A TELEPHONE message from Orwell last night states that the funeral of the late Norman McDonald of Kinross, killed in Le Roy mine on the 14th took place on the 16th. The death is a great blow to his widowed mother as he was scarcely 30 years of age. It appears that the unfortunate young man worked in Montana during the past summer and his friends were not aware that he had gone to Rossland. He was a carpenter.

PATRONS of the Hillsboro Rink will be pleased this morning to learn that Messrs. W. B. Prowse and L. B. McMillan have leased the rink for the coming season. In conversation with Mr. Prowse THE GUARDIAN learns that everything possible will be done to make the arrangement satisfactory to the numerous patrons. Both of the above gentlemen are favorably known to our citizens and all are of the opinion that Hillsboro Rink will be the centre of attraction during the coming winter months.

A MEETING of the Presbytery of Halifax has been decided on for November 29th to deal with the call to Rev. A. Gandier, of Fort Massey church, extended by St. James Square Presbyterian church, Toronto. The call has been in the hands at the officials of the Presbytery for some days. Opinion is divided whether or not Mr. Gandier will accept the call. No one in this city knows what Mr. Gandier's intentions are, in fact, the probability is that he does not yet himself actually know what he will do about the call.—Halifax Herald.

THE annual meeting of the Victoria Hockey Club was held last night in the Y. M. C. A. and was most enthusiastic. After the usual routine of business and election of new members several former members were re-installed. Election of officers resulted as follows:
