MRS. ELIZABETH COMPTON

Elizabeth Compton beloved wife of Henry Compton of Glenforest, P. E. Island, passed away on August 2nd, 1920, at the age of 73 years.

She was a daughter of the late Joseph and Mrs. Compton of Brooklyn, Lot 61. Besides her husband she is survived by one son David of "New York" and one daughter, Mrs. E. Moser of Mount Vernon.

Several of her relatives and friends who were present at her funeral, which was held on August 4th, at the residence of her son David, expressed their sympathy and regret at her death.

She had suffered long from a very trying ailment but through it all she never murmured. She had always been of a gentle and tender disposition, and her even temperament remained unruffled during the severest suffering.

Her honest and kind heart prepared by God, was a suitable receptacle for the good seed of the kingdom which brought forth abundant fruit.

Her Christian character shed its influence of love upon those about her. Through the struggles of life and the hard trials of bereaved motherhood she most clearly experienced the love of God and was content in His divine assurance that His grace was sufficient.

She had been brought up in the faith and doctrines of the Church of Scotland and had always been a consistent member who valued the means of grace thus provided in the churches' ministrations. She truly realized the fulfillment of God's promises in Christ Jesus and daily grew in the knowledge of Him.

The funeral which was largely attended took place on Aug. 22nd from her late home to Brooklyn Cemetery. Her pastor Rev. Ewen MacDougall attended and conducted the services.

MR. R. D. MCDONALD.

On Monday morning, August 30th, at his home, Peake's Station, Mr. R. D. McDonald passed to his eternal reward after an illness of eight months.

Few men were more widely known or more highly esteemed in this community than "Ronnie Dan," as he was familiarly known.

His generous heart, and his home was always open to the needs of his friends and to the needs of his country.

He was employed as section foreman on the P. E. Island Railway for many years, and performed his duties with the greatest efficiency.

As leader of St. Theresa's choir, the congregation will greatly miss his well known voice.

He leaves to mourn a widow, namely: The McDonald (Garabedian) family, Mrs. David Hunter, Leonard, James and Earle; and five daughters Marion, Granville, Etta, Edna and George.

His funeral on Wednesday morning to St. Theresa's, notwithstanding the down-pour of rain was largely attended, being upwards of seventy carriages formed in cortege.

He was attended in his last moments by his pastor the Rev. I. R. A. McDonald.

The funeral mass celebrated by his cousin the Rev. J. J. McDonald, Summerside, while the choir was greatly assisted by the Rev. A. J. McDonald, Fort Augustus, Rev. J. A. McDonald, Grand River and Rev. R. J. McDonald, East Point.

Afterwards his remains were conveyed to the adjoining cemetery.

It is all that was mortal of Ronnie, was consigned to another earth to await a final resurrection to his soul rest in peace.

TEACH YOUR CHILDREN to brush their teeth regularly morning and night and they will have no trouble with their teeth in later years.

And be sure and have them use a good healthful dentifrice like our Kenzo tooth paste which is fine for young teeth and gums.

PASTOR SCORES DANCING MASTERS.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—All efforts to remove the Methodist ban on dancing, which recently culminated in the naming of a slow minuet type of dance "the Wesleyan," in honor of John Wesley, founder of Methodism, were characterized today as "a silly stream of moral infamy," by Rev. Dr. John Straton, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church.

He predicted that the dance practise would soon be called "the Wesleyan Wiggle" and lead to a new series of dances something like
