Georgetown United Church Y. P. S.

That the Young People's Society of St. David's United Church, Georgetown, is making excellent progress has been demonstrated by events recently carried on under the auspices of the Society.

On Sunday evening last when the acting pastor was unexpectedly detained in another section of the field, the Y. P. S. on very short notice, arose to the emergency and conducted the evening service in a manner which has received much favorable comment.

On Monday evening, March 7, the church hall, recently fitted up in the old manse by the young men of the Society, was opened to the public and the Y. P. S., assisted by the choir entertained most enjoyably at a concert and social. The proceeds, which were very encouraging, go to provide additional hymnaries for the choir and congregation.

The program which is outlined below was very excellent and reflects much credit on the young people and the friends who assisted them. A delightful social hour followed and delicious refreshments were served by the members of the Society. The congregation is naturally under a handicap due to the absence, through illness of the pastor, Rev. O. U. McNevin. Mr. E. R. McVicar, who has recently arrived from Sydney, N. S., is supplying during Mr. McNevin's absence. Mr. McVicar whose pleasing personality and capable leadership have made a splendid impression, is receiving the hearty co-operation of the congregation in all departments of the work.

The young people particularly appreciate Mr. McVicar's efforts on their behalf and are looking forward with great pleasure to interesting affairs planned for the near future.

Program: O Canada; Remarks by chairman, Mr. E. R. McVicar; chorus by the choir; duet, Miss M. Renton and Mrs. W. Macdonald; Quartette, Pearl Weeks, Nettie Walker, Joseph Johnson and Capt. Wittig; solo, Vivian Macdonald; dialogue, Lillian Walker, Bessie Stewart and Charles Jenkins; Skit (Radio Broadcast), E. R. McVicar and Stewart Lavers; solo, Havelock Stewart; solo, Capt. Wittig; solo, Robert Jenkins; duet, Miss M. Renton and Mrs. A. E. Jenkins. Instrumental music, Robert and Mrs. Jenkins; solo, Capt. Wittig.

JOSEPH CAMPBELL

There passed peacefully away at his home in Westmoreland on the 8th day of Feb., 1933, Mr. Joseph Campbell in the 83rd year of his age.

The late Mr. Campbell was born in Sear's town and enjoyed comparatively good health until a few weeks before he took to his bed, when he rapidly sank until the end came and he calmly and peacefully closed his eyes to earthly scenes. Death had no terror for he was resigned to the will of God; his spirit went forth to God who gave it.

Besides his wife he leaves to mourn two daughters, Mrs. Myrtle Simmons, Miss Georgie Campbell, both of Winthrop, Mass., both of whom came home before their father passed away; also one brother Dr. T. Campbell of Alberton. The service at the house and
