TO CLEAN WOLLEN GARMENTS.

A stiff brush dipped in gasoline then in cornmeal, and rubbed over any soiled worsted garment will clean and freshen it.

If a sweater is very much soiled first shake out all the dust, then drop it into slightly warm water and stir round. Use a teaspoonful of borax and gently souse up and down, and if there are any greasy spots rub soap on the hands and manipulate the sweater, but do not allow any soap to come in contact with the sweater. Rinse in three clear, warm waters and add a few drops of bluing to the final water. Now press out, place the sweater in a large pillowcase and suspend the four corners by large pins over a tub for three days. Then spread on a sheet in the sunshine for a day to two until dry. This method is followed by expert cleaners.

To preserve clear whiteness in silk and woolen underwear it must not be washed in hot water or with other garments and must be rinsed in warm water and dried indoors. The goods should not be sprinkled for ironing. A disregard for these rules will result in yellowing the goods, and there is no known method of restoring the lost whiteness. Silk and wool garments will not shrink much if these rules are followed.

GOLD HEELS.

A cable from Paris states that the very latest fad in high heels for women's shoes is a gold band encircling the heels near the bottom. It also was stated that many fashionable women were seen at Antauel attending the last cross country meeting of the season wearing bright colored stockings, with snakes and lizards embroidered in green and blue spangles. As yet this fancy has not reached New York, the French Heels set with rhinestones in various designs having met the demand so far.

MEXICAN VICTIM

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 21.—An investigation of the murder of Edward G. Dexter, an American, near Rio Hondo, State of Oaxaca, was ordered to-day by the Mexican government. At the same time assurances were given to the United States embassy that the guilty persons would be punished if found.

Makes Rheumatism Promptly Disappear

CHRONIC, CRIPPLED-UP SUFFERERS FIND RELIEF AFTER A FEW DOSES OF NEW REMEDY ARE TAKEN.

It is needless to suffer any longer with rheumatism, and be all crippled up, and bent out of shape with its heart-wrenching pains, when you can surely avoid it.

Rheumatism comes from weak inactive kidneys, that fail to filter from the blood, the poisonous waste matter and uric acid; and it is useless to rub on liniments or take ordinary remedies to relieve the pain. This only prolongs the misery and can't possibly cure you.

The only way to cure rheumatism is to remove the cause. The new discovery, Croxone, does this because it neutralizes and dissolves all the poisonous substances and uric acid that lodge in the joints and muscles, to scratch and irritate and cause rheumatism, and cleans out and strengthens the stopped-up inactive kidneys so they can filter all the poison from the blood and drive it on and out of the system.

Croxone is the most wonderful medicine ever made for curing chronic rheumatism, kidney troubles, and bladder disorders. You will find it different from all other remedies. There is nothing else on earth like it. It matters not how old you are, or how long you have suffered, it is practically impossible to take it into the human system without results. You will find relief from the first few doses, and all your misery and suffering will end.

An original package of Croxone costs but a trifle at any first-class drug store. All druggists are authorized to sell it on the positive money-back guarantee. Three doses a day for a few days is often all that is ever needed to cure the worst backache or overgrown urinary disorders.

