For the last 20 years Mr. MacPhail has been a member of Doric Lodge, No. 58, in which he has occupied many official positions. ### IN MEMORIAM

BERTHA EVA WYAND

The sincerest sympathy of a host of friends will go out to the relatives who passed away Sunday, July 25th, at the early age of sixteen years. Since December last she had been confined to her bed with tuberculosis and was a patient sufferer until death claimed her. When she was eight days old her mother died, and she was adopted by her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wyand, who did for her until her death, all that loving hearts and human hands could do. Hattie, her cousin, also did a great deal in endeavoring to make her suffering a little less severe. Not a cup of water given in His name shall lose its reward. Early in life she yielded herself to the keeping of Jesus Christ, and joined the Christian Church. She had for a long time cherished the hope of doing foreign missionary work for Him, but He saw fit to call her to a larger service. When she was taken ill she was well advanced in her school work and was on the verge of a promising life. Her kindly manner and sweet personality had won for her many friends who will sorely regret her passing.

The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock, and was largely attended. Many floral tributes bore silent evidence of the esteem in which this young girl was held. Rev. John Simpson conducted the closing services, and she was peacefully laid to rest beside her sister whose remains found a resting place there a few days previously.

The heartfelt sympathy of many friends will go out to the bereaved in this their two fold affliction. There is a reaper whose name is death, And with his sickle keen, He reaps the bearded grain at a breath, And the flowers that grow between.

Shall I have nought that is fair, saith he? Have nought but the bearded grain Though the breath of these flowers will give them all back again. My Lord hath need of these flowerets gay, The reaper saith and smiled; Dear tokens of the earth are they, Where he was once a child. Oh, not in cruelty, not in wrath, 'Twas an angel visited the green earth, And took the flowers away.
