CAPITOL SUMMERSIDE
They Met in "Argentina"

Combining a gay romantic triangle with a wealth of music and dancing and novelty features, they met in Argentina established itself firmly in the affections of local summer-time theatre-goers with its opening yesterday.

Maureen O'Grady, James Ellison, Alvin Karpis, the young Argentine singing "Merry Argentinians" and other songs, and a number of other artists in the cast.

The operation has been under preparation for some time. It is correct that Canadians made up a very substantial portion of the troops who participated. They were under the command of Maj.-Gen. Roberts.

One of the purposes of today's attack, although not necessarily the main purpose, was undoubtedly to test out methods of co-operation between land, sea and air forces already worked out and tried in recent practice manoeuvres on the British coast.

A mobile war service tea canteen was presented by the 33 Boy Scouts of the 1st Battalion (Birmingham) Scout Troop to the Y.M.C.A. in a little ceremony at the Royal Wrens, during the operation.

After blitz services founded by the Boy Scouts of Bath, England, following the Nazi air raids, included the parading of the streets with broken windows with various material, and serving for many hours at municipal feeding centres. Older Scouts helped in extricating the injured from bombed houses. One 16 year old boy helped remove the dead members of one family. Coming upon an injured girl, he bandaged her wounds and took her to her sight of her dead relatives.

I have followed rather closely the training of the Scouts of our own or a period of a good many years, and I can only speak in the very highest terms of this training, and the spirit which it instils in the boys. Canada—Col. R. G. Whitehall, Director of Military Training.

In a first aid competition for Boy Scouts of Picton County, N.S., held at New Glasgow by Superintendent James White of the First Aid and Trenching Team of the Acadian Press, the usual score of 9 out of a possible 100 points was made by the team representing the 1st Picton team scored 91 points.

Col. Ralston's Statement
Col. Ralston's brief statement said:

"In the raid on the Dieppe area the troops of the Canadian Army have at last had a chance in action. As is well known they had been detailed for different tasks on three previous occasions, but were withdrawn in each instance on orders of the high command.

"It is not possible to comment on the press reports and communications issued from the United Kingdom.