A SURPRISE PARTY. On the evening of the 20th inst. about forty members of the Hazelbrook Baptist Sunday School and congregation assembled at the home of Deacon J. B. Jones, Pownal. The object of the gathering was to give Deacon Layton McCabe, the efficient teacher of the Hazelbrook Bible Class, a gift in recognition of his long and valuable service. After a very pleasant evening had been spent in games, music, etc., Mr. and Mrs. McCabe were invited to take chairs that had been placed for them on one side of the room. This they did with some reluctance not knowing what was to come next. Then Miss Sadie Jones came forward and read the following addresses:— Dear Bro. McCabe:—We, your friends and members of the Hazelbrook Bible Class desire on this occasion to manifest our recognition and appreciation of your splendid leadership and assure you of our most hearty support in the grand work you are doing in the interests of the Kingdom of God. When we recall the clearness of thought and the aptness of illustration with which you always unfold the important truths of each lesson and the practical and tactful way in which these great life lessons are applied, we are ever reminded that we have in you a teacher who thoroughly understands both how to get and how to give to others the hidden treasures of "The Word of Life." We know your life is a very busy one, yet each successive Sabbath gives the most abundant evidence that you reserve and hold a certain portion of time as sacred for a careful and prayerful preparation for this important phase of the Master's work. The very fact that you regularly travel five miles—many times on foot—in order to meet the sessions of your class is in itself a testimony to your love for and your consecration to the Lord's cause, and carries with it an influence that cannot now be correctly measured. We know that in a spiritual sense, faithful service for others always brings its own reward. Our individual lives are enriched, not so much by what we get as by what we give of loving sacrifice; and we are refreshed by a sense of sweet soul repose when we have done our best, in His name, even when we are not conscious of the appreciation and loyalty of our fellows. This spiritual reward of service faithfully performed, we know, has been yours, as you have sought to bear to us God's messages of truth and duty; but we wish to assure you that while your own life has been deepened by the joy of this service, the truth you have brought to us, in the Master's name and spirit, has broadened our vision of Divine things and enriched our Christian experiences as well. Enshrined in many a heart and expressed in many a life are the precious gems of truth that throughout these years God has helped you to unfold. As you go on in this, your loved work, be assured of both our continued co-operation and prayers; and our united desire is that you may long be spared to labor in the vineyard of the Sunday School. It is not necessary to say more, for after all, even the most expressive language many times utterly fails to fully reveal the deep feelings of the soul, so we ask you, dear brother, to accept this slight robe as a very small tangible token of the appreciation and esteem that no words of ours can fully express. Mrs. McCabe:—We cannot let this occasion pass without expressing our highest appreciation of your worth as a true help-mate of our worthy teacher. Our vineyards of service may differ but the scriptural principle of reward is based upon the faithful and loving performance of duty, in whatever sphere we may be placed. We recognize that no sphere of service is more important or has larger opportunities than the vineyard of home; and the wife and mother, who, in the fear and love of God, does her best, there is worthy to share the highest honor and the richest reward. When, after one of his war expeditions, David returned with the spoils of victory to the Brook Besor where he had led two hundred of his warriors in charge of the baggage, he proclaimed that each of these two hundred who had served on garrison duty was to have an equal share with those who had been in the forefront of the fight. Garrison duty appealed to David as being as important and as worthy of reward as the more active service of the battlefield. This is just as true in the great spiritual fight in which the Church of God is now engaged. Garrison duty is as necessary as the active engagements, and the one who patiently, in the name of Jesus, carries by the staff is deserving of equal honor with the one who takes the field. We realize that by your consecration to the scriptural ideals of wifehood and motherhood, by the strengthening influence of your Christian character in the home and in a multitude of other ways you have both directly and indirectly helped your worthy husband to get and to give us rich messages from the "Book of God." We wish to assure you, dear sister, that we recognize the worthfulness and influence of your Christian womanhood in the work that is being accomplished by our esteemed brother and teacher, we ask you to accept this china tea set as bearing with it our most sincere regards. Mr. and Mrs. McCabe were taken wholly by surprise, and in a few words, expressive of deep feeling, thanked the friends for their kindly appreciation.

Simple Scarf

A sideband scarf of natural colored linen, edged with Irish peasant lace, would be beautiful, says the Minneapolis Journal. The linen must be of the coarse variety, and the hem should be two inches wide. For a dresser scarf, the same idea could be carried out, using coarse blue linen in combination with the lace, which is made in linen thread, and is especially suitable for household linens. With the blue linen and white lace, a monogram worked in centre, one girl made a lining for her trunk, pinned it in place in centre front, about one inch from the hem.

IN MEMORIAM. At Irishtown on January 5th death visited the home of James A. Mann, calling hence a loving wife and tender mother. Although deceased had been in poor health for several months, none expected that the end was so near; however, a complication of diseases set in and shortly after, she peacefully breathed her last. The departed, a friend to all and highly esteemed by all her neighbors, will indeed be missed much in the community, but more in the home where she always proved herself a devoted wife, a loving and conscientious mother and a kind friend to all who came within her house. Besides a sorrowing husband and seven young children, she leaves to mourn, an aged father and mother, James and Mrs. Mann of Irishtown; three sisters, Mrs. Brown of New York, Mrs. McCormick of Kansas City, and Mrs. Appleby of Beaumont, Mass., and one brother William at home. The funeral which was held on the 7th inst., was largely attended, the Rev. Mr. Sutherland of Kensington, officiating at the home of the deceased and at the Geddle Memorial cemetery where interment took place.

Eczema Cured Three Years Ago

Best City Doctors Failed, But Cure Was Effected by Use of Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Mrs. A. T. Smith. You apply Dr. Chase's Ointment for eczema and feel the benefit as if by magic. It may take some days to get the sores cleaned out and the healing process fully established, but from day to day you can see the old trouble gradually disappearing and know that you are getting rid of it. Mrs. A. T. Smith, 1 Mt. Charles St., Montreal, Que., writes:—I had eczema on my leg for four years, and tried many remedies and doctors in Montreal and Boston, without any benefit. I used three boxes of Dr. Chase's Ointment and was cured completely. This was three years ago. Since then I used Dr. Chase's Ointment for irritations and eruptions of the skin, and easily got rid of them with two or three applications. Dr. Chase's Ointment is a wonderful preparation.
