—DIED IN PRINCE COUNTY HOSPITAL—There passed away after a few days illness in the Prince County Hospital on Thursday, Mrs. Catherine Thompson, of Richmond, at 52 years of age. Her remains were conveyed to her home on the evening train.—S.

—BE A SANTA PAL THIS CHRISTMAS—Citizens are responding generously to the Santa Pal fund for the poor children of Summerside, but the list of children is growing and many more Santa Pals are needed if all the children are to be taken care of. Those answering the call are: Mr. Doyle, A. friend, Miss Gladys Holman, Mrs. J. M. Noonan, Mrs. B. W. Robinson, Robinson's Bakery, Mrs. Frank Johnson and Mrs. Heath Strong. Send your contributions to the Red Cross Rooms.

—SUDDEN DEATH—Mr. William R. Craswell, of North St. Eleanors, died very suddenly on Wednesday afternoon at his home. He was out in the barn when he took a weak turn. Neighbors carried him to the house and the doctor was sent for but he passed away before the doctor arrived. He was a native of North St. Eleanors and was the son of William Rufus Craswell. He was 67 years of age and had lived all his life in the district and had a well kept farm at the extreme north end of St. Eleanors. He was a quiet, genial fellow and well liked. He was married twice. His first wife was a Miss Cannon, of St. Eleanors and his second wife, who is left to mourn, was formerly Miss Adams, of O'Leary. One child, Robert, is also left; also a brother, John, in Alberta and one sister, Mrs. Atkins of Maine, U. S. A., to whom sympathy is extended. The funeral takes place today at one o'clock.—S.

—TIGNISH—The radio fans of Tignish and the vicinity were very disappointed that the first game of the series was not broadcast Wednesday.—Mr. W. Ready of DeBlois Bros. was in Tignish Wednesday on business for his firm.—Mr. Jerry Richard, chief in the culinary department of the steamer "Marguerite" has returned to his home in Tignish, after the season's cruise around the coast. Jerry is hale and hearty looking and all are agreed that life on the briney is very much to his liking. His steamer is laid up in the Halifax port for the winter.—Owing to the drifting snow storm of the past few days the country roads are very bad and consequently business in the village is not as good as is generally expected at this season of the year.—Preventive Officers Marchbanks and Martin were in Tignish and vicinity all day Thursday.—T.

—ENTERTAINMENT—"In Clover Time" a comedy in three acts staged in Epworth Hall on Thursday evening by local talent under the direction of Miss Violet Richardson, graduate of Expression from the Ladies College, Halifax, was a special performance. The acting was worthy of more experienced players and proves that Summerside is not lacking in theatrical talent. The cause for which the play was put on is a worthy one and Miss Richardson is to be congratulated on her initiative in answering the call of the Canadian Red Cross in their appeal for funds to relieve the distress in the Western Provinces this winter. The public responded generously and were well repaid by an evening of real pleasure. The performance is well worth repeating at a future date. A sale of candy by Junior Red Cross girls helped to swell the proceeds. The play rich in humor pathos and dramatic action, had an intensely interesting plot, which held the attention of the audience until the drop of the curtain. The actors were well chosen for their respective parts. Miss Violet Richardson, as "Peter West" the grand old man of the play, was superb as a veteran of the American Civil War. Her disguise was perfect and her expressions faultless. Mr. Allison Moore's portrayal as "Stumpy" comrade of Peter

