IN MEMORIAM

MR. GAVIN WALKER

Friday night, Crapaud was the scene of an unusually sad occurrence. About ten o'clock, Mr. Gavin Walker, a retired farmer passed away.

Mr. Isaac Beer, his neighbor, was sent for to go to the house and assist in preparing Mr. Walker for burial. When Mr. Beer was called, he was sitting on the bed reading his Bible, but he at once dressed and went to Mr. Walker's.

Here he was suddenly seized with a heart attack and was taken to the doctor's office across the street, where he passed away in less than an hour after Mr. Walker's death.

The latter was a retired farmer and was between sixty and seventy years of age.

Mr. Beer, who was several years his junior, was a tailor by trade and one of the leading residents of Crapaud, being a prominent member of the United Church and of the Masonic and Orange Orders.

The passing of these two highly respected residents under such unusually sad circumstances is being deplored by the people of Crapaud and vicinity.

MRS. G. DOUGLAS MacEWEN

The death of Mrs. MacEwen, which occurred at her home in this city on New Year's Day, will be generally and deeply regretted. She was the wife of our esteemed citizen, Mr. G. Douglas MacEwen, retired locomotive engineer.

The late Mrs. MacEwen has been an invalid for the past ten years, and about a year ago she was stricken with paralysis and last fall with another stroke. Since then, it was apparent that the inevitable could not be far off, and at the age of 62 she was called to the Better Land.

Mrs. MacEwen has many friends, and she endeared herself to her most intimate acquaintances by her many womanly and lovable qualities. Although she had been in delicate health for such a long period yet she bore her sufferings with Christian resignation and patience. All who knew her and loved her will mourn her departure, but she has been released from the trials of this world and has been taken home by a loving Father.

She leaves to mourn besides a sorrowing husband, one son, Nelson, in the Y.M.C.A., Montreal; two daughters, Mrs. J. G. Wood of Bumbury and Mrs. Louis Howatt, Charlottetown; also the following brothers and sisters: David Coffin and Mrs. Emma Douglas, Head of Hillsborough; W. Henry Coffin, Cherry Hill; Leonard Coffin, Presque Isle, Maine; Albert E. Coffin, Vancouver; Mrs. Artemas Douglas, Dorchester, Mass.

The funeral was held yesterday afternoon from her late residence to the People's Cemetery. Services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Ramsay and Rev. Hammond Johnson.

The pall bearers were Harry C. Craswell, John F. MacDonald, Isaac Clark, H. J. Love, A. J. Houle, and A. L. Howatt.

MR. WELLINGTON PAYNTER

The funeral of the late Wellington Paynter took place on Wednesday afternoon at one o'clock, p. m., and was very largely attended. His pastor, Mr. John Fleck, officiated. His words to the bereaved family were well-chosen and full of loving consolation.

The following hymns, favorites of the deceased, were very feelingly rendered by the choirs of the United and Presbyterian Churches. The Lord Is My Shepherd, "Forever with the Lord", and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus." During the service Mr. G. Roy Phillips sang very touchingly, "Shall We Meet Beyond the River."

In the passing of the late Mr. Paynter, French River has lost one of its best citizens. In his home he was a generous, affectionate husband and father, and his kindly welcome will not soon be forgotten by his friends and neighbors. Always a pleasant smile and cheery welcome for every one and the place he held in the hearts and affection of his little grand children can never be filled, but "God is too wise to Er", too just to be unkind, and someday we shall understand, where now we question why? He leaves to mourn a sorrowing widow and two sons, Wesley and Charles; the latter with whom he resided during his illness and death, and three sisters, Rosella and Eva of Long River and Mrs. John H. Pidgeon, French River, two brothers, Bernard and Herbert of Long River. The remains were laid tenderly to rest in the beautiful Geddie Memorial Cemetery, by six nephews of the deceased, namely, George McNeill, John Davison, Harry Paynter Everett Paynter, John Parsons, Alfred Parsons.

Until we meet again before His Throne, Clothed in the Spotless Robe He gives His Own, Until we know even as we are known, Goodnight, Good-night.

BRINGING UP FATHER

OKLAHOMA PRIEST GOES TO EXTENSION SOCIETY

(The Southwest Courier)

Father St. John, secretary to Bishop Kelley, left this week for Chicago where he will be attached to the Catholic church extension society founded by Bishop Kelley in 1905. It has gathered an expended millions of dollars for church and missions throughout America.

Father St. John was born at Prince Edward Island, and was educated at St. Dunstan's college. He entered the Grande Seminaire of Quebec, and was ordained December 21, 1919 for Charlottetown Diocese. He was stationed at the Cathedral for four years and in 1923 went to Chicago on sick leave. Upon Bishop Kelley's installation in Oklahoma city, Father St. John came to the Oklahoma Diocese as secretary in October, 1924.

Beside being secretary to the Bishop he at one time was placed in charge of the Bishop's Chapel and later of Sacred Heart church. He was attached to Christ King church, in March of this year and remained in the oil city until November when he returned to Oklahoma city.

The young priest has charge of the post-drive detail work of the Diocese in addition to his duties as secretary to the Bishop. He has made a host of friends throughout Oklahoma, esteem for him being state-wide. He regained fully his health while in Oklahoma.

At a banquet given in his honor last week he was presented a purse and a beautiful Howard gold watch by friends in Oklahoma city.

As a rule an editor fools with dynamite when he picks out the most popular priest in the Diocese. The Courier didn't hesitate. Father St. John has long since gained that distinction. But we are bidding goodbye to this amiable priest for Father St. John goes to the Catholic Church Society and Bishop Kelley loses his secretary.

Every person picks out a different attribute of Father St. John when they speak of him. Bishop Kelley says it is loyalty; others have said modesty; still others prudence, capability, until the entire gamut is run.

What we like best about Father St. John is that he is an unchanging friend. That we believe encompasses the book from cover to cover. Qualify the word "friend" with the word "unchanging" and you have denoted the very acme of what man can receive from man. To have won the confidence of every priest and layman in the Diocese, to have continued in that confidence, gives Father St. John a parting note of happiness shared by his friends in Oklahoma.

Threatened with everlasting rebuke we say these few words about Father St. John.

Insidious Eye Strain

We use this adjective advisedly. Sufferers from Eye Strain may have perfect vision and therefore do not suspect the presence of any eye defect.

The motive power of the Entire human organism is Nerve Energy.

Normal eyes, it is computed utilize about 20% of this Nerve Energy, but when Eye Strain is present, a much larger proportion is required. Hence defective eyes, through their consumption of an excessive amount of Nerve Energy may seriously affect the functioning of other organs of the body and produce ill health.
