TWENTY CENTS A WEEK BY MAIL (TWO DOLLARS PER YEAR BY MAIL)

Kaiser's Aim To Cripple Britain

Liverpool Editor Declares That His Warnings Have Been Given Before to Deaf Ears—England Keeps Watchful Eye on North Sea.

LONDON, Feb. 5.—With discontent in the navy and the reduction of the already very small army, what has Great Britain to look forward to if all that is written and said about Germany's intentions be correct? A naval officer on the active list tells me that the spirit of discontent in some sea-going ships amounts to a latent mutiny...
