The contract for the remodelling of the Canadian Legion Home on Grafton Street has been awarded to Mr. Joseph A. Dolron. The plans and specifications, which are of American design, were prepared by Mr. James E. Harris.

Four steel eye beams of the 90 pound class, 44 feet long and 24 inches diameter, will be used in the construction. The ground floor will consist of a main hall 72 feet long and 45 feet wide, capable of seating between 400 and 500 people.

Gov't Bonuses Kept Operators Out Of The Red

SYDNEY, N. S., Sept. 18. (CP)—Subsidies paid or claimed for the Nova Scotia coal mining industry in 1944 amounted to $8,400,597, it was disclosed in figures placed before the Carroll Royal Commission on Coal today.

Favors Trial Of Emperor Hirohito

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18. (CP)—Senator Richard Russell introduced a resolution today which would put the United States Congress on record as favoring trial of Japanese Emperor Hirohito as a war criminal.

Elderly N. S. Woman Is Burned To Death

NORTH EAST MABOU, N.S., Sept. 18. (CP)—Elizabeth McNeil, an elderly woman living alone in this Cape Breton community, was burned to death this morning when she was unable to smother the flames caused by a stove she was trying to light.

Curfew Is Imposed On Canadians In Utrecht

UTRECHT, Holland, Sept. 18. (CP Cable)—A strict curfew for citizens of the Canadian Army quartered here has been ordered by military authorities following a Sunday night row between soldiers and civilians over what the burgomaster Th. P. Kwijk described as the "girl question."

"Girl Question" Blamed For Disturbance Involving Canadian Servicemen And Dutch Civilians.

The burgomaster said that between 300 and 400 Canadian soldiers spread through the streets and started assaulting civilians in retaliation for sporadic attacks by civilian men against Canadian soldiers accompanying Dutch girls.

The Maritime Poultry Council will be in session in Charlottetown today, Sept. 19, and will continue throughout Sept. 20.

Problems in connection with the poultry industry will be under discussion. The Council keeps "on top" of matters pertaining to the poultry industry, all branches are represented—the delegates really go to work.

Seamen On Car Ferry Entitled To Special Bonus

(Special to the Guardian) OTTAWA, Sept. 18.—Transport Minister Lionel Chevrier said today in the House of Commons in reply to a question asked last Friday by W. Chester S. McLaughlin, Progressive Conservative member for Queen's, that seamen serving on the S.S. Prince Edward Island have been receiving war risk bonus for service in dangerous waters by a ruling from the National War Labor Board of February, 1943.

Million Figure Said Far Wide Of Actual Situation

(By FRANK FLAHERTY) OTTAWA, Sept. 18. (CP)—Remarks of two front bench members of the Commons—Reconstruction Minister Howe and John Bracken, Progressive Conservative leader—were under critical examination today during continued debate on the Thorne Speech.

Salvation Army Drive Nets $5,800

Sparked by the canvassing drive of the 2nd Division, under the leadership of Lieut.-Col. J. D. Stewart, D.S.O., the one day City campaign in the Home Front Appeal Campaign by the Salvation Army netted a total of some $5,800.

Campaign Continues To Obtain $9,000 In Prov.

All teams had not reported at the conclusion of a dinner held at the Salvation Army Citadel last night, but on the basis of reports the acting Chairman, Mr. James C. Montgomery stated "there was no doubt as to the successful outcome of the campaign this week on the gratifying results achieved in the city campaign."

Lauzon, Koresky May Stand Trial In This Province

MONTEAL, Sept. 18. (CP)—Capt. Wilfred Bourdon, head of the Montreal Police Holdup Squad, said today that police here had established that Ulysse Lauzon, his 20-year-old wife, Eileen, and Walter Koresky, of Windsor, Ont., had "nothing to do with a $17,000 department store holdup here three weeks ago."

MR. W. R. BROWN, Chief of Poultry Services, Ottawa, Dominion Dept. of Agriculture.

PROF. E. S. SNYDER, Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph.

Tension Easing In Auto Industry Strife

DETROIT, Sept. 18. (AP)—A slight easing in the automobile industry's troubled labor situation appeared today with a statement by top officials of the United Automobile Workers (U.A.W.) union that stop-work wage increases would be acceptable now.

Prof. E. S. Snyder Suggests Design For Canadian Flag

The flag had nine horizontal red, white and blue stripes, one for each Province. In the centre was a green maple leaf on which was superimposed the Canadian coat of arms.

Halifax, Koresky May Stand Trial In This Province

HALIFAX, Sept. 18. (CP)—The discovery of the atomic bomb and the extraordinary growth of science have challenged the Church to control new scientific techniques with moral virtues, Dr. R. Chalmers of Toronto today told Maritime ministers attending the annual refresher course of the United Church of Canada.

Ministers Attend Refresher Course

On the House of Commons votes and proceedings Mr. McLaughlin asked: "Has the Royal Commission on Veterans' Qualifications been abolished?"
