You'll Want a Pair of Those Hockey Boots

Just as soon as we laid our eyes on these hockey boots we knew we struck something out of the ordinary—we knew people who appreciated distinctiveness and "class" would have no others—and we bought heavy. All we want is for you to see them—try them on—it's then you'll notice their strong graceful lines, the doubly reinforced comfortable supported ankles and instep.

Get a pair right now and be prepared for the first skating—don't wait. Wouldn't a pair make a good Xmas gift?

THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown

It pays to buy in this Province.

Rev. Geo. Millar, Alberton, will preach in Zion Church tomorrow morning and evening.

J. M. Jenkins, Mt. Herbert, spent a week at Murray River recently visiting friends and relatives.

Charles C. Ellis, Donaldson, sold his handsome grey gelding for a large sum to E. McCabe, city.

All interested in The Guardian contest should read the "Our article and standing of candidates on page 14.

The steamer Cabot with Reserve Run of Mine, steamer Kilkel with Inverness Round and the schooner Kalavale with Reserve Run of Mine cal arrived yesterday for A. Pickard & Co.

A meeting of the Northern Institute will be held at Mayfield Hall on Monday, the 28th, at 7 p.m. A delegate will be nominated to receive a scholarship to attend the short course at Truro.

The beautifully decorated windows of Alley & Co. drew the attention of all passers-by yesterday. The window was tastefully trimmed and exhibited those articles of interest to all athletes—hockey and skating boots. The showing was large and varied and on the whole satisfactory.

The special evangelistic services in the Central Christian Church will close tomorrow evening. Rev. J. F. Floyd will take for his subject, "How a prominent jailer and his family become Christians." The ordinance of baptism will be administered at the close of the service. There will be no meeting tonight.

I. Goodman Co., Fulton Market, New York, have been doing business at that market for the past sixteen years and are now experts at handling consignments of smelts and eels. They have a large trade and can handle quantities of fish from this Province for which they will pay highest prices and make prompt returns. A trial order will prove satisfactory to Provincial shippers.

Miss Francis Beal entertained very informally last evening at the home of Mrs. F. L. Thompson, on Highfield street, in honor of Miss Lillian Collings, of Charlottetown, who has been Miss Beal's guest for the past few weeks. Whist was played the first part of the evening, after which a dainty supper was served. Dancing was then indulged in, Miss Collings leaving the first of the week for her home—Moncton Transcript.

On another page will be found an important advertisement regarding poultry of all kinds, butter, hogs, etc. P. J. Holman & Co., the well known poultry dealers, are prepared to handle large quantities of turkeys, geese, ducks and chickens each week, and a very large amount for Xmas trade. They also require No. 9 Separator butter in tubs. This firm is constantly endeavoring to find markets for all lines which the farmer has to sell and are deserving of a goodly share of patronage.

Besides being a good judge of a horse the P. E. Islanders have a knack of their own in pulling all there is out of a bushel of potatoes. Vessels from the "Garden" now at the wharves with produce might have been on their return journey laden several days ago, had the owners of the cargoes dropped the prices of the different articles just a little. Might as well try to slide an elephant up a Pictou hill as to get an Islander to sell a bushel of potatoes here less than 55 cents. He will lose an hour demonstrating the poor crop, the great trouble in bringing tubers here—a thousand and one excuses. But while all this "hard times" talk is going on his brother dealers are selling their spuds from the vessel in Pictou at 42 and 45 cents the bushel, and tubs at 25 cents.—North Sydney Herald.

The doctor's advice—After diagnosing a case and giving a prescription the doctor's skill, without your medicines are fresh and pure, is futile. When you get your prescription dispensed at the Central Drugstore it is a guarantee that you get just what the doctor ordered, and of the very best quality. E. A. Foster, Central Drugstore, Sunnyside.

Land and Road Tax for 1910 may be paid at the Provincial Treasury, Charlottetown, up to the 30th November, instant, but not after that date, except for the Royalty of Charlottetown for which no Collector is appointed. Collectors will continue to receive taxes at their places of residence or offices respectively thereafter they proceed to demand and collect the taxes remaining unpaid. Unless the amount is then received by the Collectors they must leave a notice demanding payment within fourteen days. Executions are issued immediately after the expiration of the fourteen days. No taxes are allowed to become in arrears as formerly. 11-21dtf.

WAS CRIPPEN TRYING TO COMMIT SUICIDE

fitful slumber. He seemed to lose all fortitude as the end approached. A breakfast was brought into him, but he left it untouched.

His mental anguish had been too great to be concealed by outward bravado, and it was a broken man whom the wardens were obliged to assist up the steps to the drop, which, once reached the shrinking figure all but collapsed.

His face was colorless as he was escorted bareheaded to the gallows. The gruesome work was soon done. The black cap was quickly drawn over the face, the noose adjusted and the bolt drawn. Crispin, who weighed 140 pounds was given a drop of seven feet. Death was instantaneous.

From the time that his reprieve was refused his condition had been one of agonized prostration. He would see only Clara Ethel LeNeve, the love for whom Crispin asserted was the compelling motive for the murder of his wife.

The final interview with Miss LeNeve was most painful and already the murderer made no effort to suppress his emotions upon parting with the girl. During the remainder of the day he was in a state of complete nervous collapse, retiring to his bed utterly despondent.

The streets in the neighborhood of the prison were well filled by the time the hanging occurred, although the fog was so dense that the outlines of the prison buildings could barely be seen from the street's front. There was a strong police guard on hand, which kept the crowd from approaching closely to the buildings.

