McDougall, Marshall Smith, Charles Compton, Simon Compton, Peter Martin, Miss Maggie Beaton, Miss Sara Stewart, Miss Clara Jardine, Miss Nelly McMillan, Miss Cassie McMillan, Miss Amy Bell, Miss Lizzie McDougall, Mrs. Jardine.
 THE yachts Gloria and Hester which reached Halifax on Saturday and owned by H. C. McLeod, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, attracted large crowds to Cunard's wharf yesterday. The Gloria is much cleaner and brighter in appearance, having been cleaned up at St. John's. She is much smaller than the Hester, being the smallest of the three which crossed. She is also much narrower than the others and looks more like a racer than either of them. After winning in the great French contest in 1898 she was taken to England, and is said to have never been beaten by any boat of her class.—Hx. Chronicle, 17th.

ADAMSON'S Botanic Balsam has gained a reputation which places it in the front ranks of curative agents. It has been in the market for thirty years. It is recommended by the best physicians because it cures coughs and colds every time. 25c. all Druggists.

 THE steamer Turret Bell is reported to be hard and fast on the rocks at Byron Island and full of water. Mrs. W. C. Owen and son, of Ottawa, formerly of Charlottetown, were on board the Turret Bell, going to Sydney.—Hx. Chronicle.

MR. WERKESHIER, of Sheldon, Iowa, who has been in the city for a few days, left for P. E. I. yesterday to visit his friend, Mr. T. Robertson, of Summerside, P. E. I. Mr. Werkeshier has just returned from an extended trip through England, Scotland, Ireland and France, and is returning to his old home.—Moncton Transcript.

TO-DAY we have the united force of the Boy's Brigade with us. Yesterday afternoon the Charlottetown Brigade tender d a soldier's welcome to No 1 Company from Summerside. The drill engaged in for the next few days and the general military discipline at Camp Brighton will instill in the boys a true sense of Canadian patriotism.

ON Tuesday evening a gentleman who is visiting the province for his health informed policeman Hooper that a man had met him on Queen Street and asked for money. Upon being refused he dealt the stranger a sharp blow to which the visitor could not reply. The police immediately arrested Wm. McCabe and he is present in the lockup awaiting trial.

THE following is the program, which will be rendered by the League of the Cross Band in the gardens to-morrow evening. INCREASED attendance and new wonder with old ones repeated were in evidence at the Opera house last evening when the Wizard Powell astonished everybody. There were many new and engaging features. Powell is a Wizard of infinite resources. And there were presents galore. At tonight's performance, which will be the last of the series, more novelties are promised and presents for all who pay for tickets. It is a really meritorious, clean and amusing entertainment that Zera Semon always gives his patrons.

Boy's Brigade.

BATTALION ORDERS.—July 19th, 1900. The Battalion will parade on St. Pauls parade ground at 9.45 a. m. moving off at 10 a. m. sharp.

By Order,
 EWEN McDOUGALL,
 Adjutant.

No 1. Company was marched to the St. Pauls school room, the remaining companies being dismissed to their private parades. The question of bivouacing the boys was no sooner mooted than the citizens jumped at the idea. In fifteen minutes every boy had found a home and we doubt not a welcome that was mutually agreeable. For some time after the boys had left enquiries for boys were made. The boys are fine sturdy fellows, marched well and are evidently after the trophy.
