THERE are so many ways in which poisons may be accidentally taken that a knowledge of their effects and of the proper antidotes, as well as the general treatment to be administered, becomes a matter of too great importance to be neglected. In 'Poisons Remedy,' one of the series of medical handbooks being issued by The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, full directions in each case are given. The book will be sent on request to any who address the Home Office of the Company, New York City.

T. C. JAMES,
Sec'y of Com.

SCHELDON never has the pretty settlement of Hazelbrook been the scene of happier events than on Wednesday afternoon last at four o'clock when Henry Young of Barnscliffe and Lincoln Wood of Mount Herbert led to the altar of the Hazelbrook Baptist Church as their brides two of the most popular young ladies of that congregation, Miss Gertrude McKenzie daughter of Henry McKenzie Esq., Lot 48, and Miss Elvira Wood daughter of William Wood, Esq., of Alexandra Lot 49. In the presence of an audience that filled the church, beautifully decorated with autumn leaves, potted plants and ferns, the ceremonies were performed by Rev. J. C. Spurr and Rev. Richard Ople of Pownal. As the sweet melody of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Miss Winnie Jenkins, flooded the church, the brides charmingly gowned passed up the aisle, Miss McKenzie in a dress of white organdie trimmed with ribbon and lace, leaning on her father's arm, and Miss Wood in cream nun's veiling with pearl trimmings and ribbon, accompanied by her brother, Richard Wood. At the altar they were met by the grooms. The bridesmaids were Miss Beatrice McKenzie who wore pale green dimity with lace and chiffon and Miss Ethel Santour of Charlotte's own whose dress was of pink nun's veiling with black trimmings. The grooms were Harry Twedy and Cecil Wood and the flower girls little Eud Smith and Hattie Belle Jenkins. After the ever beautiful ceremony had been concluded the happy couples retired to the vestry where they received the best wishes of very many friends before leaving for their homes. Among the many beautiful presents were a handsome chair to Miss McKenzie from Hazelbrook Division and chairs from the choir of the church to each of the brides who were veiled members. In the sincere wishes of many friends The Guardian unites.

The marriage took place at the residence of the bride's mother, Long River of Miss Ella Johnstone to George L. Campbell of Park Corner. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives from many sections of the Island by Rev. E. J. Rattee of Malpeque. The bride was given away by her brother Daniel Johnstone and was assisted by Miss Clara Campbell who has recently returned from Boston, and George W. McKay of Clifton supported the groom. The wedding march was beautifully played by Miss Stella Campbell. Very many numerous and elegant presents testified to the high esteem in which the contracting parties were held. Miss Johnstone was one of the most popular members of the choir of Long River Presbyterian Church. To Mr. and Mrs. Campbell The Guardian extends best wishes.

You Will Be All Smiles Again

Forget Your Stomach and You'll Have a Santa Claus Face.

HOW TO DO IT.

If there is one thing more than all others that will give a man a forlorn and friendless appearance and make him morbid and 'cranky' and disagreeable, that thing is dyspepsia. It makes one forget his friends and become morose and irritable. He is so wrapped up in his own misery that he is inconsiderate of every one else. Relieved of this terrible and depressing ailment, he again becomes a good fellow and a man among men.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are beyond question the most effective and popular remedy ever offered to the sufferers of this terrible disease. The thousands and thousands of cures they have brought about and the enormous increase of their sales fully attest the truth of this statement.

They are, above all, a natural remedy. They possess exactly the same properties that the gastric juices and other digestive fluids of the stomach possess, and they actually do the digestive work of the stomach and enable that organ to rest and recuperate and become sound and well. They act in a mild, natural manner and cause no disturbance in the digestive organs. They prevent any fermentation of the food which causes sour stomach. In fact, under their influence the subject forgets that he has a stomach and his resulting cheerfulness presents a great contrast to his former dejection.

Millions of boxes of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold annually and they are but in the dawn of their popularity. Every mail brings letters of thanksgiving from grateful ones who have been cured of this terrible disease. The following is one of hundreds received each week:

Rev. J. R. Hoag of Wymore, Neb., writes: "For six years I have been troubled with dyspepsia. Last fall I became very much alarmed at some symptoms of heart trouble and came to believe there was a sympathetic relation between the two diseases, or rather, that the stomach trouble was the cause of the heart disturbances. I hit upon Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets for a remedy and invested a dollar and a half for three boxes which lasted me three months, and I can eat any kind of food I want and have a good, vigorous appetite. Although I am 77 years old, I now feel perfectly well and without being requested by anyone I make this statement as a compliment to the virtues of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are for sale by all druggists at 50 cts. a box.
