Myers' store taking the place of Miss Isabella Myers, who left for Boston a few days ago.—O.

To Utilize Old Calendars If a calendar seems too pretty to destroy, paste a piece of sandpaper over the calendar pad and use as a scratcher. One of these will not come amiss in each room, if gas is used.

Make Your Dreams Come True

Fond parents dream of a bright future for their children.

They dream of the literary and musical education they are going to give their daughter, and of the high position she will take in her sphere of womanhood.

They dream of the education they are going to give their son and vision him some day as a clergyman, a famous lawyer, an eminent physician, a prominent financier, or a captain of industry.

But to make these dreams come true

—or even partly true—requires foresight, planning and money.

To provide the money what plan so wise as to buy Victory Bonds for each child?

Thousands of parents bought Victory Bonds for their children in 1917 and 1918.

Surely you will be among the thousands of loving parents who will buy Victory Bonds for their children—this year.

Victory Bonds may be bought on instalments at such easy terms that every parent who so wishes may buy.
