-WELL STAGED CONCERT.

One of the most successful and highly appreciated plays ever staged in Summerside was played to a full and delighted audience when, under the auspices of the I. O. D. E. the Alberton Dramatic Club played the old English comedy drama, "All-of-a-sudden Peggy." From the moment the curtain rose until the final scene in the third act there was not a dull moment and the large and enthusiastic audience were jubilant and fascinated as they followed scene after scene and thrill after thrill so beautifully acted. The star part of "Peggy" was delightfully taken by Miss Effie J. Agnew who displayed unusual talent and ability and charmed the audience by her ever changing mood and sweet alluring mode of expression and manner. Much of the success of the evening was due to this charming young lady who called forth much comment and praise. The other parts of the play were well taken by the various characters and Alberton may feel justly proud of their young and promising talent. Mr. J. Foster White as the Hon. "Jimmy" showed remarkable talent and his rich depth and emotional tone scenes displayed much natural or unnatural feeling. The Hon. Jimmy appeared quite in his element. Mr. A. E. Forsythe as Anthony the "bugologist" took his part admirably and called forth much laughter. Miss Marion Campbell as the Hon. Mrs. Colquhoun, the woman with the serpent's tongue, and Miss M. D. Fielding as Miss O'Mara (Peggy's mother) both excelled themselves and proved to be young ladies of exceptional talent. The other characters in the cast were ably sustained by Mr. R. H. Rogers, Mrs. Herbert Clark, Mr. J. E. C. Hunter, Miss Ethel Foley and Miss Francis Rogers and all are to be highly congratulated on their success. Between the acts to further augment their success flowers were sold and vocal solos were rendered by Mrs. White, Alberton, Miss Kathleen Hinton and Rev. A. E. Wheeler, Summerside, accompanied on the piano by Miss Laura Hurst. A hearty vote of thanks tendered the performers was moved in a few appropriate remarks by Mrs. (Judge) McQuarrie.
