POLICE COURT.—There were no cases before the Police Court yesterday.

COMING EVENT.—Don't miss seeing St and Ruth at the People's Theatre March 20th. 4797

CHURCH OF SCOTLAND Rev. Ewen MacDougall will preach Sabbath 18th at Birch Hill at 10:30; Millview at 2:30; and Kinross at 6:30 p. m.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND.—The Car Ferry steamer arrived in George town from Pictou yesterday at 12:30, the special with mail and passengers reaching this city at 3 o'clock.

UIGG CIRCUIT.—Rev. W. E. Carpenter will preach at Uigg, Sabbath the 18th inst. as follows: Uigg at 11 a. m., Grand View, 3 in the afternoon, and at Eldon in the evening at 7:30 o'clock.

ANOTHER GALLANT ISLANDER GAZETTED.—Sergeant Milton F. Macdonald, son of Mr. Malcolm Macdonald, of Eldon, has been recommended for distinguished conduct and gallant services on the field for which he will receive a decoration. The incident occurred at the battle of Courcellette.

NAME CORRECTED.—In connection with the Motor Car resolution before the City Council, referred to yesterday, Councillor Smith's name was inadvertently given instead of that of Councillor Miller, as voting against the suspension of Rule 29.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE.—The March meeting of the Marshfield Women's Institute at the home of Mrs. Edgar Heartz was particularly enjoyable. The society met in the evening and after the transaction of business was joined by a number of invited friends. Games, interspersed with songs, readings and piano music, passed the pleasant evening. Before singing the National Anthem, The Treasurer was presented with a nice collection for Red Cross work. Miss B. M. Crosby is the Secretary of Women's Institute.

SCHOOL WORK.—The standing of the pupils of Cross Roads for the month of February was as follows: Grade III.—1, Bruce Judson, Grade VI.—1, Leslie Wood; 2, Athol Judson, Grade V.—1, Carr Balderston, Grade IV.—1, Hazel Wood; 2, Emma Smith and Myrtle Farquharson (equal), 3, Forde Judson, Grade III.—1, George Farquharson; 2, Margaret Ferguson; 3, Earl Balderston, Grade II.—1, Erna Lane; 2, Myra Wood, Grade I.—1, Ira Balderston; 2, Roland Wood; 3, Dorothy Stewart. Perfect attendance: Parker Wood, Hazel Wood, Myra Wood, Earl Balderston, Ira Balderston, Ray Balderston.

A PATRIOTIC FAMILY.—Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Wood, of Winnipeg, formerly of Mt. Allison, P. E. I., have the proud distinction of having four of their sons and a son in law, Mr. J. McKenzie, serving their King and Country. Their eldest son, C. Warren went over with the Cameron Highlanders on the opening of the war and word was received only last week that he had been wounded. Another son, Chester E., is an instructor, attached to the Headquarters Staff, in Shorncliffe, while W. C., a sergeant major and Barret, are now in France, the former throwing up his stripes and the latter refusing same, that they might go over to France. One of the four boys, three of whom were born in P. E. Island, appears in the western papers as a sample of true patriotism.

we have been using MINARD'S LINIMENT in our home for a number of years and use no other Liniment but MINARD'S, and we can recommend it highly for sprains, bruises, pains, or tightness of the chest, soreness of the throat, headache or anything of that sort. We will not be without it one single day, for we get a new bottle before the other is all used. I can recommend it highly to anyone. JOHN WALKFIELD. LaHave Islands, Lunenburg, Co., N. S.

IN MEMORIAM

MR. HORATIO B. WEBSTER.

There passed to his eternal rest at Morell, Feb. 23rd, 1917, Horatio B. Webster, aged eighty-six years and ten months. He leaves one son Louis and one daughter Mrs. M. A. Morris of Nevada, U. S. A., who was constantly caring for him for nine years. His wife predeceased him by nine years. He was a man who was always at God's House on the Sabbath when able to go. He leaves one brother, Albert Webster of Morell. A large number of friends followed the remains on Monday, Feb. 26th to their last resting place at Midgell Cemetery. The pall bearers were Patrick Hughes, George A. Hooper, Henry Coffin, Bowley, Webster, Oliver Webster and James H. Robins.

