

FRIDAY

WHAT MAKES YOU THINK

your skin trouble is incurable? Many cases that have been given up by doctors and specialists have yielded to Zam-Buk. For instance, Mrs. Alphonse Lariviere of 671 Rodman St., Fall River, Mass., writes: "For three years several doctors tried to cure me of a bad attack of eczema, but each in turn gave up the case as incurable. I then went to a specialist, who charged me a large fee, but did me absolutely no good. I was certainly discouraged, when I heard of Zam-Buk and commenced using it at once. I applied it regularly and for bathing purposes used only Zam-Buk Soap. Before very long there was some improvement, and finally the combined use of Zam-Buk and Zam-Buk Soap worked a complete cure."

For ulcers, abscesses, blood-poisoning, scalp sores, ringworm and all skin injuries. All cases of Zam-Buk is equally invaluable, as well as for cuts, burns, scalds and all skin injuries. All dealers or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, 506 St. George St. for $1.25.

IN MEMORIAM

CAPTAIN JAMES TAYLOR.

By the death of Captain James Taylor, which occurred at his home, St. Peter's Island on Wednesday, February 22nd, a well-known and much respected character especially amongst the shipping interests of this city and province—has passed away.

—Captain Taylor was born at St. Peter's Island, sixty-five years ago and spent his life there. As he grew up he engaged in farming and fishing, and when still a young man began his career as pilot. It is not undesigned praise to state that he was probably the foremost pilot in this part of the Province, and had the honor of piloting some of the largest vessels, including great warships, in and out of Charlottetown harbour. To Captain Taylor fell the honor of piloting the cruiser Squadron, which, under the command of Prince Louis of Battenberg, visited Charlottetown some years ago. It is said that Captain Taylor piloted more ships in these waters than anyone else.

—He was a man of magnificent physique and his death, in what might be termed the prime of life, is very regrettable. Captain Taylor was noted for his hospitality, for his undaunted courage, his ability and his friendliness to all. He was widely known and all who visited St. Peter's Island, as well as many in this part of the country and in the city, will remember him and will entertain nothing but the kindest remembrance of him.

—For some time past his health had been failing and no doubt his declining physique was weakened by the hardships incidental to his calling and his work as a fisherman. There are left to mourn and cherish his memory a widow and his sons, James, keeper of the lighthouse, Daniel at Nine Mile Creek, one daughter, Mrs. Steele at St. Peter's Island. To the bereaved his extended sincere sympathy.

The funeral takes place today (Friday) at 1:30 p. m. to the Presbyterian Cemetery, West River and the service will be held in the church there.

—RINK AFTER ALL.—During the early part of the winter much gloom was felt by the young people of Georgetown when a report was circulated that there would be no "Rink" as the Town wanted a higher rent than any one seemed willing to pay. At last in the early part of January when hope among the young lady skaters had almost fled, it was learned that there would be Rink. Under the capable and efficient management of Mr. Frank McLean the building was flooded, stoves were erected, and electric light was installed, so that now on every Monday, Wednesday and Friday night the "Rink" is the resort of most of the young people, and presents a very animated appearance with its crowd of skaters, who one and all claim that the ice is in "great shape." One fancy dress Carnival was held about two weeks ago, and it is proposed to hold another in the near future in which prizes will be awarded. All are loud in their praise for the splendid management of the Rink.—G.
