APPLE CHUTNEY

Put them through the chopper

Soak 2 lbs. of white onions in brine overnight. Drain them and put through the food chopper. Pare 4 lbs. of sour apples and put them through the food chopper. Mix 2 lbs. seedless raisins with the apples, pour 1 pint of cider vinegar over them and let stand overnight. Add the onions and 1 head of celery, 4 large red peppers, 1 1/2 lbs. of sugar, 2 tablespoons Colman's Mustard, 1 teaspoon turmeric and 3 pints cider vinegar. Cook until the vegetables are clear and tender. Seal in sterilized bottles or jars.

Now you have pickles to delight the palate. And that subtle, appetizing tang is traceable to the mustard you've used. Nothing like Colman's for giving pickles distinctive, delightful flavour. Don't forget to include it whatever you do.

Golfers Play In Light Snowstorm

JASPER PARK LODGE, Alta., Sept. 6—Seattle, Edmonton, and Winnipeg had the edge on the Tom Pole golf championship over other cities yesterday as at the finish of the first day of the match play each city mentioned had three players left.

Vancouver, Victoria and Calgary each have two players left while the other place is filled from Saskatoon.

The weather man proved the most consistent winner, however, as following a soft drizzle early in the morning, the players had the unique experience of playing golf over heavily grassed fairways in a light snowstorm.

During mid-afternoon the weather cleared off and the games were finished under enjoyable conditions. The ladies games were set back until today with their final on Saturday instead of Friday.

One of the upsets was the elimination of the veteran F. Hayward Wilson, Victoria, who lost to E. N. Kennedy, Edmonton. Lionel Morrison, Alberta, open champion, displaced of S. Matthews, Seattle, while another Seattle player, Bill P. Gott, fell before the steady stroking of J. Leslie Bell, champion in 1931.

Former Islanders Enjoy Motor Trip To The Province

Visiting the Province this week, renewing old friendships and acquaintances, are Messrs. William McKay, Daniel McLean, and James Vincent, of Brooklyn, N. Y. The party left Brooklyn in Mr. McKay's car at noon on Saturday and reached Tormentine Sunday afternoon, making record time and covering 750 miles on sixty-one gallons of gasoline. Mr. McKay formerly owned and managed a farm at Long Creek, but removed a few years ago to Brooklyn owing to illness, from which he is now fully recovered. Mr. McLean, who is 85 years of age, is a relative of Mrs. McKay, herself a Prince Edward Islander. He lived formerly at Canoe Cove but has resided in the United States for the past fifty years. Despite his advanced years, Mr. McLean is an enthusiastic motorist and is enjoying the present trip immensely. Mr. Vincent, the third member of the party, formerly belonged to Alberton.

Mr. McKay reports excellent motoring roads with the exception of New Brunswick, where the dust nuisance is much worse than in this Province. Indeed, he finds the Prince Edward Island roads in first class shape. He is also pleased to note that comparatively speaking the Province has suffered little from the general world depression. In the United States, unemployment conditions are still bad, and there is yet no evidence of pickup in the building trade, though there is undoubtedly greater optimism. There is really no comparison, he states, between conditions across the line and those prevailing in this more favored portion of Prince Edward Island.

Mr. McKay and party are planning to return on Monday morning.

STYLE SCINTILLATES

PARIS, Sept. 6.—Belts of sparkling stones, beaten gold and silver, and fabrics shimmering with metal threads are launched by Louise Boulanger as the stuffs of this winter's evening mode is made. The glittering trimmings recall those worn by the chateaux of the Middle Ages.

Girdles sparkling with as many colored stones as a pre-war princess's jewel box, belts of tinted mother-of-pearl flowers, waistline markings of cooled, beaten silver and belts studded with gold nail heads flash in the glittering array. The girdles appear on gowns of velvet, lame, moire and heavy satin designed on fitted lines with long trailing skirts.

A BLUEBERRY PICNIC

A correspondent writes:—A short time ago this summer a jolly crowd of folks from the south side of the river motored to Un'Zn Road North, by way of Charlottetown, and spent a very pleasant, as well as profitable afternoon picking the luscious blue berries which grow very abundantly up in that country. After picking all in sight (nearly) and becoming tired and somewhat hungry, we all repaired to the house of our esteemed folks, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon MacKinnon (on whose farm we were picking the berries). There we grouped together and had our "smiling phisogs" taken and we hope the cameras stood the test.

Then the best of the proceedings came in the form of eats which was beautifully and tastefully provided by the hostess and ladies in the crowd and to which all did ample justice; after the inner man was filled to overflowing the young folks engaged in a rousing game of baseball, even the older ones "had a hit with the ball," not very often "hitting the ball," but when they did the air was filled with lusty shouts and cheers. Then farewells were said in the dusk of the eve and we all motored home having spent a very enjoyable afternoon. Among those present were Miss Margaret Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Laurie and Miss M. Laurie of Andover, Mass.; Mrs. A. Hatch and Mr. Raymond Hatch of Brockton, Mass.; Percy Pippy, Hazelbrook, and her little friend, Miss Elva Hooper of Murray River; Mr. and Mrs. John Brown, Pownal; Miss Florence Brown of the "Sun Life," Charlottetown; Mr. and Mrs. Seymour

TRUTH

Strike out for Truth what ever may. The whole world think about it. But not the truth designed to flay. With guilty secrets shouted.

Though truth like every gift to men. What's a prized possession. What's evil in its guise again. Is nothing but obsession.