RONALD MACISAAC.

There passed away at Rock Bars recently one of the best known and respected citizens of that place in the person of Ronald MacIsaac at the age of 74 years. As the deceased had been ailing for some time, borne with a spirit of Christian Resignation, the end was not wholly unexpected, but fortified by the Holy Rites of the Church administered by his pastor, Rev. Bernard Gillis he calmly passed into the great beyond on February 17th. He leaves to mourn a sorrowing wife and three sons, John in Halifax; Albert in Regina, Sask.; and Donald at home. Also two sisters and a brother, Mrs. Joseph Macdonald St. Margarets; Lizzie, Roxbury, Mass and Joseph at Rock Barra. The funeral to St. Columba Church was largely attended, testifying to the great esteem in which the deceased was held by his wide circle of friends and acquaintances.

MRS. EDWARD CLOHOSEY.

There passed peacefully away at her home in Skinner's Pond on February 17th, Mrs. Edward Clohosey nee Mary Ann Callaghan, daughter of the late William Callaghan of Miminigash at the early age of 47 years. Deceased had been apparently in her usual evident that life in the grave had not modified the political proclivities of the dead. The celebrated Wesley ghost, which for two months haunted the rectory at Epworth, and made life so interesting and sensational for the members of that unique family, was a pronounced Jacobite like Mrs. Wesley herself. When Mr. Wesley prayed for King George the First the ghost manifested its disapproval in a most noisy and irreverent way. Mrs. Wesley's disapproval never went beyond refusing to say "Amen" to these petitions, the old Anti-Confederate ghost ever attended family prayers we may be sure that it would snort out its disapproval of any blessing upon the Canadian Confederation.

health until about eight days before her death, she took what they supposed to be La grippe. The doctor was summoned but was unable to save her. Her death was a great shock to her family. She was attended at her last moments by her pastor Rev. A. J. McDougall who administered to her the last sacraments of the Roman Catholic Church of which she was a devout member.

She was faithful in the discharge of all her duties and left a beautiful example to her family and all who came in contact with her. She will be sadly missed in the home. She leaves to mourn a sorrowing husband and six children. William, Howard, Ethel, Edna, Alfred and Bertrand, besides four step-children. Joseph in Rumford, Maine; James fighting for King and country in the trenches in France; Anna in Lowell, Mass. and Sister Mary Edward of Fall River, Mass.; also a loving mother, four brothers, William P. St. Louis, John Elmsdale, James and Peter in Miminigash, two sisters, Mrs. Merritt Roberts, New York; and Mrs. James Sheu, Waterford. The funeral was held on the 13th inst. at 10 o'clock in the parish. The service was conducted by Rev. P. C. Gauthier of Palmer Road. May her soul rest in peace.

ERASMUS F. COFFIN.

The death occurred at St. Peter's Harbor on March 4th, of Erasmus F. Coffin, after a lingering illness in the seventy-seventh year of his age. Deceased was well known in the eastern part of the province and was a man deeply interested and well informed in the great questions of the day. He was an elder of the Presbyterian congregation of Mount Stewart, and West St. Peter's for nearly thirty years, being ordained to that office on March 25th, 1888. The funeral services were held on Thursday afternoon by Rev. R. P. Murray, assisted by Rev. J. M. McLeod; when the remains were laid away in West St. Peter's Cemetery. A large company gathered to pay tribute to an old and honored citizen. A widow, four sons and two daughters are left to mourn their loss. Of the sons, two are medical doctors, Wesley, at Bathurst, N. B.; and Vernon, now with the king's forces in Mesopotamia; Russell, in United States and Leigh at home.
