—SUCCESSFUL CONCERT—A very delightful and successful concert was given by the Mission Band of the Trinity United Church in the Epworth Hall, Summerside, on Monday evening. The delightful programme consisting of instrumental music, solos, readings, recitations and choruses was arranged by Mrs. L. R. Allan, Mrs. T. M. Linkletter and Mrs. Josephus Smallman, Mrs. Smallman also presiding at the piano. Miss Ruth Mutart and Miss Dorothy Silliphant played the opening duet. Worthy of special mention was a pretty little dialogue entitled, "The Spice Bearers", which was acted by six little tots. A pleasing addition to the programme was some very fine instrumental music by the Misses Inman, daughters of Major Inman of Lot 16. The evening closed with a song beautifully rendered by Miss Bessie Smallman. A sale of candy helped considerably to increase the amount of the proceeds, which was over $50.—S

JAMES A. LUKE DIES IN MILL-INOCKET

MILLINOCKET, Me., April 1—James A. Luke, 56, a native of P. E. I., is dead at his home here. He came to Millinocket from Rumford when the town was a wilderness and worked upon the construction of the Great Northern mills, assisted in installing the machinery and for many years had been foreman of the riggers, placing or changing all the heavy machinery without a serious accident. He was a member of the Knights of Columbus and Modern Woodmen. Surviving are his wife, four sons and three daughters.

Livestock Markets

MONTREAL, Que., Apr. 3.—There were 32 cattle, 311 calves and 176 hogs and one lamb for sale on the market, including 24 cattle held over from yesterday's market. Common to medium cows were sold for $5 to $7 and up to $8 for good cows. Common bulls brought from $5 to $7. Buyers were refusing fairly good quality calves at $10. Hogs were steady at $13 fed and watered not graded sows were unchanged.

MRS. THOMAS YEO

The death of Mrs. Thomas Yeo of North River occurred at her home on March 16 after a very brief illness. Although not in her usual health for the last few years her death came unexpected and was a sudden shock to her family and friends. Deceased was of a kind and cheerful disposition and endeared herself to all those who made her acquaintance. She was 73 years of age, and leaves to mourn besides her sorrowing husband three daughters and five sons. Mrs. John Jewell of North River, Mrs. K. Toombs at home who waited on her during her illness and Maude of New Bedford who arrived home for the funeral. William of Kingston, Alfred, of North River, Harold, Union Road, Wesley, of New Bedford and Eddie at home, also two brothers and one sister namely: James Moreside of North River, William of Vancouver, and Mrs. Alcorn of Rocky Point. A very large number attended to pay their tribute of respect, and to show their sympathy with the bereaved. The services were conducted by her pastor Rev. Mr. Aitken of Cornwall and her body was laid to rest in the Kingston Cemetery. The pall-bearers were: John Jewell, John McKinnon, Frank Howard, William Green, Oswald Newson and Fred Younker. (Patriot Please Copy)

ALBERT H. PARKMAN

On the evening of Feb. 28th, in the 77th year of his age, after a prolonged illness of nearly twenty years at his home in New Glasgow, Albert H. Parkman was called to enter into that rest that awaits the people of God.

The deceased is a man of sterling qualities, and was one of the most progressive farmers of the community. A friend to all and was highly respected by all who knew him.

During the many years of almost incessant suffering he bore his cross patiently without murmuring or complaining, and it seemed that the sterling qualities of his splendid manhood were refined "as by fire."

In his relation to the community, he took a profound interest, always supporting any forward movement, despite the many years of his physical disability. This interest continued to the end.

Early in life he accepted Christ as his Lord and Saviour and united with the Church and Christ under the ministry of the late Rev. Donald Crawford, of which he was a very faithful member and conscientious Christian, continuing steadfast unto the end.

Funeral services were conducted from his late home by his pastor, Rev. C. E. Armstrong, who spoke from the words of the Apostle Paul to Timothy. I have fought the good fight, I have kept the faith, I have finished the course."

During the course of the address the speaker expressed his conviction "that there was not a text more applicable to the life of the departed than the one chosen for the occasion. He surely was a man tried by the fire of suffering, and kept faith with God and his fellowmen, and finished the course with the joy of seeing his Lord face to face.

A very large assemblage of friends gave evidence to the fact of the est-
