THE CENTRAL GUARDIAN

IT PAYS to buy in this Province.

THE NORTHUMBERLAND.—The Northumberland docked in Charlottetown last evening at 5.40.

WESTERN AFTERNOON TRAIN.—The afternoon train west left Charlottetown yesterday afternoon at 3.45.

AUCTION.—Attention is directed to the ad in this issue of the auction sale on April 21st at Mr. John Stewart's, Hampshire. Among the stock offered for sale are 15 choice milk cows.

POLICE COURT.—In the Police Court in Summerside yesterday morning one drunk was fined $5 and costs, while another forfeited his bail of $5.00 deposited for his release the previous evening.

LECTURE.—Rev. G. M. Young will deliver one of his popular lectures, "The Bay of Naples" (Its beauty and its horrors) in the Methodist Church, Victoria, on Monday evening, April 14th inst, silver collection. All should hear Mr. Young.

COAL ADVANCING.—It is understood that on account of the price of coal advancing from 15 to 20 per cent. at mines, and freight to bring considerably higher than last year, the coal dealers here are obliged to increase their prices of coal for this season. The increased prices will go into effect on April 15th.

MEETING.—Mr. Chas. M. Williams, Representative of the Fruit Division of Ottawa will conduct a demonstration meeting in the orchard of Hugh McMillan, Cornwall, on the afternoon of Monday, April 14th, at 2 p. m. All interested are invited to attend.

EARLY AT CRAPAUD.—The first sailing vessel to be seen in the straits this season, was the "Harry B," Capt. Charles Stright, which arrived at Crapaud on Sunday the 6th inst. from Charlottetown. This is the second earliest arrival at above port on record some twenty years ago the schooner "Trio," came in on the 4th of April.

WOULD SELL IT HIMSELF.—Before proceeding with his sermon last evening, Rev. Dr. Pringle, of St. Andrew's Church, referred briefly to the suit which Mayor Gunn has brought against the Canadian Commonwealth. In this suit the vendors or sellers of the papers were mentioned, and as a result they have refused to sell it any longer. Last evening Dr. Pringle said that if he had to sell the paper himself, it would be sold. Sydney Exchange. Dr. Pringle has many friends in Charlottetown.

ANNIVERSARY.—The fiftieth anniversary of New Glasgow Division, Sons of Temperance was celebrated on Thursday evening, April 3rd. Although the roads were in a very unfavorable condition, the hall was well filled with a highly appreciative audience, and the best of order prevailed. Mr. James Dickson, the only charter member now living, ably performed the duties of chairman and in the opening address gave an interesting account of the good work done by the Division in the past. The comedy-drama, "Miss Topsy Turvy," was staged in a manner most creditable to the performers. The following was the cast of characters:—Nellie Clarendon (Miss Topsy Turvy) a sprightly young girl who kept every one in a flurry—Dolly McLeod; Mrs. Clarendon (Topsy's mother) sadly worried by her daughter's hoydenish ways—Bliss Laird; May Golden (Mrs. Clarendon's niece) who wished to become Lady DeCroix, who is supplanted by Topsy—Beatrice Binn; Martha Spriggs (Topsy's governess) a maiden lady who becomes Mrs. Deacon Jones No. 2.—Winnifred McLeod; Deacon Jones, a miserly widower on the lookout for a wife—De Witt Brown; Lord Clarence DeCroix, an English nobleman who came to America in search of a wife.—Leander Smith; Frank Golden (Topsy's cousin) who aided and abetted in Dr. Smith's mischievous pranks—Eliott Hill; Ned, the darky servant who was made the butt of fun for Topsy and Frank—Cecil Laird. Between the acts the following selections were well rendered:—Chorus by Choir; Recitation, Miss Dorothy McLeod; Solo, Miss Flossie Hill; Recitation, Miss Gladys Parkman; Instrumental music, Miss Ruth Dickinson; Recitation, Mr. De Witt Brown; Mrs. C. G. Houston was organist for the evening.
