CONCERN ABOUT N. F. TREATY.

MONTREAL, Nov. 13.—(Special)—The ultimate effect upon Canadian trade, of the reciprocity treaty between Newfoundland and the United States, should it soon receive the ratification of the United States Senate, is troubling Canadian merchants a good deal at present.

LARGE TRADE TO BE AFFECTED.

Canadian trade with Newfoundland in flour, butter, cattle, cheese, etc., is no inconsiderable item and there appears a general idea among the Montreal merchants interested that the treaty is likely to be detrimental to Canadian interests.

Some, however, take a different view, and have little fear of ill results.

FLAMES IN MID-AIR DAZZLE NEW YORK.

A Heavy Damage is Inflicted on the Unfinished East River Bridge—Two Montreal Workmen Were in Great Peril During the Conflagration.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—The new East River bridge, in process of construction between New York and Brooklyn, was damaged to the amount of at least half a million dollars last night by a fire that for four hours raged 355 feet in the air on the summit of the great steel tower on the New York side.

Owing to the enormous height of the tower it was utterly impossible to reach the fire with my apparatus in the fire department, and the flames, after devouring all the wood work on the top of the tower, seized on the timber false work of the two foot bridges suspended from the main cables, burning away the supports until nearly a million feet of blazing lumber fell with a mighty splash and hiss into the stream. The fall of the foot bridge carried away scores of the lighter cables and guys, which trailed in the water, rendering it necessary for the police to stop all traffic up and down the river.

The fire was the most spectacular conflagration that has ever been seen in New York, the great body of flames being visible all over the city, and lighting up the river and shores for miles up and down the stream.

The fire started in a tool shed, in which there were several forges used for heating rivets and from this spread to the great timber frame work, where many casks of oil and tar and other inflammable material were located.

MONTREAL MEN IN DANGER.

Daniel Brophy and his brother John of Montreal; A. P. McBride and an unknown man were reported to have been at work on the tower when the fire started. While they were helping the firemen to haul up the hose, the frame work on which they stood collapsed. McBride saved himself by catching a piece of projecting steel work, and the others fell to a lower platform. It was at first thought they were killed, but they are not seriously hurt.

When the fire was at its height a party of firemen were cut off at the base of the tower, where they were exposed to a torrent of brands and red hot pieces of steel. They were rescued after several had been severely burned. Brands from the tower set fire to the big store house of the Pennsylvania Steel Company, on the level of the main roadway of the bridge, 125 feet above the water. The store house was consumed and its contents of nuts, bolts, rivets and tools were hurled into the river, together with two hoisting decks on the platform. It was 11 o'clock before the flames had devoured everything combustible, leaving only the steel tower and the four great 18 1/2 inch steel cables stretching across the river.

These cables were recently completed, save for the steel sheathing, and it is feared that they have been badly damaged by the intense heat. Should it be necessary to replace them, the labor of two years would be brought to naught.

HEAVY LOSS.

Chief Engineer Martin, in charge of the bridge construction, said late last night that of the four steel saddles, weighing 34 tons, on top of the tower, they were red hot but were undamaged. Of the four cables resting on the saddles two, he found, would have to be partially replaced by splicing. This will involve a delay of at least four months. The remaining cables suffered little injury. The two foot bridges cost $200,000. The cables cost $1,225,000, and the loss on them will fall on the contractors, John A. Roebling & Sons, Company. Mr. Martin said that there was no danger of the falling of the tower or the cables.

Rev. J. A. McCallen's Lecture.

On the occasion of a lecture delivered before a large and appreciative audience in Windsor Hall, Montreal, in honor of the Father Matthew anniversary, Rev. J. A. McCallen, S.S. of St. Patrick's Church, and President of St. Patrick's Total Abstinence Society, paid the following grand tribute to the value of Mr. Dixon's new discovery for the cure of alcohol and drug habits.

Referring to the physical crave engendered by the inordinate use of intoxicants, he said:—"When such a crave manifests itself there is no escape unless by a miracle of grace, or by some remedy as Mr. Dixon's cure, about which the papers have spoken so much lately, and if I am to judge of the value of the Dixon remedy by the cures which it has effected under my own eyes, I must come to the conclusion that what I have longed for twenty years to see discovered has at last been found by that gentleman."

Full particulars regarding this medicine can be obtained by writing to Mr. Dixon, No. 81 Willocks Street, Toronto, Canada.

THE LAST GAME OF THE SERIES AGAIN RESULTS IN A DRAW

For the Third Time This Season Neither St. Dunstan's Nor the Abegweits is Able to Make a Score. The Game is Fought on a Snow Covered Battlefield.

The final game in the Football League Series was played yesterday on the C. A. A. grounds, and resulted again in a drawn battle—the third such unsatisfactory ending this season. The conditions under which the contest was conducted were somewhat unique, some three or four inches of snow covering the field, and rendering good football impossible. Despite this drawback a good game was witnessed by a fair number of spectators. The ball was set in motion in the first half by the Abegweits, who kicked to the western goal. The play centred at mid-field for some minutes but College, by excellent forward work gradually worked the ball to Abbies' ten yard line. By sharp work the latter team forced their opponents, and good dribbling and splendid half line tactics carried the sphere to the College 10-yard line. Here they lost a grand chance to score and half time saw play near centre.

won last year and as no special arrangement was made for a play-off they still retain it.

The spectators generally would like to have seen the game played to a finish, and although he had no authority to rule in the matter, referee Barlow expressed his opinion that from a sporting standpoint the game should have been decided by a further period of play.

Lightner and McEaubern were towers of strength to the Abegweits.

Sullivan at full back excelled himself and won the admiration of friends and foes.

The Abbies wore socks over their boots for better foothold—some suggested snow-shoes.

Gillis was the Collegians' star, and when he got the ball he invariably gained ground.

The Saints' "scrim" are adepts at heeling the ball from the scrimmage. In this they excelled their opponents.

The three best contested games seen in the Province of late years and each a draw—such is the record of the season.

St. Dunstan's hold an enviable record—during the past two years they have played seven games and have never been scored against.

The work of the Abegweits halves in passing, kicking and tackling has never been excelled. The McMillan Bros, Trainor and McQuillan are a formidable quartet.

The second half the Abegweits were aggressive, and had the ball in College territory for the greater part of the period. Twice were they almost over, but they were destined not to score. Once did the Saints carry the sphere into Abbie territory but the superior dribbling of the Citizens again brought the scene of conflict to College territory. The call of time found the ball hovering at the Collegians' goal line.

The Abegweits, who were disinclined to have the series end with neither team winners, requested the Collegians to play off until a score should be made by one team or the other. To this request the College men refused to accede, and the series of 1902 is thus concluded with the teams in a similar position as to merit.
