I want your orders for cornmeal, bran, cracked wheat, cracked feed and shorts. I can sell you any of these feed cheaper than other dealers.

Send in your orders at once to secure your stock at the low price to Summerside Roller Mills. G. W. Robinson, Summerside. 7-30dtf.

The question is often asked me: How can you sell White Rose flour, which you claim is equal to Royal Household or Five Roses, at a much lower price than those brands. My answer is: I save you the difference in the freight, the dealers profit, and the lower cost of manufacture.

The people who are constant users of White Rose flour will substantiate my claim; all orders either by mail or telephone promptly filled. Summerside Roller Mills. G. W. Robinson, Summerside. 7-30dtf.

St. John's Church, St. Eleanor's, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday the 29th, when Miss Daisy F. Mills, daughter of Hubert Mills, St. Eleanor's, and William H. Rogers were united in the Holy bonds of Matrimony by Rev. F. M. Webster.

The bride was dressed in a pretty costume of cream taffeta cashmere and wore a veil very prettily arranged with orange blossoms. She was attended by her cousin Miss Edna G. Tanton who was attired in delicate pale blue and white batiste.

The groom was unbrided and the groom presented the bride and bridesmaid with handsome gold bracelets.

Among those present at the ceremony were John and Mrs. Rogers and their daughters Misses Bertha and Della of West Somerville, Mass. Miss Mabel Williams of Spokane, Wash. Miss Euna Rogers of Wellfleet, Mass. Miss Beatrice Sullivan, Coleman and Mrs. Philip Williams, Ellerslie.

After the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride. The happy couple then left by the Express for Vancouver where they will reside in future. They will visit the principal cities en route. The bride was one of St. Eleanor's most popular young ladies and as was testified by the number of useful and costly presents she received. There are many friends wish them a long, happy and prosperous journey through life. Congratulations.
