VISITING ILLUSTRATION STATIONS—Mr. A.E. Barrett, associate chief of the Division of Illustration Stations, Ottawa, and representing the chief, Mr. John Moynan, arrived in Charlottetown last evening. He had a meeting last night with the staff of the Experiment Farm and will continue during the balance of the week to inspect most of the Island's Illustration Stations accompanied by Mr. W. N. Black, supervisor of Illustration Stations for the Province.

LEAVES FOR CALGARY—Mr. R. C. Parent, Provincial Commissioner of Boy Scouts left this morning for Calgary, Alberta, to attend the annual meeting of the Executive Council of the Canadian Boy Scouts Association. Mr. Parent states that one of the main subjects for discussion is the national financial campaign proposed for next spring and the matter of jamborees. He will take this opportunity to visit relatives of Mrs. Parent in Calgary and hopes to return to Charlottetown for the first of next week.

Y-GRADS MEETING—The weekly meeting of the Y-Grads Club was held last evening in the banquet room of the Y.M.C.A. The Ladies Auxiliary of the Y.M.C.A. served the supper. Retiring president Lloyd Grant was chairman and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Robert Giggey; vice president, Dr. Bill Hogg; treasurer, Gordon Stewart; Arnold Calbeck and Bill Stevenson were executive members. President-elect Giggey spoke briefly of the Club program and projects for the coming year. A short discussion followed and it was planned to have mixed bowling next Wednesday at 9 p.m. The meeting closed with The King.

MALE CHORUS REHEARSAL—The Charlottetown Male Chorus held its weekly rehearsal in the banquet hall of the Y. M. C. A. on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. A new first tenor was enrolled and the practice commenced with a 10 minute sing-song around the piano. This rehearsal was probably the best so far and the director, Mr. Stanley Lancaster, was very pleased with the singing. In the three weeks that the Chorus has resumed its meetings, three new pieces have been almost learned and after a little polishing up has been made, the rest of the new music will be attempted, until there is a sufficient number learned to warrant the presenting of a concert. The cry still goes out for tenors, both first and second and the director feels certain there are at least three of each both in and around Charlottetown. The music has been acclaimed by those members present and it is varied to suit most tastes.

Armstrong-Miller Wedding At St. Paul's Church

The marriage took place yesterday afternoon at St. Paul's Anglican Church of Joan Winifred, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Miller, Charlottetown, with Mr. William Edward Armstrong, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick N. Armstrong, Georgetown, Ontario. Rev. James T. Hubert officiated at the ceremony. Nuptial hymns were sung by St. Paul's junior choir and the wedding music was played by the organist, Mr. Royston Mufford, A. R. C. O.

The church was decorated with bouquets of autumn leaves and standards of gladioli. Bouquets of white chrysanthemums were arranged on the communion table. The bride was given in marriage by her father and attended by Miss Doris Armstrong, Georgetown, Ontario, and Miss Lois Miller, as bridesmaids. The groomsmen were Mr. Stanley Miller and the ushers Mr. H. E. Miller, Jr., and Mr. Thomas DeBlois.

The bride's gown was of white slipper satin trimmed with lace, and her fingertip veil was held by a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of deep red roses. The bridesmaids' gowns were of moire taffeta, Miss Armstrong wearing aqua with matching accessories, and Miss Miller's ensemble in old rose with matching colonial nosegays of chrysanthemums in autumn colours.

At the wedding reception held at "The Charlottetown" Mrs. Miller received the guests. Grey crepe dresses with black accessories. Following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong left by plane for Boston and New York, the bride wearing a navy blue gabardine suit with navy and wine accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong will live in Toronto.

Ministerial Association Meets

The opening autumn meeting of the Charlottetown Ministerial Association was held Tuesday morning in the Y.M.C.A. building, with the vice-president, Rev. M.D. Dunbar, in the chair. After the reading of the minutes by the secretary, Rev. J. D. Davison, routine business matters were disposed of. Reports were heard from the convener of the radio broadcasting committee, Rev. J. T. Hubert, and from the convener of the committee on services at social institutions, Rev. G. C. Webster.

The treasurer, Rev. T. H. B. Somers presented his report and was authorized to pay rebuses. Some of the travel difficulties and expense in connection with both radio broadcasting of "Morning Devotions" and services at institutions were discussed and an endeavour is to be made to make arrangements so that more of the ministers living outside the city will find it possible to share in these responsibilities.

The Rev. Wm. Mercer reported on the minutes of the schools of the Province of literature for temperance education and offered his services to any responsible group who would be interested in having films shown on this subject without expense to anyone. The Rev. Mr. Barber of North River Baptist Pastorate was welcomed as a newcomer.

Arrangements were made for the holding of the annual meeting and the election of officers on November 8th at 2 p.m. in the local Y.M.C.A. building.

REDS BOOST WEAPONS SAYS SLAV TIEBER
VANCOUVER, Oct. 12 — (CP) — The Russians have changed the familiar "guns before butter" slogan to "guns before butter" also. The kids are denied ice cream cones, though there is plenty of vodka for the adults.

Citizens of Russian cities are cramped into four square yards of living space per person because housing is considered an "unprofitable investment".

Dr. Romimols, newly-appointed associate professor of Slavonic studies, said Soviet production of "luxury" items is cut to the bone to increase military production.

Irlam-Moore Wedding

The bride was given in marriage by her father and attended by her sister Miss Ruth Moore as maid of honour and Mrs. John Bull and Mrs. Gordon Stilwell as bridesmaids. The groomsmen were Mr. W. G. Moore and Mr. Ralph Moore.

The bride wore a white moire taffeta gown with draped neckline, bouffant skirt caught with orange blossoms. Her veil of tulle illusion was held in place by a beaded coronet and she carried a prayer book with markers of pink rosebuds.

The maid of honour chose a turquoise crepe gown with sweet-heart neckline, draped skirt and carried a bouquet of yellow mums. Her headress was a bandeau of matching flowers. The bridesmaid's dress was of brown, green, top coat and dark brown accessories.

Following the reception Mr. and Mrs. Irlam left on their wedding trip, the bride wearing a wool suit of cocoa brown, green top coat and dark brown accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Irlam will live in Charlottetown.
