Malpeque United Church

The Christmas services on Sunday in the United Church were very largely attended. Morning worship was conducted by the pastor, Rev. James Cross who preached an inspiring sermon on "The Word Was Made Flesh, Matt. 1:14. The Gospel came to us in words; we only fully understand Christ when we see Him as the Eternal and Universal Messiah. We do not grasp the meaning of any word until it becomes flesh; until it becomes living; related to life in terms we can understand. God the Word must become flesh, if men would understand Him.

Therefore Christ came as a little child. With Christ's birth we obtained a new set of values. Grace and Truth, Christ has come to be made flesh in our lives. The Christian man must accompany the Christian message. May God give us power to make Christ living, and show Him to others by what we are. Grace and Truth, the choir sang a fine anthem, "While Shepherds Watched Their Flocks by Night." Wilson, in this anthem Keith Donald sang the bass solo. Mr. Cross the soprano solo, and Mr. Cross, Mrs. Lockley, and Lloyd Lockery in the trio. Christmas hymns and carols were sung by choir and congregation.

At the evening service there was a large congregation also. Mr. Cross preached on the text—"Men Who Followed The Star, Matt. 2:1-210. The shepherds and wise men were led to Christ through following the path of duty. The wise men not only followed the star, they followed faithfully until they found the Christ. All of us are called to follow the Christian ideals for peace on earth; but our ideals never materialize, because of not enough faith to be moved to action, that our ideals may become true. Florence Nightingale, the star and light, and gave us the angels in white.

The star brought a response, the wise men saw the Christ, and worshipped Him. They opened their treasures and gave Christ gold, frankincense and myrrh. Those gifts are symbolical of the world, religion, and science. When we make these things, then will come peace on earth, and goodwill to man. There were special selections by the choir, a male quartet, Bethlehem's Star, Mr. Cross, William Ramsey, tenors; and Lloyd Lockery, Keith Donald, basses, was very impressive.

The anthem, "O Holy Night" was well presented by the large choir.

Malpeque Trading Co. and North Shore Packing Co. are doing a rushing business at this season of the year, the good roads and Christmas shopping keeps the staff on the alert.

Malpeque School The closing of Fanning School in Malpeque took the form of a concert in the Hall on Dec 18th evening.

The Hall was packed to capacity with interested spectators, and was very tastefully decorated; and a beautifully decorated tree occupied a space on the stage. Rev. Mr. Cross announced the various numbers on the programme. Mary Benoit was pianist for the evening. During the intermission on programme there was a sale of candy and apples; at which time Mrs. Kenneth MacKay and James MacKay played violin and piano. The children acquitted themselves very admirably in their various exercises and singing; and many were the comments heard on the painstaking efforts of their teachers, Mrs. Gerald Lockhart, and Mrs. Preston Green.

At conclusion of programme remarks were given by Mr. L. D. MacNutt, and Mr. Woodside complimenting the children on the fine way they presented their various parts, also the teachers on their splendid efforts and training for this excellent programme just enjoyed.

Santa Claus appeared on the scene, amid applause, and presented the many gay presents to each and all pupils; also a goodly share to the teachers; then Santa wishing one and all a Merry Christmas, departed for the North Pole until Christmas.

Christmas Services In Summerside

The Christmas services held on Sabbath in the Summerside churches were very largely attended both in the morning and the evening.

At the Baptist Church the morning worship was conducted by Rev. E. J. Barras and the sermon was on the theme "Emmanuel, God With Us". Included in the morning music was a solo "A Song In The Air" by Oley Speaks, sweetly sung by Mrs. Clarence Mercer and the Anthem "The Christmas Glory Song" was rendered by the choir. The evening service was presented in song and included the congregational singing of the following carols: "Angels From The Realm Of Glory"; "Joy To The World"; "O Little Town Of Bethlehem"; and "It Came Upon The Midnight Clear". The choir, under the direction of Mrs. Eric Sheen, organist, presented "O Little Town" and "Infant Holy" by the ladies' chorus only; "God Rest Ye Merry Gentlemen"; "In Black Midwinter"; and "Once In Royal David's City" with the full chorus; a duet "Silent Night" by Mrs. Clarence Mercer and Mrs. Jack MacLeod. The church had been beautifully decorated for the occasion by the Senior Group of the B. Y. P. U.—S.

