This is the cry we hear about this time of the year, and it is only right. When nature is renewing itself, why should not man renew his apparel. If he wants to succeed in his line of business, (no matter what it may be) he must, look the part, because a man is judged by his appearance, if his attire is correct he will command the respect of his fellow man, and (women also).

Think the matter over and when you have decided come to us and see what we can do for you in the line of clothing, you will be more than repaid for your trouble, for we have the goods, and have a knack of putting them up that make their wearers look prosperous, and up to date.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON
LESSON X. JUNE 7.
JESUS APPEARS TO HIS DISCIPLES.
GOLDEN TEXT:
Commit vs. 19, 20.
"Thomas answered and said unto Him, my Lord and my God." John 20: 28.
Time—Evenings of Sundays, April 9 and April 16, A.D. 30.
Place—House in Jerusalem.

EXPLANATION:
I. Jesus Appears unto the Disciples. Thomas Being Absent, 19-25. Jesus having appeared to individuals now appears to the disciples collectively. It was immediately after the return of the two from Emmaus (Luke 24:36). The disciples were in fear of the Jews (cf. Matt. 14: 25). With a word He banishes their fear. "Peace be unto you." As He said this, He was standing in their midst when He stands in the midst there is always peace no matter how great the turmoil without. He was fulfilling His promise to them (Jno. 14: 27). His coming to the great cure for all fear and sorrow (Is. 25: 9; 1 Thess. 4: 16, 17). Shut doors were no barriers to the entrance of the resurrection body of Jesus. The evidences of a literal physical resurrection of Christ are overwhelming. The disciples were at last convinced and gladness takes the place of fear. They were "glad when they saw the Lord." There is no other gladness like that which comes from a clear vision of the risen Christ. Jesus felt it necessary to repeat His message of comfort, their unbelieving hearts had not taken it in. This was a common form of salvation, but Jesus put new meaning into it. He not merely says "Peace be unto you," but He actually imparts peace (Jno. 14:27; 16:33). Having given them peace, He next gives them a commission. First peace in our own hearts, then a commission to others. The form of the commission was thrilling "as the Father hath sent Me even so, etc." (cf. Is. 61: 1-3; Mk. 16:15). Having given them the commission He gives them the empowerment for it (cf. Luke 24: 49; Acts 1: 4, 5; 10, 38). The disciples did not actually receive

ALMOST GIVEN UP
"FRUIT-A-TIVES" SAVED HIS LIFE

Mr. Dingwall was Superintendent of St. Andrew's Sunday School in Williams town for nine years and License Commissioner for Glengarry — and Tax Collector for Charlottetown — for fourteen years continuously. Read how strongly "Fruit-a-tives" comes out in favor of "Fruit-a-tives."

Williamstown, Ont., April 5th., 1907.

I have much pleasure in testifying to the almost marvellous benefit I have derived from taking "Fruit-a-tives." I was a life long sufferer from Chronic Constipation and the only medicine I ever secured to do me any real good was "Fruit-a-tives." This medicine cured me when everything else failed. Also, last spring, I had a severe attack of bladder trouble with kidney trouble, and "Fruit-a-tives" cured these complaints for me, when the physician attending me had practically given me up. I am now over eighty years of age and I can strongly recommend "Fruit-a-tives" for Chronic Constipation and bladder and kidney trouble. This medicine is mild like fruit, is easy to take, but most effective in action.

Sgd) JAMES DINGWALL.

"Fruit-a-tives" — or "Fruit Liver Tablets" are sold by dealers at 50c a box — 6 for $2.50 — or will be sent on receipt of price. Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

SCHOOL GIRLS

Most of our ambitious young American girls work too hard at school.

Many teachers have little or no judgment about pushing a child beyond her endurance. They ought to know that girls especially have a danger period. Often, too often, utter physical collapse is the result, and it takes years and years to recover lost vitality.

Many a young girl has been helped over this critical period, and been prepared for a healthy womanhood by LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

Miss Elsie L. Hook, of Chelsea, Vt., writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I am only sixteen years old, but I want to tell you that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and your advice cured me of sideache, periodic pains and sleeplessness, also of a nervous, irritable condition after everything else had failed, and I want to thank you for it."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.
For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

the Holy Spirit in His fulness at this time (Acts 1: 5; 2: 4; Jno. 7: 39; Acts 2: 33; 13: 7). Jesus' breathing upon them was a symbolic and prophetic act. By breathing upon them and thus assuming to be the One whose breath is the divine Spirit, Jesus claimed most unmistakably to be divine (cf. Gen. 2: 7; Job 33: 4; Ps. 139: 7). Jesus, Thomas, full of doubt and self-will, was not with the brethren and so missed meeting his risen Lord. The other disciples hastened to tell Thomas of the blessing they had received. "We have seen the Lord," said their excited cry. If we have seen the Lord we too have a duty of testimony. By this time Thomas should have been convinced, but he wasn't. Thomas had many reasons for believing (Matt. 16: 21; Jno. 20: 18; Luke 24: 13-33), but Thomas would believe nothing in a certain kind of proof which in his self-will he presumed to dictate. Thomas has many followers on his bad side. Thomas had no ground for disbelieving but his own notions. Many today are willing to set up their own notions against the testimony of prophets, apostles, Jesus Christ Himself, and the whole Word of God. Conceit and self-will lie at the bottom of it all (Ps. 78:21, 22, 31, 32; 106; 23, 24). Thomas' willfulness showed out in his words, "I will not believe." The only kind of evidence Thomas was open to was that which came through his sense. Poor man! What is told of Thomas here is in perfect keeping with what is told elsewhere (ch. 11: 16; 14: 5). Thomas was of the kind of man to believe upon the insufficient evidence in a resurrection that did not really take place.

II. Jesus Appears unto Thomas, 26-29. Thomas had a whole week of unbelief and darkness and misery. Jesus had hidden the disciples go into Galilee (Matt. 28:10), but they have seemed to have waited a week rather than leave Thomas behind. Their testimony had, after all, made some impression upon Thomas, for on the next Lord's Day he took pains to be with them. There was on his part some readiness to believe. Jesus came with the same old grand duty "peace." The wonderful grand pity and long-suffering of Jesus appear in His words to Thomas and his whole treatment of him. Thomas was fully convinced at last, and remarkably accepting of the Lord who had been found in the Bible, "My Lord and my God." Jesus accepted these titles. Thomas out-thought them all at last. Jesus gave Thomas a very gentle but suggestive rebuke for his persistent unbelief. He pronounces an especial blessing upon the one who does not ask to see but believes upon the naked testimony of the Word of God (cf. Luke 1:38, 45; R.V.; Heb. 11:8, 17-19, 30).

The EDISON PHONOGRAPH

MR. EDISON would like to see an Edison Phonograph in every American home because he knows that there is in this, his favorite invention, more sound, healthy amusement than can be had in any other way for so little money. After all, what is it that we want in the way of entertainment? We go to the theatre to hear songs and dialogues; to the dance hall for music and motion; to the concert hall or grand opera to hear good singing, when we can get them all, at far less expense and trouble, in our own homes with the Edison Phonograph. See and hear the new Edison model with the big horn at the nearest Edison store, or send for a complete catalogue describing it.

We Desire Good, Live Dealers to sell Edison Phonographs in every town where they are not now well represented. Dealers having established stores should write at once to National Phonograph Company, 100 Lakeside Ave., Orange, N. J., U. S. A.

"Brace McKay & Co. Ltd., Summerside, carry a large stock of Edison's Phonographs and Gold Moulded Record Booklets and catalogues supplied on application."