So eager were the authorities to avoid publicity that the usual batch of prisoners whose time had expired, were excused an hour before the usual time, thus clearing the street and office of all outsiders. The hoisting of a grim black flag, which was seen as it shot to its place, through a rift in the fog, announced to the crowd in the streets, that Dr. Crispin was dead.

Some time after the crowd had disappeared a notice was posted on the prison gates announcing that "Judgment of death has this day been executed on H. H. Crispin" in the presence of the governor of the prison, the under sheriff and Father Carey. The physician's certificate of death was also displayed.

Following the execution the inquest required by law was held, the jury returning a verdict to the effect that the sentence of the law had been duly carried out. The proceedings were held in the prison, Dr. Wilson, an official witness of the hanging testified that death was caused by a fracture of vertebrae. There was no resistance or struggle on the part of the condemned man, and the whole proceedings from the entrance to the cell by the executioner until the trap was sprung occupied only sixty seconds. Death was instantaneous, the physician said.

The foreman of the jury inquired of the coroner if he might ask whether any confession had been made and received the reply:—"No, that does not concern you."

LONDON, Nov. 24.—Now that Dr. Crispin's lips are forever sealed, the usual postmortem rumors of an eleventh hour confession are afloat. These should be read in knowledge that on Sunday last the condemned man issued a signed statement, in which he protested his perfect innocence, and that since that day as for several days before, he had positively refused to see anyone other than his keepers, Solicitor Newton, Miss LeNeve and Father Carey.

Accordingly to the testimony of only these persons would appear to be of great moment in throwing light on the condemned man's last hours.

The City of Ghent is due in this port early this morning.

Miss Sadie B. Craig, a very talented pupil of Mr. Earle's, and Miss Lizzie Craig of Middleton, a former student of the same, arrived in the city yesterday to continue their studies for the winter months with him in voice and piano.

The following were the changes in yesterday's market prices:—Pork per lb., six and one-quarter to seven and one-half cents; eggs per dozen, twenty-four to thirty cents; geese and ducks per lb., eleven cents; turkeys per lb., 8 to 9 cents, and chickens per lb., 9 to 10 cents.

Tomorrow evening in the Baptist Church Rev. Z. L. Fash, M. A., B. D., will give the second sermon in the popular series on "Faces." The subject last Sunday evening was "The Face of a Man," and it attracted much attention. The subject for tomorrow evening will be "The Face of a Lion." The subject of the morning sermon will be "Our Peace."

Frank R. Neal & Co. 20 T. Wharf, Boston, make a specialty of smelts, eels and herring, for which they have a steady demand, as will be seen by their adv. in this issue. Provincial shippers who want to find a quick market for their consignments would do well to correspond with the firm as they will secure for them a first-class market and send in daily returns. Now that the cold weather is advancing shippers should secure their market in advance and save future delays.

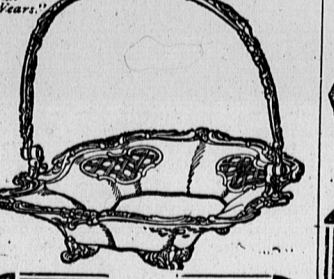

There passed away at St. John, N. B., on Monday, Nov. 20, Florence, beloved wife of Walter Alexander of Hammondville, sister-in-law to Mrs. George Orman, Vernon River, after months of suffering bravely and patiently borne. Everything that money, skill and affection could devise was done for her, but in vain. She was only thirty-six years old and leaves a sorrowing husband and four young children, ranging from nine years to one year. She was a good Christian woman, fully prepared and anxious to be at rest.

The marriage took place at the home of Silas R. and Mrs. Prowse, Brackley, on Nov. 23rd, of Miss Marie Eliza Prowse to James Gordon Mutch of Hillsboro. The bride was very becomingly gowned in a dress of grey silk with white lace trimmings. She was the recipient of many valuable and useful presents, among them a fine organ from her father and a gold watch from the bridegroom. The parlor was prettily decorated for the occasion with flowers and ferns and Mrs. Bruce McMillan played the wedding march. Rev. E. Bell performed the ceremony in the presence of many relatives of bride and groom who were in attendance. After the ceremony a sumptuous repast was served, which was much enjoyed by those present.

HE FOUND THEM NO FAITH CURE

But Dodd's Kidney Pills Cleaned out W. F. Black's Sciatica

He was in Agony When a Friend Gave Him a Box. Now He Recommends Them to Everybody.

Newcastle, N. B., Nov. 25 (Special)—In these cold fall days when the chill winds crystallize the uric acid in the blood and cause the pangs of Rheumatism and Sciatica to bring sleepless nights to many a home, a man's best friend is he who can tell his neighbor of a sure cure for his tortures. Such a friend is Wm. F. Black of this place. He suffered from Sciatica and lame back. He was so bad that he could not lace his boots or turn in bed. Dodd's Kidney Pills cured him and he wants all his neighbors to know of the cure.

"Yes," Mr. Black says, in an interview, "I was so bad with Sciatica and Lame Back that I couldn't lace my shoes or turn in bed when a friend gave me about a third of a box of Dodd's Kidney Pills. I started taking them without much faith in their curative powers, and found them all they were recommended."

"Now I am recommending Dodd's Kidney Pills to all sufferers from Kidney Disease."

Dodd's Kidney Pills are no faith cure. They're a simple but sure cure for diseased kidneys.

You Should Try a Can of Delicious Island Salmon

Many prefer the daintily preserved Island salmon to the imported kinds, and we wouldn't wonder. Island canned salmon is delicious, sweet and appetizing—the meat is solid, substantial and nourishing.

Then you know salmon that are canned right here don't have the churning effect of a long railroad haul like the British Columbia products. Just try it once— you'll be delighted.
