IN MEMORIAM

GEORGE REGINALD CARSON

On Sabbath, Dec. 2nd, 1917, the Angel of Death visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Carson, Bonshaw, and claimed their darling baby, George Reginald, aged one year and seven months. The little sufferer had been sick only two weeks with meningitis of the brain, and up to that time had been a healthy child, possessing all the cute ways of a baby, which makes the separation almost unbearable. All that medical skill and kind, loving hands could do was done to prolong his life, but God willed it otherwise, and called it home to reign with Him in bliss. A place is now vacant in the home and a sad mother longs to press that sweet baby once more to her breast and kiss those lips that are closed, never more to make the house ring with his merry prattle. The funeral which was largely attended took place the following Wednesday. The services were conducted by the elders of the Church of Scotland, after which the little one was tenderly laid to rest in Canoe Cove Cemetery. The sympathy of the whole community goes out to Mr. and Mrs. Carson in their sad bereavement. The pall-bearers were Geo. Sherrian, Havelock Carson, Jas. McFadyen, Seymour McLean.

Death has grasped our precious darling,
Cold as marble is his brow,
Hushed is all the merry laughter,
Closed on us those dear eyes now.

How we miss him in the morning,
When it dawns with pale grey light,
Through the busy day we miss him;
Also in the silent night.

He has gone to be with Jesus;
Better, better far we know;
But we feel our loss so deeply,
That affection's tear must flow.

MISS JEANETTE MacLEOD

On the evening of the 1st instant, he family and friends of Hugh and Irs. MacLeod, Bradalbane, received severe shock when the news was ashed over the wires that their aughter, Jeanette, was dead. She ied of peritonitis at the Regina General Hospital after an illness of eight ays. She had the best medical skill n the city and all that devoted and oving nursing could do, but without vail. She passed away at the early age. There remains to mourn their loss esides her father and mother, five isters, Mrs. J. A. MacKenzie, Tignish, P.E.I., Mabel and Mrs. (Dr.) James MacLeod, Regina, Sask., Katherine, Red Cross nurse, Camp Devens, Mass., and Isabel, Hunter River; also three brothers, Hugh J., Winnipeg, Man., Kenneth, Regina, Sask., and Malcolm with the Canadian Expeditionary forces. The deceased matriculated into Prince of Wales College at the age of sixteen, and after two years at that institution, where she stood high in all her classes, she received a first class teacher's license. She taught school for several years, the last three in Bradalbane village school. Last year she decided to enter a larger sphere of service, and entered the training school for nurses in conection with the Regina General Hospital, where she maintained her usual high standard in her studies, and made many friends both in the institution and outside of it. Anevidence of this respect were the many beautiful flowers sent hame with the body from friends in Regina. These were presented by the following persons Dr. and Mrs Low, Pupils of Regina General Hospital, Dr. and Mrs. MacLeod, Mabel MacLeod, Mr. and Mrs. Ruggles Ethel McLauchlin, Mr. and Mrs. J. Beacon, Lottie Campbell, Mr. E.M. Elliott, Eliza McKay, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Smith. The members of Regina Graduate Nurses' Registry, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Shaw, and the Club friends. The body accompanied by her brother Kenneth arrived home on the 8th. Her sister Katherine obtained a week's furlough and came home also. The funeral service was held in the Presbyterian church Bradalbane, on Monday, the 10th. The Rev. Mr. Goodwill preached a very impressive sermon to a large congregation, his text being taken from the 116th Psalm, 15th verse:—"Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints." Such we believe the later dear Jean to have been, and we hope to see her when the night is gone,—when, with the morn, we see those angel faces smile which we have loved long since and lost a while.

AN ATLANTIC PORT, Dec. 14.—The report that a bomb was found in the shaft ally of Norwegian steamer Bergsdalen which sailed from here last week for a foreign port has been verified.
