IT PAYS to buy in this Province.

OFFICE HOURS.—The Guardian News Department closes tonight at 12 and will re-open Sunday night at 12. In the interim 124-J can be phoned.

ELECTRIC LIGHT.—Everyone should pay their January electric light bill before February 10 as that date is the last to get a discount.

GOOD DEED.—Dr. Flanders of Sussex, N. B., who is well known in this Province presided at an enjoyable social recently in his Church the chief item on the program being the burning of the mortgage on the church.

THIS ISSUE.—The Guardian always has something of interest in every column, and today's issue of fourteen pages is no exception to the rule, pages three and four containing The Farm, The School and the Home, Good Roads, The Markets, The Turf and the Dairy.

CURLING RINK SECURED.—The Curling Club has had a nice sheet of ice prepared and today's issue of fourteen pages is no exception to the rule, pages three and four containing The Farm, The School and the Home, Good Roads, The Markets, The Turf and the Dairy.

FUNERAL TO-DAY.—The remains of the late Mrs. (Captain) Cameron arrived in Charlottetown by the special train yesterday afternoon. They were taken to the residence of her son, Ewen Cameron, No. 132 Water Street. The funeral will take place this morning at ten o'clock service at the house commencing at 9.45, when the remains will be taken by special train to Belfast, where interment will be made.

HOSPITAL SOCIAL.—The Mother Superiores and Sisters of the Charlottetown Hospital wish to tender their sincere thanks to the Knights of Columbus for the free use of their hall; to Mrs. McKenna, Mrs. McDonald and Miss Jean Blanchard for excellent Music contributed; to each and every one who in any way helped to make the affair the success it was. The prizes donated by A. S. Hewitt and J. J. Desmond were won by Miss Florrie McDonald and Fenton Higgins. His Worship Mayor Lyons presented the prizes to the winners. The amount realized was one hundred and thirty-six dollars.

FUNERAL SERVICE.—The funeral of the late Edison Furness which took place Thursday afternoon to the Methodist cemetery, at Vernon River, was largely attended, about 100 carriages being in the procession. The services were held in the Methodist Church and were conducted by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Brown, assisted by Rev. D. B. McLeod. Both clergymen spoke in touching terms of the sad event and of the heavy burden of sorrow which has been called upon relatives and friends to bear. Among the floral tributes were wreaths from the fellow boarders of Hotel in Portage La Prairie, where Edison had been staying, and from friends in this province.

COLLEGE STUDENTS AND PROFESSIONAL BALL

CINCINNATI, Feb. 5.—Officials of the National Commission, it was said, are not allowed to play professional baseball since they are working for pay. It is said that the organized baseball under the leadership of August Hermann, chairman of the National Commission, is being organized by the National League in the hope that they will seek to determine from the powers that control amateur athletics an explanation as to why college students during their vacation are not allowed to play professional baseball and especially as he is a track athlete.