Seek out the truth, the wrong avoid. With all its persuasion. And prophets everywhere employed. In works of desolation.

Truth's rarest gems are only known. To those with truth within them: While human lies with hearts of stone. Know just what lies may win them.

I'd rather know a single truth. Than thousands of opinions. Palmed off on unsuspecting youth. Or thralling whole dominions.

Then, what is truth? Would query run—
 Yet truth is never queereous. But turns its face to greet the sun. And laughs at all that's perfidious.
 —James M. MacLean.

INDUCTION AT KENSINGTON—The Presbytery of Prince Edward Island will meet this evening in the Presbyterian Church at Kensington to induct the Rev. W. O. Rhoad, B. A., Th. B., as minister of the parish. Those taking part in the ceremony are the Moderator of Presbytery, Rev. Allister Murray, who will preside and induct, Rev. J. A. Pritchard, B. A., who will preach, Rev. R. Moorhead Legate, D. D., who will give the charge to the minister and Rev. G. C. Webster who will narrate the steps leading to the Induction and give the charge to the congregation.

BRILLIANT PUPIL—Friends of Miss Elizabeth Francis will be pleased to hear that she is the winner of a Five Dollar Prize offered by her teacher, Miss Jean Ross, to the pupil of Fortune Bridge school coming highest in the recent matriculation exams, and making a mark of over 530 (the highest ever made from this school at any previous exam). Miss Francis had a total of 576 marks and needless to say is quite proud of her well earned prize—there being five writing the exams from Fortune Bridge.

BACK TO BUSINESS—Mr. William S. McNeill, of Somerville, Mass., and formerly of Fairview, was a welcomed visitor to the Island for a few days, visiting relatives and friends. Mr. McNeill, who is a valued employee of the large grocery firm of S. S. Pierce Co., Boston, has not been back home since leaving to reside there in 1926. He left on return Monday morning, accompanied by his son Leonard, who has been spending the holidays with his grandfather, Mr. Duncan Buchanan, New Dominion.

RETURN FROM P. E. I.—The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. George Cook will be pleased to know that they have arrived home safely after spending their honeymoon visiting friends and relatives on the Island. While on the Island they were tendered a reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Hogan, Kelly's Cross, where they received many beautiful and useful presents. Since their return they are residing in Boston, Mass., where Mr. Cook has a lucrative position on the railway. Their many friends wish them much happiness on their journey through life.

HARVEST SERVICE—Margate Church was filled to capacity on Sunday last where a Harvest Service was held. The front presented a very picturesque appearance with elaborately trimmed with grains, vegetables, fruit, and flowers—artistic arrangements of the Y. P. S. Rev. Mr. Briggs preached an inspiring sermon, taking as his text John 12-24, Verily, verily I say unto you, except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and etc. The music was of high order and in keeping with the occasion. A solo, "A Closer Walk With God" was very sweetly sung by Mr. Roscoe Walker. The choir rendered appropriate hymns. Mr. Russell McKay also sang a fine solo, "His Eye is on the Sparrows." An anthem "Sowing the Seed," by the choir was also presented with Mr. Walker as soloist in same. Mrs. Chester Simpson, Malpeque, capably presided at the organ for the occasion.

WINS QUILT—Mr. J. P. Gordon the lucky winner of a beautiful butterfly quilt lotteried and made by the members of the Ringwood Women's Institute, Rocky Point, has most generously offered same to the ladies to be set up again and auctioned off to further augment their funds. Mr. Gordon was much pleased with his good fortune, and his kindly act is indeed appreciated by the Institute.

RINGWOOD INSTITUTE
 Ringwood Women's Institute held the usual monthly meeting on Saturday evening, Sept. 2nd, at the home of Mrs. Ernest Currie, with the members of their sister Institute, Fairview, as their guests. The meeting opened by singing the Institute Ode and repeating the Creed in unison. The members each responded to the roll call with a joke. After the usual routine of business, reports of Committees, etc., the event of the evening took place, lottery of a quilt made by the members. The Vice-President of Fairview Institute officiated, drawing the winning ticket. A pin could be heard drop as all eagerly listened for the winner's name to be read out. The lucky recipient proved to be Mr. J. P. Gordon. The sum realized was over thirty dollars, which is being devoted to charitable purposes. At this meeting two dollars was voted to be contributed to dental clinics, and a like sum was paid for a cake donated to Fairview Institute for a lottery in aid of their fund for a new schoolhouse. The entertainment consisted of a humorous reading by Miss Austina Mutch, a contest, "Things our Grandmothers Missed" and selections on the gramophone. A dainty repast was served by the members, and the meeting closed with God Save the King. Ere its close Mrs. Allison MacMillan in a splendid little address voiced the thanks of Fairview Institute and their appreciation of the helpful attitude of Ringwood Institute. Mrs. MacMillan stressed the value of good fellowship such as this among Institutes and communities, emphasizing co-operation as the first step towards the best in citizenship—co-operation in the work "For Home and Country." Mrs. John MacMillan, in her usual gracious manner, followed with a few remarks along the same lines. In reply to both of these Mrs. Dolron fittingly replied.

TIRED all the Time
 —she thought it was "NERVES"

Losing interest—losing friends—she never went out any more—always too tired. "Nerves," she thought—but it was her kidneys, the filters of her blood, that needed attention. Delay meant danger. She took Dodd's Kidney Pills at once. Restored to healthy, normal action, her kidneys soon cleared away blood impurities. Energy returned. Fatigue, headache, backache, and all signs of faulty kidneys disappeared. Again life seemed worth while.
