

P.C. HOSPITAL SHOWS BALANCE FOR THE YEAR

Encouraging Report Submitted At Annual Meeting Last Night

The 20th annual meeting of the P.C. Hospital was held last night in the Town Hall, Summerside, with a fair attendance.

The following trustees were appointed for the term of the next three years: Messrs. G. W. Phillips, M. M. Bell, J. F. Arnett, Dr. A. M. Leard, W. J. Lidstone.

Mr. H. T. Holman was reappointed President, Mr. C. R. Rogers, Vice-President, Mr. James H. Pritchard, Secretary and Treasurer.

The President in his address pointed out that the growth of the hospital has been continuous and the value of its assets, which in 1913 were about $14,000, is now over $111,000.

In order to cut expenses as much as possible this summer the Secretary reported that the Association Building would be closed during the month of August.

The morning's proceedings were taken up with the address to the jury of Thane A. Campbell, K. C., for the defense and of E. H. Strong, K. C. for the Crown.

His Lordship Mr. Justice A. C. Saunders, in his address to the jury pointed out that there was a good deal of conflicting evidence in the case.

SEVENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY OF NOTRE DAME

Founded By Bishop MacDonald In 1857, The Institution Now Ranks Among Best Of Its Kind In Maritimes.

In connection with the celebration today and on Thursday of the 75th anniversary of the founding of Notre Dame Academy, the programme of which appeared in yesterday's Guardian, the following historic sketch will be of interest:

Notre Dame Academy was founded in 1857 by His Lordship, Bishop Bernard MacDonald who brought the first sisters, Reverend Mother St. Eulalia, Superior, Sisters St. Fulcheria, St. Felicité, and St. Claire to Charlottetown from Montreal on September 25.

On October 12 they took possession of their convent—a wooden house donated by Honourable Daniel Brennan—and for some time labored under very great difficulties.

Notwithstanding all their disadvantages their work prospered. Sister St. Eulalia remained as Superior for eleven years and was replaced by Reverend Mother St. John of the Cross, though Mother St. Eulalia herself returned three times as Superior to the mission she had founded.

In 1869 the present stone structure was begun by Mr. Corbett. Sister St. Cornelia replaced Sister St. Eulalia as Superior in 1883 and four years later Reverend Mother St. Peter Chrysoylogos, a native of the Island, took charge of Notre Dame and remained for twelve years.

Her Mother St. Catherine of Sweden, who had been in charge of the first class for seven years then assumed the office of Superior which she held for the next eight years. During her regime, an chapel, which now contains the Chapel, Assembly room and Dormitory was built—the official opening taking place February 7, 1912.

So visibly has the educational work of Notre Dame prospered during these seventy-five years that she now ranks among the leading educational institutions of the Maritime Provinces, and long may she continue to carry on her noble work.

Emerald Threatened By A Serious Fire Yesterday Morning

Murphy Store, Croken Residence And Three Barns Destroyed In Conflagration Which Was Checked With Assistance Of Summerside Fire Brigade.

In a fire which at one time threatened to destroy the entire village, a building owned by John MoAtée and occupied as a residence and store by Mr. A. Murphy, was completely destroyed at Emerald yesterday morning, also the residence of John Croken and three barns adjoining.

The B. I. S. Hall and all also caught fire but was saved with some damage to the building. Sparks spread to the roofs of other buildings.

The Summerside fire brigade was summoned to the scene. By 12.45, however, it was reported under control, rain falling at noon being of assistance to the fire fighters who, recruited from the village and surrounding country, gathered in great numbers to assist in averting a threatened disaster.

The fire broke out in the MacAtée building, the upper part of which was used by Mr. and Mrs. Murphy as a residence. Mrs. Murphy had gone to Charlottetown and her husband had put on a fire to prepare dinner.

He said he had to leave the village but told the boy in the store that he would be back in time for dinner. Passersby first noticed the flames coming from the roof near the chimney.

The blaze then spread to Mr. Croken's residence and from there to the B. I. S. Hall. The contents of the buildings were saved.

The MacAtée building was valued at about $3,500 and the Croken residence at about $1,800, the loss being partly covered by insurance.

Trinity south, where Harold Mitchell, an Alderidge supporter, had a majority of more than 600 votes.

Lady Helen Squires, member for Lewisporte in the last Legislature, had been defeated by Norman Gray in the constituency of Twillingate.

The only successful Government candidates were F. G. Bradley, Minister without portfolio in the Squires' Cabinet, who defeated S. D. Cook, in Humber, and R. J. Starks, who defeated F. M. Wells in Green Bay.

