On their return Mrs. Gill and children will spend a few days in Boston, Mass., visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Scanlon and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gallant, before proceeding to Onatonna, Minnesota, where her husband is employed as an executive of General Mills, Inc.

CARD OF THANKS The family of the late J. S. Jack wish to thank friends and neighbours who sent cards of sympathy and flowers and those who visited him and performed acts of kindness while he was alone.

CARD OF THANKS Adeline Mabey extends her sincere thanks to all who helped in her recent bereavement. Particularly Dr. Brehaut, Rev. Duke, Mrs. Clarence Cuddy and Mrs. H. McKay. Also all who sent flowers, cards and letters of sympathy.

DOYLE-DONNELLY WEDDING A pretty summer wedding was solemnized on Wednesday, Aug. 4th at eight o'clock in St. Dunstan's Basilica, Charlottetown, when Norma Joan Donnelly, daughter of Mr. E. P. Donnelly and the late Mrs. Donnelly, Charlottetown, became the wife of Ernest Reuben Doyle, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Doyle, Savage Harbour. Rev. Father Patrick McMahon performed the double ring ceremony and celebrated nuptial mass. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked lovely in her wedding gown of white duchesse satin, floor length, fitted bodice, full skirt and long sleeves. Her full length veil was held in place with a halo of pleated net and white blossoms and she carried a bouquet of red starlight roses and maiden hair fern.

The bride was attended by her sister, Eileen, who wore a floor length gown of shell pink taffeta with matching hat and she carried a bouquet of pink Briar-cliff carnations. The groom was attended by his brother Bernard. The groom's gift to the bride was a three-strand pearl necklace, to the bridesmaid sterling ear-rings and to the groomsmen a Parker Pen. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride and breakfast was served to immediate relatives and friends. The well-appointed table was centered with a decorated two-tier wedding cake topped with miniature bride and groom and was flanked with lighted tapers and summer flowers. The bridal party left by motor for various points of interest throughout the island and in the evening returned to the home of the groom's parents where a reception and dance was held. Mr. and Mrs. Doyle received many beautiful and costly presents which is tangible evidence of the high esteem in which they are held. They will reside in French Village where the groom is a prosperous young farmer.

Carmichael-Keeping Wedding The marriage took place on Wednesday, September 16th, at 3:00 P.M. at the Baptist Church, Charlottetown, of Ruth Alberta, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ewart Allan Keeping of Murray Harbor to Keith Ross Carmichael, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Carmichael of Charlottetown. Rev. James D. Davison officiated. The wedding music was played by Mrs. Allison MacRae and Mr. Harvey MacPherson rendered very beautifully "I Walk Beside You." Baskets of Gladioli were arranged in the church for the ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her father and attended by her sister Miss Bessie Keeping, R. N., as bridesmaid. The groomsmen were Mr. Horace Carmichael, brother of the groom. The ushers were Mr. Don Wonnacott and Mr. Douglas Hill of Charlottetown. The bride wore a gown of white satin with long sleeves, sweetheart neckline and finger tip veil. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. The bridesmaid's dress was of pink taffeta with matching shoulder length veil. She carried a nosegay of mixed flowers. The groom's mother chose a black dress with matching accessories. She wore a corsage of pink roses. Following a reception held at the Queen Hotel Mr. and Mrs. Carmichael left on a wedding trip. For traveling the bride wore a beige wool dress with brown accessories.
