GAS SOURNESS AND INDIGESTION VANISH

As soon as "Pape's Diapepsin" gets in Stomach all distress is gone.

"Really does" put bad stomachs in order—"really does" overcome indigestion, dyspepsia, gas, heartburn and sourness in five minutes—that—just that—makes Pape's Diapepsin the largest selling stomach regulator in the world. If what you eat ferments into stubborn lumps, you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food and acid; head is dizzy and aches; breath foul; tongue coated; your insides filled with bile and indigestible waste, remember the moment Diapepsin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. It's truly astonishing—almost marvelous, and the joy is its harmlessness.

A large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin will give you a hundred dollars' worth of satisfaction or your druggist hands you your money back.

It's worth its weight in gold to men and women who can't get their stomachs regulated. It belongs in your home—should always be kept handy in case of a sick, sour, upset stomach during the day or at night It's the quickest, surest and most harmless stomach doctor in the world.

THINGS IN THE BOTTOM DRAWER.

There are whips and toys and pieces of strings;
There are shoes which no little feet wear;
There are bits of ribbon and broken rings,
And tresses of golden hair;
There are little tresses folded away
Out of the light of the sunny day.

But a feeling of bitterness fills my soul
Sometimes when I try to pray,
That the reaper had spared so many flowers
And taken all mine away;
And I almost doubt that the Lord can know,
That a mother's heart can love them so.

They wander far in distant climes,
They perish by field and flood,
And their hands are black with the direst crimes
That kindle the wrath of God,
Yet a mother's song had soothed them to rest;
She has lulled them to slumber upon her breast.

And then I think of my children three,
My babies that never grow old,
And know they are waiting and watching for me
In the city with streets of gold.
Safe, safe from the cares of the weary years,
From sorrow and sin and war,
And I thank my God, with falling tears,
For the things in the bottom drawer.

THE QUEEN'S HONOR— OR THE BLUE DIAMOND.

This splendid play has been secured by the Colonials for the opening play Exhibition week and they have the exclusive rights for Eastern Canada.

It is a play much after the order of "Graustark," considered by many who have witnessed it to be superior to that well known success.

The scene is laid in Tourania, an imaginary Kingdom in Europe, giving opportunity for costumes and pretty scenery. The King and Queen have not been on good terms for some time, their marriage, as is usual in many royal circles, having been arranged for State reasons.

The Queen is in love with Prince Danilo, of an adjoining principality, the Chancellor learns of this, and for his own ends—assisted by Countess Solheim—still further estranges the King and Queen, by this means hoping to bring about the fall of the Monarchy, and becoming Dictator. There is a Blue Diamond—a crown jewel—stolen years ago from the Goddess Isis, in the Temple of Karnak, the possession of which has brought nothing but bad luck to the owners. Pharasaphus, an Egyptian, has made it the mission of his life to recover the stone and return it to the Temple, the King thinks the man is mad, and refuses to give it up, and like his father, comes to a tragic end. Pharasaphus secures the Blue Diamond, thus lifting the curse, and the curtain falls with the presumption that eventually the Queen will marry the man of her heart, Prince Danilo.
