MELBOURNE, Aug. 28—(C.P.)—W. Kelly, well-known cricketer and a former manager of Australian touring teams has been defeated as delegate to the Victorian Cricket Association. This involved his retirement from the Australia Board of Control.

Seniors' Golf Assn. Winds Up Tourney

(C.P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

ST. ANDREWS, N. B., Aug. 28—Tucking away their scarlet jackets for another year, members of the Maritime Seniors' Golf Association wound up their 19th annual tournament with the tin whistle match today. The Dean of the royal and ancient pastime in the sea-girt provinces departed for their homes before nightfall.

Based on three-quarters of the championship handicap, the tin whistle team event attracted 16 foursomes to Algonquin's verdant layout. Undaunted by first mist and then squalls of rain, the field kept plodding along over the 18 holes. F. P. McCormick, Yarmouth; A. W. Olive, Bridgetown; D. W. C. Stevens, Edmundston, and F. B. A. Chipman of Halifax, president-elect of the Association, posted the lowest net card as a team to capture the tinale.

Going out their net totalled 25 strokes. This aggregation completed the round by tacking on 32 strokes and squeezing past three other foursomes by two strokes. By virtue of the best gross, recorded among themselves to determine which of the three teams would be rewarded with runner-up honors the foursome led by Hon. F. B. McCurdy, Halifax, was named for this distinction.

The score-board showed that Mr. McCurdy, W. A. Eisenhauer, Bridgewater, Brigadier F. W. Hill of Fredericton and Judge R. H. Murray, Halifax, were the second best entry of the tin whistle. They had 31-28-59 net.

It was more than a team encounter for J. L. R. Holman of Summerside and J. W. A. Ford of Moncton, as they were battling to settle which would pack in his car the silver tray for the best net in the 36 hole championship meet, played Monday and Tuesday here. The Moncton player was victorious, but had little to spare over the Prince Edward Islander.

STEWARTS WIN OPENING PLAYOFF TILT

Despite the absence of several regulars and playing two men short Stewart's Bakery softball team last night captured the opening game of their semi-final series with the Superiors winning the five-inning setto 8 to 3.

Taking a liking to the offerings of Ray Stull in their first turn at bat the Superiors pushed three runners across the plate before being retired, but this ended their scoring for the evening. Bill Warren Superior hurler let the Bakery team down hitless and scoreless for the first two innings but with one out in the third the winners loaded the sacks setting the stage for Murray Carmichael's two base blow. The wallop cleaned the paths and Carmichael himself scored on an error by the catcher. Again in the fifth the Bakers counted another four runs while the smoke ball of Stull's had the Superiors baffled at every turn.

Lineups:

Stewarts: Mollins, Stull, Carmichael, McLellan, Hunter, R. Whitlock.

Superiors: Jay, Warren, Dowling, Weeks, Cameron, Mahar, Lawlor, Peters, Carmody.

Umpire: John Turner, Sr.

Defending Champion Is Ousted In Tournament; Island Hopes Banished

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

MONCTON, N. B., Aug. 28.—Miss Dorothy Holmes, Truro, who won the Maritime Ladies Golf Championship last year was banished from the championship round in the afternoon's competition of the current Maritime branch of the Canadian Ladies Golf Union championships by Miss Edith Bauld, of Ashburn Club, Halifax two and one.

The defending champion played brilliantly this morning to defeat Miss Ruth Muttart, of Summerside, in the first round of the championship division, but bowed to the steady stroking of Miss Bauld, a former champion who is making a valiant bid to regain her title.

High Wind

A high wind of almost gale velocity, swept Riverdale's lofty course overlooking the Petitcodiac River, and played havoc with long drives and some surprising scores were turned in at the close of both the first and second rounds. Mrs. F. B. Carter, Ashburn, sprang a surprise by a convincing victory over Mrs. A. A. Allen, of Riverdale Club, Moncton, 8 and 6, while Miss K. Ladd, Yarmouth, was having difficulty in defeating Mrs. G. O. Taylor, Moncton, 3 and 2.

As a result of today's play Miss Edith Bauld, Ashburn, Mrs. F. B. Carter, Ashburn, Miss Audrey McLeod, Riverside, another former champion, and Miss Ladd, Yarmouth, enter the quarter finals for the Maritime championship tomorrow.

Play Rounds

In addition to two rounds in the championship division, two rounds were also played in the first, second and third flights, and one round in the championship, first, second and third flight consolations.

