STREET DECORATIONS, YOKOHOMA.

The Japanese are naturally much elated over their victories during the early part of the war, and in no wise has this found more picturesque expression than in the street decorations in Japanese cities, such as are shown in this view of Yokohama.

ODDFELLOWS ATTEND CHURCH

And Listen to an Eloquent Sermon by Bro. Rev. G. R. White—A Very Creditable Turnout.

The Oddfellows of St. Lawrence and Willey Lodges yesterday morning attended divine service in the Baptist church. The day was beautifully fine, and a very large number of the members joined in the procession which was one of the finest in the history of the order.

and many favorable expressions were heard on the splendid appearance of the parade.

The sermon for the occasion was preached by Bro. Rev. G. R. White, who took for his text 1 Kings, 2:2. After extending to the order a very cordial welcome to the service, and referring to the grand work of the I. O. F., he spoke on his morning theme, "Manliness."

In a thoughtful and able sermon Mr. White referred to three of its elements—Strength, Courage and Faith.

The choir rendered good music which was under the direction of Miss Amy Earle. Rev. J. Harry King assisted Mr. White in the service.

The procession was headed by the 4th Regt. Band and was marshalled by Major Weeks.

THE SALOON OR NO SALOON

Rev. R. W. Stevenson in Central Christian Church

A Forceful Arraignment of the Drink Evil and the Bar, Based on Isaiah 5:20-23 and Habakkuk 2:15.

The Central Christian Church was filled to the doors last evening, prominent temperance workers from other churches being present. Rev. Mr. Stevenson spoke with great earnestness and energy, as follows:

The saloon or no saloon, that is the question. It is one of prime importance at the present time and commanded the attention of the prophets Isaiah and Habakkuk in their day.

The woes in the text are pronounced against the liquor traffic. This evil has more woes pronounced against it than any other one sin mentioned in the Bible. "Woe unto them that are mighty to drink wine; woe to the men of strength that mingle strong drink, and put the bottle to their neighbor's lips." Leading men of every age in the world of thought have written against it. Shakespeare cries out, "Oh that men should put an enemy into their mouths to steal away their brains and transform them into beasts."

Lord Chesterfield in a speech on "The Gin Act, delivered in the House of Lords on Feb. 21st, 1743, tells us that "luxury may be taxed but vice prohibited." He assures them that "it would be as consistent to lay a tax upon a breach of the ten commandments as upon the liquor traffic. The tendency of the Act at that time would only result in the propagation

RUSSIAN REPORT OF JAP LOSSES

Rumor that Seven Thousand were Killed is Discredited—Crossing of Yalu may not be Opposed—Togo Before Port Arthur Again—Russian Loan in Prospect—Japanese Spies.

RUMOR OF JAPANESE DEFEAT.

LONDON, April 23—(Special)—From Russian sources comes a rumor that the Japanese sustained heavy loss while attempting a landing near the mouth of the Yalu River.

THE STORY DISCREDITED.

According to the report the Japanese lost 7,000 men. The story is discredited, but no official news is obtainable.

ANOTHER RUSSIAN REPORT.

Other Russian reports say Russia will not strongly oppose the Japanese crossing the Yalu, as they desire the Japs to have that river behind them before the first big battle takes place.

TOGO AGAIN IN SIGHT.

The Japanese fleet is again reported off Port Arthur.

RUSSIA WANTS A BIG LOAN.

Russia is preparing to ask European bankers for a hundred million dollar loan.

JAPANESE SPIES ACTIVE.

Many Japanese spies are said to be in European countries, particularly in France, endeavoring to learn of Russian movements, particularly as to the departure of the Baltic fleet and its coaling stations.

of disease, the suppression of industry and the destruction of mankind.

Is the liquor traffic any more respectable today than in 1743? By no means. I am what I am on this question because I read my Bible, because I understand where a Christian man should be on the question in order to be safe. Whether the standard I have taken on this question is popular or not does not concern me, but I know I am right.

Here are to be found the very best men and women in the community. Were our Lord Jesus Christ and His disciples still on earth I feel sure, they would be found opposing the saloon. I am sorry to say there are those who lay claim to be the successors of the apostles who are not where Christ would surely be. Here are the sober men of the community; here the intelligent, here the men who pay 100 cents to the dollar; here are the men who give time, money and influence to secure good Government; here are the men and women who are interested in the boys and girls of the community; here are the people who are anxious to have an honest ballot box and pure politics and here are the men and women who are anxious for the welfare of our city.

Shall we have the saloon? I am not here to discuss the essential use of spirituous liquors. That feature of the question I am incapable of discussing. That must be left for medical science. My subject is left for a remedy for drunkenness. The large majority of people deprecate drunkenness. A man who takes a glass told me a few days ago that "the man who gets drunk is no man." The consensus of all right thinking men is that "drunkenness must be suppressed." How shall this be accomplished? Is the licensed saloon the solution of this problem? Has the saloon ever been without its drunkards? If so, at what time and where? The saloon does not in the least restrain drunkenness, but on the other hand fosters and increases the evil.

What is the character and history of the saloon? It is an institution where beer, wines and all kinds of spirits may be sold under the protection of the law. A place where liquor is sold for the money there is in it and not for the public good.

Is the saloon a law abiding institution? Is there any person who will claim such a character for it? Has anyone ever known it to be such? If the law forbids the sale of liquor to minors, does the saloon

FRESH PROOF EVERY DAY.

That if the Disease is of the Kidneys,

Dodd's Kidney Pills will Cure it.

KENLIS, N. W. T., April 25—(Special)—

Out here on the prairies every day brings forth fresh proof that if the disease is of the Kidneys or from the Kidneys Dodd's Kidney Pills will cure it. Thos. L. Hobbs, a well known Indian Head farmer, says: "About a year ago I was thrown from a wagon, causing a strain on my Kidneys. I tried several remedies but could get no relief until I tried Dodd's Kidney Pills. One box cured me completely. My wife also used Dodd's Kidney Pills and got great benefit from them."

Dodd's Kidney Pills make healthy Kidneys. Healthy Kidneys make pure blood. Pure blood makes good health. That is why Dodd's Kidney Pills are the greatest tonic of the age.