Returns had not been received from Brugeo, Bonavista North and White Bay.

According to pre-election promises, Mr. Alderidge's victory is a mandate for a plebiscite on the question of what form of government shall be administered while Newfoundland is seeking to re-establish her credit abroad.

Concluding a manifesto in which to cope with unemployment, fishery and education problems, Mr. Alderidge stated:

"Let me repeat the pledge recently made through the Daily Press, that one of my first acts will be the appointment of a committee, the members of which will serve without remuneration, to enquire into the desirability and feasibility of placing the country under a form of commission government for a period of years.

In case the proposal is favorably reported upon, it will then be submitted to the electorate for their approval. No action will be taken that does not first have the consent of the people.

Mr. Alderidge, who was leader of the Conservative opposition in the last Legislature, was born at Belfast, Ireland, sixty years ago. He was educated at the Methodist College, Belfast, and came to Newfoundland to engage in business.

A director of several Newfoundland and Canadian companies, he was appointed a member of the Legislative Council in 1924, later becoming Conservative leader in the Council. He has been prominent in Newfoundland politics for many years.

CELEBRATE VICTORY

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., June 14.—(By the Canadian Press)—This capital city was the scene of a grand festival tonight in celebration of the victory of the United Newfoundland Party, which swept the Dominion in Saturday's general elections.

Centre of the anti-Liberal movement which ousted the Government of Sir Richard Squires, its streets were lined with cheering crowds as Harold Mitchell returned from the constituency of Trinity South, where he had defeated the Prime Minister with a majority of more than 600 votes.

Mitchell was placed in a carriage by fellow war-veterans and thousands joined in the procession as he was conveyed to the residence of F. C. Alderidge, Prime-Minister-elect. Here Mr. Mitchell congratulated his leader on the victory and Mr. Alderidge thanked his colleague and the crowd for their support.

DIED IN SOUTH AFRICA—Mr. Melbourne Crockett of the Post Office staff received a communication yesterday from Cape Town, South Africa, conveying the sad news of the death of his brother, Walter Alfred, aged 52 years. He leaves to mourn a sorrowing father and three children, two sisters Mrs. Milton Vessey, York, and Mrs. Guy Henderson, Somerville, Mass., and one brother, Melbourne to all of whom the Guardian extends sincere sympathy. The late Mr. Crockett left this Province thirty-four years ago for Regina where he was joined the Mounted Police and was later transferred to South Africa with the Baden-Powell Mounted Police. At the outbreak of the Great War he enlisted with an English South African regiment and was invalided home shortly before the Armistice.

Winnipeg have qualified to vote. Five years ago the local voters list contained only 67,124 names. While constituencies outside Winnipeg have not returned complete lists, it is estimated that between 20 and 25 per cent more voters have qualified in the single-member ridings.

Party leaders are unanimous in the opinion that a record vote will be polled Thursday. Though the campaign has been carried along numerous lines without particular heat by either of the principal parties, and has failed to develop a major issue of any description, candidates and leaders have addressed large gatherings in all parts of the province.

Interest in the campaign is becoming more intense as election day draws near. A large crowd attended a Liberal-Progressive rally here tonight, addressed by the six government candidates running in Winnipeg. Hon. W. J. Major, Attorney-General, and Hon. E. W. Montgomery, Minister of Health, were among the speakers.

Premier John Bracken, again contesting The Pas where a deferred election will be held July 14, has spoken in nearly every constituency in the province. Tonight he addressed a Liberal-Progressive meeting at Cartwright. Tomorrow he comes to Winnipeg to finish the campaign.

LIVESTOCK MARKETS

MONTREAL, June 14. (By the Canadian Press)—There were 69 cattle, 479 calves, 1,016 hogs and 155 sheep and lambs for sale on the two Montreal livestock markets today. There were 379 cattle at the yards and about 12 loads reported for export to Birkenhead on the Manchester Commerce sailing on Thursday.

The cattle market was unchanged. Common cows brought between $2.50 and $3 and common to just fair quality bulls were very slow at $2.25 to $3.

Calves were steady. Common light calves brought from $2.75 to $3 with fair to good calves selling from $4 to $4.15.

Lambs were about steady at $6 to $8.50 per cwt. according to quality. Sheep were slow. Common sheep sold around $2 with good handy sheep up to $3.50.

Hogs were unsettled. A couple of loads were sold at $4.75 for selects, bacon and butchers fed and watered.
