IS YOUR HAIR THIN?
All hair was meant to be firm, heavy and abundant; thin, loosened growths are unnatural, caused by a disease of the scalp, which can only result in baldness. In the white flakes found on the clothes, combs, brushes, and in the hair itself, nature gives plain warning when the disease has gained a foothold by curing the disease causes the dandruff to totally disappear, the hair to cease falling, and prevents inevitable baldness.

COKE Dandruff Curé
Price, $1.00 per bottle, at all druggists or by mail. Accept no substitutes.

HIGH TREASON.

One of the marked differences between British and United States laws is in dealing with the crime of treason. The main distinction is that in the British dominions any act endangering the life or liberty of the Sovereign is high treason, while in the United States any conspiracy, assault or attempt upon the life of the President is treated as a like offence against any other citizen.

By modern English law, treason, includes such offences as imagining the King's or Queen's death,—that is proposing to kill, maim, or restrain him—or levying war against him, adhering to his enemies, killing his wife, or eldest son, or heir, violating his wife, or daughter or heir's wife, or killing the Chancellor, Treasurer, or a Judge in office.

Treason in the United States consists only in levying war against them, or in adhering to their enemies, or in giving their enemies aid and comfort. Thus it will be seen that in the Republic the nation is everything and the killing of the President is not an act of treason. The man who attempts the life of the President is guilty of no greater crime under the law than if he attempted to take the life of an ordinary citizen.

So it happens that Leon Czolgosz, who tried to kill the President, cannot be tried for treason and cannot have his life taken away unless the President should die. It has been stated in the press that the extreme penalty under the laws of New York will be ten years imprisonment. For a like attempt in England against the King, Queen or their apparent the penalty would be death and would not be enforced.

It is undoubtedly a greater crime to kill or attempt to kill a King, President or ruler than to kill a private individual. The motive that prompts the deed may not be more wicked but the consequences are necessarily more grave and widespread. We see how a nation sorrows when its loved ruler is stricken down, and how universal is the shock and the sense of national peril. A regiment in arms against the nation would afford no such menace to the national security as has the single assassin who attempted to kill the President.

To some extent the existing conditions put a premium upon the assassination of the heads of republics as compared with the heads of monarchies. Is it now distinctly safer to shoot at a President than to shoot at a King. This distinction ought to be swept away, and our neighbors are coming to realize the fact. An attack upon the head of the nation is an attack upon the security and the life of the nation and whether the murderous attempt proves fatal or not there should be provision for adequate punishment of the awful crime.

THE EDITOR'S MAIL.

Mr. John A. Cooper's Case.

SIR,—Mr. John A. Cooper need not object to admit himself mistaken. Many a good man has done so. Why does he not come right out manfully and admit that he arrived here on the late express train and left at 9.30 next morning, and not having time to do the City properly he depended for his information on others, who evidently gave him wrong information. We don't want his money, but as editor of the Canadian Magazine we want him to give us fair play. Every statement he made about the City and its people is incorrect. Neither the City nor its surroundings can fairly be called "dingy." Its public square surrounding the Public Buildings is as beautiful, as well kept paths, green grass and artistic flower beds can make it. The buildings look well, and the business houses surrounding the square are creditable. The harbor is very fine and the surrounding country is not excelled in Canada. Many fine residences are to be found in all parts of the City. Prince Edward Islanders do "take the trouble" to be great. Dr. J. G. Schurman, Robert Harris, Sir Louis Davies, Hon. F. Peters, Hon. D. Laird and others have made "name and fame" abroad, and many very clever men are using their talents to good advantage at home. So far from the whole place giving "itself up in disgust" the people of Charlottetown are proud of their City. Now let it be understood that it is not because Mr. John A. Cooper says certain things that we care, but it is because The Canadian Magazine published those incorrect and untrue statements. Serious injury to our City and Province would result were such statements to go uncorrected.

CHARLOTTETOWNIAN.

When the young mother is allowed to get up for her first meal, even though she takes it alone, it seems good to her to take this one step nearer the family circle, and she counts the days until her strength will be fully restored. But very often strength does not come as expected, and she lingers in languor and weakness. At such a time there is need of an invigorating tonic, and the very best tonic which a nursing mother can use is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It contains no alcohol nor narcotics. It gives real strength.

"Favorite Prescription" is a reliable woman's medicine. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"I cannot praise Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription too highly as a tonic for tired, worn-out women especially those who are afflicted with female weakness," writes Mrs. Ira W. Holmes, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa. "It has helped me very much and a skilful physician said to me in answer to my question as to its efficacy, 'I know of cases where it has really worked wonders.'"

The Common Sense Medical Adviser, 800 pages in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps to pay expense of customs and mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