First Round

The first round of match play in the championship division of the Maritime Ladies' Golf Tournament today resulted as follows:

Miss D. Holmes, Truro, defending champion, defeated Miss R. Muttart, Summerside, 3 up and 2 to go.

Canadian Open Tournament Starts Today

By Elmer Dulmage,
Canadian Press Staff Writer
(By Guardian's Special Wire)

SUMMERLEA, Montreal, Aug. 28.—Wind-blown Summerlea roared a gusty challenge today at the international golfing platoon that has its sights trained on the Canadian Open Championship, establishing at least that there won't be any fooling with par while the breezes blow.

Most of the field of 135 registered starters toured Summerlea under the handicap of a high wind that carried tee shots and long irons away off line. It was the final tune-up for the 72-hole test that starts tomorrow with 18 holes. Another 18 will be played Friday and the 60 leading scorers will fight it out over 36 holes Saturday.

"I must have been fooling when I said someone would score 272," grinned a rueful Ed Dudley of Philadelphia who made this prediction yesterday. "If this wind keeps up I think 289 or 290 will win."

The burly Philadelphian took his final practice in company with two favorites, Paul Runyan of Metropolis, N.Y., and Horton Smith of Oak Park, Ill. Ted Turner of Pine Valley, N.J., made up the foursome. There were as much fireworks in this party as any on the course.

Smith was two under par for the first nine holes and might have knocked off another birdie or two with more putting luck. Runyan was even with par and the bronzed Turher, a fine iron player, cut a stroke from perfect figures. Only Dudley yielded a stroke.

Even more brilliant was Jules Huot, Kent, Quebec, 1934 C. P. G. A. champion, who knocked two strokes off par for the first nine. That was all the work the little French-Canadian gave himself. On the ninth he laid a 100-yard iron dead to the pin and ropped the short putt for a birdie. He was smiling happily as he disappeared into the locker-room.

Palin Drives Winner At Syracuse

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Aug. 28—Sep Palin, leading money winning driver of the Grand Circuit this season, added to his earnings today when he piloted The Saint, owned by E. J. Baker of St. Charles, Ill., to triumph in the $2,000 Onondaga Hotel Stake, which featured the third day's racing on the New York State Fair track.

Palin won with The Saint in straight heats, chalking up his second stake victory of the meeting. He scored with Greyhound in the championship Stallion Stake here Monday.

"Do you have to have talent to make a living at writing jokes?" asked the fair one.

"No," returned the humorist, "all you need is a steady income from some other source."

Cardinals Increase League Lead 2 1-2 Games As Giants Lose Twin Bill To Pirates

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

NEW YORK, Aug. 28—The league-leading St. Louis Cardinals stormed through to a double victory over the Phillies today before a record week-day throng of 14,000 at Philadelphia and increased their lead to 2 1-2 games over New York Giants, who lost twice to Pittsburgh. Scores were 5-1 and 13-5.

Led by Pepper Martin, who belted a home run in each game, the second with the bases full when the Cards were experiencing difficulties, the league-leaders piled up a total of 27 hits.

The Phils jumped on Bill Hallahan early in the second game for a 3-0 lead but they blew up completely in the sixth and the Cards put over nine runs against Buckky Walters and Joe Bowman

GIANTS UPSET

Pittsburgh Pirates dealt the Giants' pennant aspirations a terrific blow at New York when they won both games of a double-header, 6-1 and 9-5, to sweep the three-game series.

Cy Blanton held the Giants to five hits in the first encounter to gain the decision over Carl Hubbell. A homer by Pep Young helped the Pirates along. In the second game Bill Swift outlasted Roy Parmalee and three successors although he was touched for 14 blows.

Wally Berger's 28th home run of the season gave the lowly Boston Braves a 2-1 victory at Boston in the first game of a double header with Chicago Cubs, but Lon Warneke beat the cellar-dwellers 5-2 in the second game.

Ben Cantwell limited the Cubs to four hits in the opener. Warneke held the Braves to seven hits in the second.

The battered Dodgers earned an even break in their four-game series with Cincinnati by beating the Reds 4-2 in the final encounter at Brooklyn.

Ray Benge kept eight Cincinnati hits well scattered while the Dodgers bunted Paul Derringer dizzy in the second to score two runs and take a lead they never relinquished.