The festival of Christmas was celebrated in the Presbyterian Church on Sunday. The Junior Girls' Choir, wearing for the first time their white surplices (arrangements for which were made by the Ladies' Club) sang carols acceptably at the beginning of each service. At the morning worship Rev. Charles Garney gave an inspiring sermon on the subject "Is The Babe of Bethlehem The Saviour of the World For Today?" Appropriate Christmas hymns were sung and the anthems "The Introductory Chorus" from "The Hope of the World" — a Cantata for Christmas by P. A. Schnecker, and "Let Us Now Go Even To Bethlehem" by J. Hatton were rendered by the regular choir, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Cleve Whalen. The evening worship was a special Christmas service presented in song. It included the following anthems "That First Christmas Morn" by Ernest Newton; "Love Divine All Love Excelling" by Rev. E. Vine Hall, with the tenor solo by Mr. J. C. Mountain; "God From On High Hath Heard" by Edmund Turner; and "King of Kings" by Caleb Simpson. A duet by Mrs. Edwin Estey and Mr. Allison MacLean—S.

After the regular Sunday evening worship in the Summerside Presbyterian Church the Y. P. S. held a Pineside Service in the Church Hall, and the singing of carols, led by the minister, the Worship Convener, James B. Johnston, delivered the Call to Worship and Invocation. The Scripture lesson was read by Miss Louise Dalziel and was followed by the meditation "To Bethlehem, Not So Far" by Gardner Dalziel. Prayer was offered by Arnold Pidgen and the president, David Morrison, gave the Address of Welcome, after which the Service Convener, Miss Jean Matthew, stated the purpose of service. After John MacNaught and John Gorrell received the offering, Miss Hazel gave the offertory prayer. Appropriate Christmas hymns were sung throughout the service. After the benediction by the minister, a fellowship period was enjoyed and refreshments served by the members of the Y. P. S. Mrs. Cleve Whalen presided at the piano.

At the morning worship in Trinity United Church Rev. K. G. Sullivan took for his text "Thanks be unto God for His Unspeakeable Gift," II Corinthians 9:15. The large choir, under the direction of the organist, Miss Mary Geldart, sang the anthem "O Holy Night" by Juanita Roseman and music by H. Mendith, was presented at the evening service. The church was decorated for the occasion. The choir, singing "O Come All Ye Faithful" in the processional carried lighted candles, which were placed on the choir railing to remain until the recessional, when with the singing of "Holy Night" they were carried away. Rev. K. G. Sullivan was the narrator in the cantata. Besides the many choruses sung by the group, solo parts were taken by Mrs. L. M. Calbeck, Mrs. Frank Daley and Mr. Roland

Phillipson; a male quartet, consisting of Messrs Allison MacLean, Roland Phillipson, A. S. Sharp and Thane A. Campbell; A duet by Mrs. Edwin Estey and Mr. Allison MacLean—S.

On December 12, the Read's Corner Women's Institute met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm Matheson, with the president, Mrs. Wyman Cairns, in the chair. The meeting opened in the usual way, fourteen members answered the roll call by naming their favorite vegetable. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and adopted. The school committee, Mrs. Samuel Beston and Mrs. Bradford Cairns, reported calling at the school and paying for some material for the hot lunches. The sick committee, Mrs. Lester Baglolle and Mrs. Frances MacQuarrie, made several calls and sent one treat. The new sick committee is Mrs. Harry Heckbert and Mrs. Bernet Crozier. It was agreed to send a magazine subscription to a friend in hospital, treats to the sick in the district and Christmas cards to shut-ins. The collection amounted to $1.90. Mrs. George Read invited the members to her home. Mrs. Robert Hoeg and Mrs. Herbert Snowdon are to be on lunch committee. A fourteen pound box of food was packed for the Institute family in England, and it was decided that next month members would send clothing. Mrs. Bradford Cairns read an article entitled "For Home and Country." Mrs. George Read assisted the hostess in serving a delicious lunch. Meeting closed with The King.

PAY UP OR ELSE CANBERRA. — (CP) — Papan "boys" who want the Australian government to grant higher wages recently wrote: "Oh dear, dear, please Mr. Woodward the labor boys want $1-2-a week because no ration is received. Please reply because we work extremely hard if you pay up we stay. Otherwise look out."

STOCKHOLM — (CP) — Swedish physicians from all parts of the country assembled here for a medical congress in which heart diseases were the main topic of discussion. Initiator of the congress, Prof. Gustaf Nylin, suggested a "heart service" be established to help people with weak hearts.
