TUESDAY
WORKFUL VISIT—Miss Andrews and Miss Elaine Benjamin, of the teaching staff of the Street School, have returned from a delightful visit to the exhibition in addition to several days in Toronto, also visited Quebec, Montreal and Niagara Falls.

ON HOLIDAY VISIT—Among those crossing on the Car Ferry last Friday were Mr. and Mrs.
 Benjamin W. Birt, Mr. Stewart, going to visit Mr. Birt's sisters and brother in Berlin, N.H. They were accompanied on their trip by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Leard, Lorne Valley, and will be absent two weeks.

ON MOTOR TRIP—Mr. and Mrs.
 James Robinson, Methuen, Mass., accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Peter D. Peters, Rollo Bay, motored to Tignish and points west on Wednesday, returning on Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson, with their daughter, Miss Mavis and son Master Jimmie, who have been visiting in Rollo Bay and Elmira for the past two weeks, left on return on Friday, the 4th.

CONCERT AT EUSTICO—The pianoforte recital, given by Miss Marie Paquet on Monday night was a decided success. Miss Paquet has earned a reputation that is second to none and her future promises to be a brilliant one. She was ably supported by her father, Miss Beatrice McKenna, the Misses Regina and Celeste Gallant and Mr. J. H.
 Gallant.

WINS FLOWER PRIZES—Among the prize winners at the Canadian Gladiolus Societies Annual Exhibition, which was held in Bellville, Ontario, on August 18th and 19th, Mrs. Gordon MacMillan, Cornwall, was successful in winning three first prizes. At the Provincial exhibition in Charlottetown, Mrs. MacMillan also won several prizes.

ATTENDED EXHIBITION—Mr. and Mrs. Willard Prowse, Brackley, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Wood, Southport, were in Georgetown on Wednesday attending the exhibition.

Canada's favourite

Largest sale because so good 'Fresh from the gardens'

RETURNED FROM BRITISH COLUMBIA—(Dr.) John Mc-Donald and daughter, Miss Ruby, returned to Summerside on Friday after a three months visit to Vancouver and Victoria, B. C.
 They were accompanied by their daughter, Miss Ruby, who was in Moose Jaw. They were in Ottawa by Dr. McNeill, who returned here for two weeks.

SAD BEREAVEMENT—Mrs.
 J. A. MacDonald, Cardigan, Friday received word of the sudden death of her nephew, Amasa Stone of Jenkinstown, Penn., a university student, who passed away suddenly in Taunton, Mass., where he was employed during vacation. The deceased has numerous friends in this province who will regret to learn the sad news.

CHURCH WEDDING—An interesting wedding was solemnized in St. Luke's Anglican Church at O'- Leary at 4 p. m. on Thursday, Sept.
 3rd, when Rev. Mr. Phillips, rector of the parish, united in marriage Rev. Russell Webb, son of Mr. John Webb, of Howland, to Miss Pearl Lockerby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
 Lockerby, of Fortune Cove. The bride was charmingly gowned in white flowered taffeta silk with overdress of net, and large picture hat.
 She carried a lovely bouquet of roses and maiden hair fern. Both bride and groom were unattended.
 During the signing of the register, "O Promise Me" was sung by Miss Gertrude McGezger and Mr. Alvin Webb, brother of the groom. The ceremony was witnessed by many friends of the bride and groom. A reception was held at the home of the bride, immediately after the ceremony. Rev. Mr. Webb and his bride left by motor for Hoyt, N.B., where they will reside, Rev. Mr.
 Webb having charge of a large Anglican Parish there. They were the guests of Mrs. Arthur Cameron, of Summerside on Thursday evening.
 The bride and groom were presented with a generous purse from the Parish of St. Luke before their departure, as they were both former members of the church. Last Monday evening, a bridal shower was tendered to the bride at the home of her sister, Mrs. Russell Leard, when she was the recipient of many lovely gifts. Miss Lockerby was a popular teacher of that district for a number of years.—S.

RETURNED HOME—Ven.
 Archdeacon White and Mrs. White and son, Master Thomas have returned home. The Archdeacon is very much improved in health and will be able to take the services in his parish next Sunday. His son, Rev. Charles de Wolfe White, who had charge during his father's absence, left on Monday to take over his duties at Windsor, N. S. He was accompanied by his wife. Both Rev. and Mrs. White have made many new friends during their stay in Summerside.—S.

HERE FROM CAMBRIDGE, MASS.—Rev. J. W. S. Lowry, of Cambridge, Mass., who has been on the Island for the past week, intends visiting and preaching in Murray River and De Sable. Special service in connection with Crapaud District L. O. L. will be held at De Sable Kirk on Sunday evening at seven o'clock, conducted by Mr.
 Lowry. The rev. gentleman has been an active member and officer of the Association for thirty-five years, and is much interested in the principles for which it stands.

RETURNS TO NEW YORK—Miss Flora Murchison, who has had a year's leave of absence from her school, which was spent with her mother, Mrs. F. Murchison, West Royalty, has left on return to Brooklyn, New York.

The final performance of the Passion Play, witnessed by another capacity audience at the Forum last night, closed one of the most successful engagements of its North American tour. Yesterday's matinee was attended by over twelve hundred school children, and a large number of adults.

ENJOYED VISIT HOME—The Rev. Dr. Haslam, Principal of Emmanuel College, Saskatoon, has left for Toronto, where he will attend the meeting of General Synod, before returning to Saskatoon. In common with all our visitors, Dr.
 Haslam has been greatly impressed with the beauty of his Island home, which this year is in striking contrast to the desolation of the burnt-out areas of Southern Saskatchewan.

RETURNED FROM OTTAWA—Passengers returning on the Borden train last night included Premier Stewart, Hon. Dr. MacMillan, Hon.
 J. A. MacDonald and Messrs. W.
 Chester S. McLure and J. H. Myers, M.P., who visited Ottawa last week to consult with the Federal Government in the matter of unemployment relief. Mr. Stewart was accompanied home from Montreal by his daughter, Miss Maude Stewart. The Island delegation presented a strong case to the Minister of Labor, who will place it before the Council which meets shortly.
