SUFFERS BROKEN COLLAR-BONE—Two cars were in collision at the corner of Cedar and Second Streets in Summerside on Saturday and a passenger in one of them suffered a broken collar-bone and head cuts. The others were unhurt. One car was driven by Mr. Joseph Norman Gallant of Farmington, Maine. The second car was driven by Mr. Raymond Gillis of Elmsdale, and it was his passenger, Mr. Emmet Nicholson of Elmsdale who suffered the injuries. The Gillis car turned over and was quite badly smashed.

RUMORS UNFOUNDED—Rumors were current in Summerside over the week-end that there were several cases of polio myelitis in town and that there was one death from that cause yesterday. However, Dr. E.T. Tanton, health officer for the town said last night that no cases had been reported to him. Inquiries at the Town Hall showed that no residences were under quarantine for that cause.

INSPECT HOSPITALS—His Worship, Mayor J.P. Arnett of Summerside; Mr. W.E. Darby, President of the Board of Trustees of the Prince County Hospital; Mr. M.L. Bradshaw, vice president of the Board and Mr. J. Henry Gaudet, chairman of the Building Committee of the Board returned on Friday evening from a tour of inspection of hospitals in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick. Among the hospitals visited were those at Kentville, Wolfville, Halifax and Sackville. They also interviewed the architects who planned the new hospitals and found that they have gained considerable information which will assist the Board of Trustees in planning the new Prince County Hospital which they hope to have under construction early next spring.

MCCLOSKEY-CAHILL NUPTIALS
—A wedding of interest to a large circle of friends of the bride and groom took place on August 15th at the Sacred Heart Church, Alberton, when Zoe Agnes daughter of Mr. Peter McCloskey and Mrs. Herman Cahill, Kildare, was united in marriage to Mr. Waldo McCloskey, son of Mrs. McCloskey and Mr. Peter McCloskey of Rollo Bay. Rev. Dr. W.E. Monaghan performed the ceremony and celebrated the Nuptial Mass.

—Mrs. James Condon, Reggie and Isabel Condon, of Kensington, spent a pleasant day visiting at the home of Mr. Allan Semple, Clermont.

—Mrs. Albert Stafford and children are spending a few days with Mrs. Stafford's mother, Mrs. A. Conner, near a few weeks and is a house guest of Mrs. Connell.

—Little Jackie Condon is home after having a tonsil operation in Prince County Hospital.

—Mrs. Annie Shields, Frank and Mrs. Shields and two sons, of Spring Valley, have moved to their new home in Clermont.

—Seymour and Mrs. McCully and son Bruce motored from St. John's to spend a week with Mrs. McCully's parents, Palm and Mrs. Mill.

—Mrs. Arthur Wright and Theresa McLellan spent last Tuesday afternoon in Charlottetown, accompanied by Mrs. Wilfred and daughter, Mrs. Zenna and Mrs. Curley. They visited Mrs. N.J. McNeill of New Annapolis who is ill in City Hospital.

—Marguerite agreed to try and the result exceeded all expectations. The finished painting showed the fish fighting the line on the water's surface and the friend was so pleased he rewarded her handsomely.

—Young Miss Thorpe decided if one man would pay for a design of his hobby on his tie, others would, and so she started designing ties for her friends, and their friends' until orders started to come from all over the district.

—Golfers, bowlers, archers, duck-shooters have placed orders too, but one of the most unique orders came for a birthday-gift tie for a returned veteran who had spent a great deal of his time in England. The result — a dart board with three lawn mowers protruding and underneath, a stein of mild and bitter, with froth and all.

—Marguerite purchased her ties from Toronto, buying plain colors for the background effect, and then awaits orders from her rapidly growing clientele—which doesn't take very long.

—Now in first form at Lakeview Beach school, Marguerite first showed signs of promise in her early age of six, and her paintings and drawings, made in Grade two and up, were entered in competitions at the National Exhibition.

Death Of Well-known Summerside Man

The death occurred in Summerside at his late residence early Saturday morning of Mr. W.H. Slackford in his 70th year. The deceased who was a former employee of the Canadian National Railway retired about 18 years ago and has been a resident of Summerside since that time where he made a host of friends who will regret to learn of his passing.

Born at Long Beach, N.E. he was a son of the late Reverend E. Slackford who was a well known minister throughout the Maritime Provinces some years ago. He was twice married, his first wife being Miss Bryenton of Winsloe, P.E.I. His second wife who survives was formerly Miss Mabel Allen. He also survived by one son, Harry of Charlottetown and one daughter, Mabel; also one brother, Edward in Minneapolis. Another brother, J.H. Slackford who died about three years ago was at one time a prominent business man and Mayor of Truro, N.S.

