Itch! Itch! Itch!

It Seems Sometimes As If You Would Fly Out of Your Skin

Eczema or salt rheum not only itches, but it also burns, oozes, dries and scales over and over again. Sometimes it covers the whole body and causes intense suffering.

FAREWELL ADDRESS.

A large crowd gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Jardine, Brooklyn, on New Year's eve to bid farewell to Mr. and Mrs. John Jardine on their departure for their new home in Freetown. The young people came as a surprise to the couple and on their arrival called the crowd to order and read an address and presented them with a well filled purse. Then Mr. and Mrs. Jardine spoke a few words of thanks to their kind friends for their kindness shown to them on this occasion and also for the good time they gave them while in Brooklyn. Then a dainty lunch was served by the ladies and then the rest of the evening was spent in music, games and dancing, and at the wee small hours they departed for their homes feeling they had spent an enjoyable evening.

Following is the address:- Dear Mr. and Mrs. John Jardine, We, your friends of Brooklyn, have gathered here this evening to bid you a glad welcome on this your first visit together to our island. We regret that your sojourn with us have been so short but we hope that we shall have the pleasure of having you with us soon again. As a token of our respect and esteem we ask you to kindly accept this small gift with it goes our best wishes for a long and happy wedded life. Signed on behalf of your Brooklyn friends.

LETTERS OF SYMPATHY

The following letters have been sent to Mr. Tyrus Holmes. Dear Brother:- On behalf of the members of Kingston Star Division No. 142 we desire to convey to you our sincere sympathy in this your time of sore bereavement, in the loss you have sustained through the death of your dear mother.

Our hearts go out to you in this your time of sorrow and we thought of your loneliness fills us with grief. We know it is very hard to lose a friend who was so near and dear to you but nevertheless we are conscious of the fact it was the will of that great Divine who doeth all things well. He whose thoughts are not our thoughts neither his ways our ways and while we mourn the loss of your beloved mother our sorrow mingled with joy when we reflect upon the fact that her spirit is released from the burden of the flesh, "to be forever at rest in the Lord" we believe that she is happier and better off more than if she were with us, for beautiful as the world is and attached as we become to human friendships, there is a more beautiful beyond wherein await friendships that death cannot sever and to that world we shall all go sooner or later and it is there that you shall sometime meet your beloved mother with the white hosts in the realms of glory.

"When God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain, for the former things are passed away." Again we would assure you our sorrow is mingled with yours and we deeply sympathize with you and for you while you mourn for your beloved mother who is not dead but gone before.

"There is no death! What seems so is transition. This life of mortal breath is but a suburb of the life Elysian. Whose portal we call death." Signed in the principles of L. P. and F.

RAYMOND BARRETT MILLAR MacFADYEN ERIC MacFADYEN Dear Brethren:- In this hour of your sorrow and bereavement when your beloved mother has been called to her eternal home, we the officers and members of King William L. O. L. No. 1166, desire to express to you our heartfelt sympathy.

Death is ever an unwelcome visitant but especially so when His call demands a friend who is bound to us by the strongest of human ties. Though this cord of affection be severed, it is but for a season,

Mrs. George McInnis, city, went to Halifax yesterday, in response to a telegram from her husband. The money you fail to get will never add to your wealth. Most of life's shadows result from standing in our own light. One way to suppress a chronic borrower is to get your work in first.
