Girl Guide News

A NEW YEAR'S GREETING FROM HER EXCELLENCY THE LADY TWEEDSMUIR

"I am very glad to send the Commissioners and Guides of Canada my very best New Year's wishes. All movements depend largely for their success upon the steadiness and enthusiasm of those who lead them. You leaders of the Girl Guide movement have a great task and a great responsibility. There is so much to do in character-building and training, that you will always have your work cut out for you. I send you my very best wishes and hope that 1938 will be an outstanding year in the annals of the Girl Guides of Canada. (Signed) Susan Tweedsmuir"

THIS WOULD I ASK

The following lines by Mary Gray Newburn embody many ideals contained in the Guide Laws and are especially appropriate at this time of making New Year resolutions:—
This would I ask:
That I bring fresh courage to the task daily
That I meet the ups and downs of life gaily,
That I take the hill on winding way, bravely
That I meet the problems of each day sagely,
That I keep within my heart the while,

PILES

With a record of 50 years as a most reliable factory treatment for piles or hemorrhoids, you can positively depend on

Dr. Chase's Ointment

Warm sunshine, so I ever have a smile,
Lend helping hands to those who need me
Give cheering words to those who heed me
And that most welcome gift — a touch of wit
With ready sense of humour crowning it.
This I would ask!

IT'S A FACT

This summer at Blair Athol, some French Guides, unable to attend, sent this telegram "Four French Eclaircies not coming." The telegram received ran "Four fresh eclairs not coming."

HOSTEL FOR GIRL GUIDES

Very soon, in London, England, a hostel is to be started by the World Bureau for Girl Guides and Girl Scouts of any country, who may be visiting in this great city.

Canadian Guides will contribute towards the hostel by donating this year's Thinking Day Fund to the new hostel instead of to the World Committee as in other years.

ENROLMENT AGE IS LOWERED

In the 1938 edition of Policy,

Organization and Rules will be found a new ruling with reference to the enrolment ages of the different branches. These have been lowered one year, viz. — Brownies may be enrolled at 7 Guides at 10 and Rangers at 15, with the understanding that the Guides consider the children ready.

NATURE AND CAMP HYMNS

Girl Guides of the Church of England will be glad to hear that the new Canadian hymn book will contain that beautiful and inspiring nature hymn by Mary S. Edgar, widely known camp leader, which begins:

"God who touched earth with beauty,
Make my heart anew
With Thy Spirit re-create me
Pure and strong and true.
"Like the springs and running waters
Make me crystal pure
Like Thy rocks of towering grandeur
Make me strong and sure."
And three more verses equally suitable.
Another hymn which will strike a responsive chord in every lover of the out-of-doors begins as follows:

"Into the heart of the wildwood
I went one day,
Seeking in peace and contentment
A while to stay
Green were the leaves hanging o'er me
And sweet the scent
There in the heart of the wild-wood
Whither I went."

In Memoriam

MRS. JOHN AGNEW

The death occurred at Orangeville, Ontario, Friday, January 7th of Agnes Ireland, widow of the late Hon. John Agnew, formerly Speaker of the Legislative Assembly.

Mrs. Agnew was born at Alberton, and there the family resided for a number of years before they removed to Charlottetown.

She was a woman of many fine qualities of mind and heart and had made many warm friends in this city and the western part of the province.

The following sons and daughters are left to mourn the loss of a loving and devoted mother: Alexander, Central Royalty; John, in Calgary; William, in Cardigan; George in Toronto; Mrs. R. E. Fielding, San Francisco, California; Miss Belle, in Charlottetown; Miss Amy and Mrs. A. F. Hansuld, Orangeville, Ontario.

MRS. WILLIAM COFFIN

Mrs. William Coffin, widow of William Coffin, passed away early Monday morning, Dec. 20th, in her 75th year.

Mrs. Coffin was left a widow in 1922. Four children survive, George of South Lake, Percy of Kingsboro, Mrs. Elsie Bruner, Kingsboro.

Mrs. Coffin was a beloved mother, a quiet, friendly neighbor and a faithful member of the Kingsboro Baptist Church. She was admitted to the P.E.I. Hospital at Charlottetown in October but returned to her farm home about a month ago where she was affectionately attended by Mrs. Bruner and Mrs. Ching.

The remains were conducted from her late residence to the church on Wednesday, Dec. 22nd, where Rev. M. Watterworth spoke impressively from the text, "Oh grave where is thy victory." The choir sang two selections and Mr. and Mrs. Stewart MacGregor and Joshua Macdonald sang beautifully "When The Night Shades Softly Are Falling." The remains were interred in the family plot in Kingsboro cemetery. The sincere sympathy of the entire community goes out to the loved ones of this splendid woman.

STRAIN ON YOUR EYES

Eyes used for close work—particularly if lighting is not correct—are subject to a greater than normal strain. This brings the patient discomfort if there is present any appreciable refractive error and shows itself in headaches, sore eyes, etc. A person has no way of knowing the degree of strain on the eyes until they are examined.
