—FOURTH VICTORY LOAN PROGRAMME—The entertainment at the Summerside High School Auditorium on Tuesday evening, April 22nd, for the purpose of raising money for the opening of the Fourth Loan Drive was produced by Captain Allan Murray and directed by F. O. H. Lambert. Both men have had long experience in the entertainment field. Captain Murray being a former member of the Old Dumfries Pipe and Dr. Lambert in stage and concert parties for many years. The programme was in English. The programme was under the patronage of Premier James A. Campbell and His Honor Mayor W. J. Lidstone. The R.C.A.F. orchestra furnished the music. The committee are extending their thanks to the members of the Group Captain Lewis for his permission in allowing his orchestra to attend. Captain Murray was the song leader of the party and demonstrated that he was no novice of the gift which nature has bestowed upon him. His favorite number was "The Girl from Ipanema" wherever the program was performed. The program was a good start with a number by A.W. McDonald for the "Hill the Back" which was from Toronto. Corporal Sheen sang a song and dance number to the good work. Sgt. Reardon, an artist who sings talent as made his audiences followed Summerside numbers which received well merited applause. The double act by Mrs. H. Schurman and Mrs. C. W. W. O'Donnell and Saganski rounded out the musical part of the programme to the complete satisfaction of the audience. The cleverest impersonation seen on Summerside was given by F. O. Lambert who kept the audience delighted by his ability to portray the grand finale. The grand finale was given by Miss Canada, the old generation, members of the armed forces etc. was cleverly staged and reflected on the men who were responsible for staging it.

ISLAND LADY VISITS DUBLIN—Miss Margaret Curran, Hamilton newspaper correspondent in Dublin, writes as follows in the Hamilton Spectator: "This war-time brings many surprises—even to this small neutral island. One of the latest is a telephone from a Dublin lady. A lady's voice announced that she was Miss McGulgan, from Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island. The name was familiar, for I have long known people of that name from the island. Yes, Dr. J. D. McGulgan was her uncle and Archibald McGulgan, of Toronto, was another uncle; and the McGulgan were her own cousins. Also, so we were soon on common ground. Learning that she was in Dublin, I found she was one of a party of about 200 Canadians who had arrived in Dublin for a few days' holiday. Mr. John Kearney, the Canadian representative in Dublin, was doing several functions, and Miss O'Malley, an important official at the Canadian office and sister of the late Lord Mayor of Dublin, was an invitable guest. The Tribune was an invaluable ally. One of them went to see the Daily session, and Alderman Alfred Byrne, former Lord Mayor of Dublin, was invited to the Y. M. C. A. Club's dining room. The United States Consul was also their host on various occasions. They went away with high opinions of the Irish capital. Some are interested in coming back, if and when leave permits."

Canada's Attitude

OTTAWA, April 29—(CP)—Rehabilitation in the post-war period is the subject of study by two committees of parliament and by advisory bodies co-operating with the government, but no suggestion has been made as to how it could be learned today—in line with the year's "contribution" of service to the state as proposed for American youth by President Roosevelt.

Inquiries among Canadian officials here failed to disclose anything under consideration here along the line of the President's proposal.

War Loan Meeting At Rustico

The War Loan meeting at Rustico last night was presided over by Mr. J. M. MacNeil. Mr. MacNeil stated that there were over two hundred persons present. Father MacNeill gave a most inspiring address on the investment in Victory Bonds was the greatest thrift to the individual and now necessary it is now to use our savings to back up our country's war effort as the investment in Victory Bonds was the greatest protection that one could make for these savings. The life of our men overseas, our own lives, and the very existence of our country itself depended more than ever before on what we do now.

Father MacNeill then called on Mr. Manning Bagnall, organizer of the Victory Loan for Queens County who gave a clear and very excellent talk on the details of the present campaign and how bonds can be purchased. He referred to the Queen's County total of $1,250,000 that must be raised and that this could only be accomplished with the full co-operation and necessary support of every citizen, the small subscriber as well as the larger ones.

Mr. B. Graham Rogers of the Travel Bureau who is in charge of the film showings at these meetings, also gave a most interesting talk on the outstanding accomplishments that have been achieved in Rustico during the past few years under the able guidance of Father MacNeill and that was one sure indication the people of Rustico would do their part fully and with the same spirit as the army, navy and air force has to be equipped and fed and the money invested in bonds is used for that purpose. The war loan series is continually kept in circulation. By this process not only are our armed forces kept supplied now but industry and production at home are maintained so that a continuous flow of materials and food is going forward. A war cannot be won with empty hands and empty stomachs. The war loan series of films shown and created a great deal of interest.

Tonight the meeting is at Georgetown.

Djebel Ajjed, still was the scene of heavy fighting. Energetic German defence thus far has prevented full occupation of that height which is about 12 miles west of Mateur.

Between the American zone and the British salient pointed at Tunis, another struggle has gone on in the Djebel Mellian area. British troops were said to have taken Sidi Hammid village in an indecisive battle which cost the British 100 men northeast of Medjer-El-Bah.

German Claims

The Berlin radio broadcast a dispatch from the international information bureau—a Nazi propaganda agency—claiming that the Axis Tunisian forces had repulsed four British and two American divisions last weekend, and declaring that the Allies had lost 120 guns, several hundred vehicles, and the equivalent of three tank divisions. The broadcast was recorded by The Associated Press.

German troops were said to have taken over all key positions with the exception of those atop the sheer mountain facing the British 8th Army in the south, about a third of the Axis troops still there were Italian.

Gen. Sir Bernard Montgomery's 8th Army has been able to gain only two to seven miles since last week's Enfidaville attack because of the terrain which prevents use of his powerful tank armada. The Allied communique today reported only "very active patrolling" in that sector.

ways been "closed sky." It would mean equipping Canada with long-range equipment—at least to tide her over the conversion period—and working out with the British some suitable allocation of the North Atlantic and Pacific trade.

"But for the right to operate through Canada's air, and perhaps to set up some kind of defences along her western coast, the frontier, this does not seem an excessive price—not for Americans with a sense of proportion."

Legitimate Interest

Fortune said Canada has a "legitimate interest" in routes across the North Atlantic to Europe, through the Yukon to Alaska and beyond to Asia, and across the Pacific from Vancouver to the Orient.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my dear father, Malcolm Kenneth Docherty who passed away April 30, 1942. One year has passed, my heart is sore. As time goes on I miss him more. The blow was hard, the shock severe. To part with one we loved so dear. So quick, so quiet was the call. His sudden death surprised us all. Though his smile has gone for ever. And his hands I cannot touch. I shall never lose sweet memories of the one I loved so much. Daughter, Ena. 4-30-41.
