W. C. T. U. NOTES
NO ROOM
They knew not whom they turned away.
That night in Bethlehem,
Or surely all the inn had come,
In haste to welcome them.
Lord, let my heart's gate open be,
I ask, from day to day;
That I may not, by word or deed,
Turn Thy bitter Son away.
MEN PLAN BITTER WAR IN CRADLE OF CHRISTIANITY
(By Robert C. Miller British United Press Staff Correspondent)
BETHLEHEM — In Bethlehem, the cradle of Christianity tonight there is cold moonlight and bitter men are vowing violence and vengeance upon their neighbors.
Christmas Eve comes again to the Holy Land. Once more shepherders are "abiding in fields keeping watch by night over their flocks."
But there is no "multitude of heavenly hosts to proclaim peace on earth, good will toward men."
Instead there is war and bloodshed. There is no Christmas truce between Jew and Arab. Since the partition of the Holy Land was voted by the United Nations the conflict has quickened. I have just filed a dispatch saying that 260 persons have been killed and 604 wounded since the U-N action.
But today I left this strife behind. I walked the winding road from Jerusalem to Bethlehem. This is the highway that Mary and Joseph traveled 1947 years ago. As I left the walled city of Jerusalem and descended into the Valley of Kinnon I met an aged Franciscan Friar. He stood looking at the Jaffa gate and the ancient Roman guard tower.
"Some things" he said, "change but little even in two thousand years."
He had spoken a great truth. There have been outward changes, but the hills and rocks and rivers are here as they were when Mary and Joseph went the five miles from Jerusalem to Bethlehem. The road is macadam now instead of soil and gravel but it still winds through hardy olive trees. Soldiers are still along the road but now they are British troops in green armored cars instead of the legion of Caesar, Augustus.
THE NOVA SCOTIA TEMPERANCE FEDERATION
The annual conference in Halifax with an interested audience at 11 afternoon and evening session, had as speakers Rev. George Little of Toronto, Rev. Oliver Langley, interim Temperance Secretary for the Maritimes, and Prof. E. M. Whidden of Acadia University. Facts worthy of note and much contemplation were from Dr. Little: "You can't have Christian mothers from a generation of drinking school girls." Rev. A. Langley says conditions in Nova Scotia are worse than we think in regard to drinking. Prof. Whidden says: "Teach that it is smarter to be witty and sober, that it is really smarter not to drink." Rev. E. R. McWilliam, during the devotional period, spoke of the open door here in Nova Scotia for temperance workers. One danger we all face is our indifference, our apathy. This is a fight to the finish for the soul of Canada. Rev. George Little referred to the gift of speech, the dignity of speech, how liquor degrades and defies speech. Alcoholic thinking is seldom adult thinking but a return to juvenility. Organizations represented at the Temperance Federation in Halifax were the Y. C. G. T., the Sons of Temperance Divisions, the W.C.T.U. and the Churches of our Province.
FINDINGS OF THE NATIONAL TEMPERANCE AND PROHIBITION COUNCIL
The National Temperance and Prohibition Council, representing many constituent organizations in conference, calls upon all right-thinking men and women and particularly the constituency of the Christian Churches, to arise against
