The anxious reputation of former entertainments held at the residence of Henry Tanner, Charwood, was well upheld by the leap year dance given there recently by the young people of St. Catherine's, Little Harbor and Greenville. About forty participated. Far on towards the "wee sma' hours" the company tripped the light fantastic to the strains of the violin in master hands, while social converse, speech and song all contributed to such an evening of pleasure as is seldom the privilege to enjoy. Among those present were Frank Williams and Gerald Hennessey and the Misses Hennessey, Ambrose and Mrs. Malone. Hector and Mrs. McPhee and Miss McPhee, Miss McNeill Joseph and Miss Mooney, Mr. and Mrs. Miller and a number of others.

MURDER TRIAL IN BOSTON.
BOSTON, Jan. 26—Will De Graf cook of the barge Glendower pleaded "not guilty" in the U. S. District Court yesterday to an indictment charging him with murder on the

The indictment was drawn in Court and the charges was that De Graf, without fear of God in his heart, and moved and instigated by the devil, did kill and murder Wyman against the Peace of God and of the United States. February fifth was set as the date for the trial and counsel was assigned to defend the prisoner.