—GREENVALE W. I.—The December meeting of Greenvale Women's Institute was held on Tuesday evening, Dec. 1st at the home of Mrs. Peter Martin. Meeting opened with Creed in unison. Miss Adele MacLennan, Vice-Pres., presided and introduced Miss MacLean, Organizer for the Junior Red Cross. Miss MacLean spoke of the work of the Junior Red Cross its aims and principles by protecting their own health and that of others they are becoming good citizens of our own country and of the world. Much good work has been done for crippled children through the Crippled Children Fund provided by the Juniors. Posters were shown of some of the patients who had made wonderful improvement and others who had been cured. The thanks of the meeting were conveyed to Miss MacLean for her visit and address to our institute. Ten members and three visitors were present. Minutes of last meeting were read and approved. A motion was carried to have King and Queen pictures framed. Secretary reported a gift of a writing case had been presented to Mrs. A. D. MacPherson also a letter of sympathy had been written. Social evening was held at Mrs. Wonnacott's on Dec. 19th. receipts amounted to $4.35. Reports of committees followed. A bill for fruit was presented and paid. Eleven members have paid their fees for ensuing year. Christmas seals were distributed. Miss MacLennan and Secretary to write a letter of sympathy to a bereaved member. A "Child Welfare" program was then carried out. The spirit of Christmas by Mrs. Peter Martin. Gifts from the Kitchen read by Miss Beat

West, was full of thrills and humorous action. The devotion of Sally to her grandfather and the loyalty of the three "Old Maids" added a pathetic touch to the performance. Between the acts some delightful numbers were given. Master Junior Johnson recited "Just Before Christmas." Miss Amanda Cannon rendered very sweetly "A Voice is Calling." Miss Rosamond Richardson gave a very pleasing violin selection and during intermission Miss Jean MacKearney and Miss Dorothy Kirwin gave piano and violin selections. The cast of the play is as follows: Harry Flint—Keith Jamieson; "Stumpy"—Allison Moore; Sally West—Amanda Cannon; Mr. Flint—Anthony Williams; Mrs. Flint—Rosamond Richardson; Fatty McCullough—Frederic Large; Katherine Flint—Dora Denny, Emmaline—Yvonne Arsenault; Caroline—Jemima Tanton; Margoline—Sue Meadows; Peter West—Miss Violet Richardson. The players were given ice cream and cake after the performance.—S.

SOCKS WRONG MAN AFTER OLD GRUDGE

NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—Daniel Pavas, a sailor, has a long memory for shapes, but a short one for faces. He saw James Cahill, who is tall and thin, walking on a Brooklyn street recently and socked him on the jaw. Cahill, much surprised, spent a week in a hospital and then appeared in County Court to charge Pavas with third degree assault.

Pavas explained apologetically that 10 years ago a tall, thin man threw him out of a boarding house in San Francisco. He thought Cahill was the man. He admitted his mistake and pleaded guilty.

Judge Algernon I. Neva remanded him to jail to await sentence.

MILLVALE INSTITUTE

At the December meeting of the Millvale Women's Institute held at the home of Mrs. Wendell Murphy, roll call was answered with "A Short Story" after which the minutes of last meeting were read. The school committee reported having visited the school, and advised the completion of work on the building. The sick committee reported having visited several sick in the district. The members decided to purchase the stamps of the Anti-Tuberculosis Society; also to provide presents for Christmas tree to be held in the school.

At the next meeting, to be held at the home of Mrs. Geo. Murphy, roll call is to be answered with "My Favorite Verse" members not responding are to be fined five cents. The members of the different committees for next month are: School—Mrs. John Parsons and

Two Boxes Gave her Quick Relief

"I was very sick with a bad pain in my back," writes Mrs. T. Charpak, Broad Valley, Man. "I tried a lot of different medicines but they did not help me much. Then one of my friends told me about Dodd's Kidney Pills and I thought I would try them. After using two boxes I felt very much better and now I am never without them and shall recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills to others."

TWIN EPIDEMIC HITS SUDBURY

SUDBURY, Dec. 18.—An enviable record was disclosed in the annual report of the Sudbury medical officer of health, Dr. W. J. Cook. The only outstanding "epidemic" during the year was one of twins, said Dr. Cook. Six sets of twins were born in the city during the past 12 months.

To some people jazz sounds like all the tin pots in the kitchen falling at once.

A "dull" person may be either one who really is or one who we are too dull to understand.