TIGERS TROUNCE ATHLETICS

NEW YORK, Aug 28—The league leading Detroit Tigers wound up their longest home stand of the season today by shutting out the Athletics 11-0 behind the four hit pitching of Roxie Lawson, a rookie right hander obtained from Toledo a week ago.

The Tigers blasted out 11 hits and executed three snappy double plays to get the A's down for the fifth time in the six game series. Detroit bunched enough hits in the second, fourth and fifth innings to run up nine runs on the Athletics while Lawson was holding the enemy in check.

After dividing three double headers with the White Sox in as many days the Yankees came through with a twin triumph in the fourth at Chicago to tack a successful ending on their otherwise dismal road trip With Johnny Allen and Red Ruffing pitching, the Yanks won 9-1 and 5-2.

Allen pitched five-hit ball in the opener to hang up his 13th victory of the season, losing a shutout on Vernon Washington's homer. A tremendous homer by Lou Gehrig, one of the few ever to clear the right field pavilion, broke a tie score in the afterpiece and sent New York off to victory behind Ruffing's six-hit pitching.

Washington and St. Louis divided a double bill at St. Louis. The Senators snapping a Brownie winning streak at five games to take the first 10-2. The second contest, a pitching duel between Ivy Andrews and Jack Russell, was finished in the record time of an hour and 19 minutes, Andrews and the Browns getting the decision

Washington knocked Thomas out of the box in the fourth inning of the first encounter. Coffman squelched the uprising but four runs already had been counted.

Cleveland Indians won their series with Boston Red Sox, three games out of five, by blanking the visitors 2-0 in the first game of a doubleheader today and then going on to win the second 3-1.

Forest Hills Tournament Open Today

(A. P. By Gurdian's Special Wire)

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Aug. 28—The United States biggest tennis show gets under way in the West Side Stadium here tomorrow.

For 10 days the leading racquet wielders of nine nations will battle for the national men's and women's singles championships, combined for the first time to furnish a tournament that ranks second only to Britain's Wimbledon, the yardstick by which all tennis competitions are measured.

Sixty-six matches are listed for the opening day. Thirty-four of these will bring the men's division down to 64 players for the second round. Thirty-two others will cut the women's field exactly in half.

Fred Perry, top-ranking amateur of the world, drew a first round bye and thus will not begin defence of the men's title he has held for two years until Friday, but Helen Jacobs, women's champion for three years, will play Mrs. H. Walter Bluementhal of New York, the former Baroness Maud Levi, in a first round match tomorrow.

In two of the first day's feature matches, Gene Mako, Los Angeles, faces Jacques Brugnon, France, and Berkeley Bell, New York, meets Manuel Alonso New York.

In the women's division Kay Stammers, England, plays Gertrude Dwyer, New York, and Freda James, England, opposes Mrs. W. V. Hester, United States.

Perry, a heavy favorite to retain the men's championship, is England's only representative, but he will get British support from Eskell Andrews of New Zealand, as well as from the Montrealers, Robert Murray, Laird Watt and Henri Emard.

In the women's championship, Canada will be represented by Jean Burritt, Toronto, Effie Billing, Montreal, and Diana Pope London, Ont.

TEAMS RENEW PLAYOFF SERIES

Grocers and Falcons Meet Tonight At 5.45 In Third Game of Playoffs.

Burhoe's Grocers and Holy Name Club Falcons renew their playoff series tonight at the Abegweit Grounds at 5.45 sharp. With the first two games ending in draws both teams are out tonight to emerge with a clean-cut victory thereby taking the lead. From all appearances tonight's encounter should be the best to date and while action has been the keynote of the other games tonight's will likely surpass all others.

Once again the players are reminded to be on hand in time to get the game away at 5.45 sharp.

Bisons Rally To Defeat Royals

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 28—Rallying briskly in the eighth inning for three runs the Bisons conquered Montreal Royals in the rubber battle of the crucial three game series here. The score was 7-5. The local victory again sliced the lead of the Royals for first place to one game and a half.

The garrison finish enabled Ken Ash, who was removed for a pinch hitter during the winning spurt, to gain credit for his 18th triumph of the season. Ash pitched fine ball and five errors by his mates helped considerably to allow the Royals to garner the lead. Ollie Carnegie hit his 36th homer of the year to provide a tie score while Marve Olson drove in the winning runs by greeting relief hurler Pete Appleton with a single while the bags were crowded.

Birthday Greetings