The funeral was held yesterday afternoon from Compton's Funeral Home where a service was conducted by Rev. George Ayres. The pall bearers were Messrs Albany Palmer, Wallace Bradshaw, Lorne Campbell, L.R. Allen, Earl Sutherland, Walter Peters.—S.

McLEAN-BIRCH WEDDING
—Of much interest to a wide circle of friends was a charming wedding solemnized in St. James Anglican Church, Port Hill, on Wednesday, Aug. 14th at 7 p.m., when Annie LeRoy, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Birch of Port Hill, was given in marriage to Thomas Roland, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie McLean of Arlington.

The church was a profusion of golden glow and evergreens and provided a beautiful setting for the ceremony, which was conducted by the Reverend G.W. Meadus, rector. To the strains of LeRoy's "Bridal Chorus," the youthful bride proceeded slowly up the aisle escorted by her father, by whom she was given in marriage. She looked winsomely lovely in a floor-length gown of white chiffon over tulle with full bodice, and sweetheart neckline. Her shoulder length veil was caught up with white flowers in halo effect; her bouquet was of white roses, Beauty roses, her only ornament being gold locket. Her sister, Miss Edith Pearl Birch, of Ottawa, was her bridesmaid and looked lovely in a floor-length gown of blue net over tulle. She wore a pearl necklace and carried a bouquet of blue roses.

During the ceremony the choir sang "O Perfect Love" and the Deus Miseratur, while during the singing of the register, Mrs. Wm. Birch rendered "Because."

To the accompaniment of Mendelssohn's Wedding March the happy couple left the church. The bridegroom was supported by Leith W. McLean, and acting as ushers were Henry W. Birch and Horace W. McLean. The mother of the bride presided at the organ, and throughout the service played soft music.

Reception for immediate relatives was held at the bride's home, where the bridal couple received the congratulations of the guests and were assisted in receiving by the bride's parents.

The bride's mother was gowned in rose and grey crepe with black accessories and corsage of sweet peas and maidenhair fern. The bridegroom's mother favored an ensemble of brown silk jersey in harmonizing shades, with corsage of sweet peas. The reception room was tastefully decorated in white with gladioli and asparagus while the dining room was done in pink and white, with sweet peas.

A delicious supper was served, the guests having the place of honor. Mrs. Ernest Birch, becomingly attired in a gown of floral silk jersey, cut the cake. The happy number who attended, and the many gifts received, testified to the popularity and esteem in which the young couple are held by their well-wishers in Arlington.

SUN'S SOURCE?
The name Japan is a corruption of the Chinese word Zhanpan, meaning source of the sun.

was a dress of blue jersey silk and white accessories, topcoat in corresponding shade, with corsage of Better Time roses.

Prior to the marriage the bride was tendered a shower at her home. The many beautiful and costly gifts, including a large sum of money received at both shower and reception, show the high esteem in which the young couple are held.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. McCloskey extend to them many years of happy wedded bliss.

Medical Association Meeting At S'side

PORTSMOUTH, England — (CP) — When fire broke out in the paint store of H.M.S. Victory, Nelson's famous flagship was saved undamaged.

The August meeting of the P.E.I. Medical Association was held in Epworth Hall on Friday evening and was in the nature of a supper meeting. The President of the Association, Dr. Leonard Farmer presided and introduced the guest speakers of the evening, Dr. Cyril Kinley and Dr. Clyde Holland of Halifax. Dr. Kinley gave a highly interesting address on infantile paralysis while Dr. Holland spoke on diabetes.

The programme was under the direction of Dr. Henry Moyle, chairman of the educational committee and consisted of a vocal solo by Mrs. John McLeod, who was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Cleve Whalen; also two readings by Mrs. J.S. Perry.

At the conclusion of the address, a vote of thanks to the distinguished speakers was moved by Dr. J.C. Simpson and seconded by Dr. Raymond Reid of Wellington.

Dr. W.J.P. MacMillan, O.B.E. extended the thanks of all present to the ladies aid for the excellent supper.

On Saturday the visiting doctors were guests of the Medical Association at Cavendish and returned to Halifax on Sunday.—S.

What had seemed two days earlier to be the long-awaited end of war, appeared on Aug. 12, 1946, only a mirage. Final surrender hung upon the fate of Japan's emperor and religious figurehead, Hirohito. The Japan wanted a guarantee that he would remain on the throne. The Allies promised nothing as to his ultimate role. A false flash on U. S. news wire set off a brief flurry of excitement but was quickly killed. And the world waited.

Pilot James L. Steen, 28, and co-pilot Marvin O. Fox, 26, both of Coral Gables, Fla., were killed but 22 passengers of this chartered plane, en route from New York to California, miraculously escaped death when it crashed at the Molino, Ill. airport. Pilot had attempted an emergency landing after one of the plane's engines caught fire.
