CHAMBERLAIN SENDS MESSAGE

To the Canadian People Saying Tariff Reform Must Win and Movement was Never Fuller of Promise Than it is at Present Moment.

LONDON, May 17—(Special)—By F. R. Hosmer who sails tomorrow, Mr. Chamberlain sends the following message to the Canadian people: "Don't for one moment suppose that I or those with me have abated one jot of our enthusiasm for, and our determination to carry imperial and fiscal reform."

"At the moment a big majority stands against us in Parliament, but that majority was only made possible by divergent causes and interests that cannot be reunited and held together. My battle-cry is Tariff Reform and the movement was never fuller of promise than now."

TORONTO NEWS ON THE ARCTIC

TORONTO, May 16.—The News says editorially this evening: "Sir Wilfrid Laurier does well to appoint a special parliamentary committee to inquire into charges of extravagance in provisioning the ship Arctic. The contents of the steward's cupboard were extensive. Indeed, some members of the opposition calculated that goods charged for could not have been placed aboard the ship without swamping her. Articles for amusement included 17 dozen packs of cards and 10 checker boards the latter at $5.00 each. It seems a pity that the department of marine and fisheries did not engage a dramatic stock company to produce some standard plays during the voyage. In this way, perhaps, a couple of checker boards might not have been necessary."

BIGGER THAN THE DREADNAUGHT

WASHINGTON, May 16.—Shall the U. S. have a battleship the peer, if not superior of any battleship in the world, was the question which presented itself to the house today when the further consideration of naval appropriations was resumed. The first paragraph under "increases of the navy" provides for an appropriation of $6,000,000 for a battleship to be superior to the Dreadnaught under construction for the British navy, exclusive of armament and armour. The fight against this provision was precipitated by Mr. Burton of Ohio, who moved to strike out the paragraph. Mr. William (Miss), the minority leader, satirically suggested an amendment, that in view of the British having decided to name their sea monster the Dreadnaught the American sea monster be named Skeered o'Nothin', as being typical of the national spirit; that on its completion the captain in command be authorized to challenge the Dreadnaught to a duel (to the death) and that the president and his cabinet, with the exception of the secretary of agriculture, who is a non-combatant, be invited to places on the quarterdeck as evidence of the strenuous life, the sea fight to take place off Newport.

MINERS HAD VERY NARROW ESCAPE

GLACE BAY, May 16.—A nearly fatal accident occurred at No. 2 colliery today. Five men were coming up in the man cage when the engineer in charge of the hoisting engine by an overwind let the cage go up to the pulleys 150 feet. It tumbled over the men grasping the ropes, and two were injured slightly. With a full cage, as often occurs, some of the men would undoubtedly have been thrown out for rope to cling to, and would have fallen 1,000 feet to the bottom of the shaft.

VACCINATED EYE WHILE AT WORK

LONDON, Eng. May 16.—By a simple misadventure, the first of its kind ever recorded in this country, a doctor practicing in a town near Manchester has become the victim of a peculiar and painful inoculation. While breaking a tiny phial containing lymph for the purpose of vaccinating an infant, a particle of the glass flew up and struck him on the pupil of the eye, and adhering to the glass fragment was an almost microscopic quantity of calf's lymph. The doctor realized the danger of vaccination to which he was exposed, and immediately bathed his eye. So tender, however, is the skin of the eye that the glass made a minute scratch. A day or so afterward the usual symptoms which follow inoculation gradually appeared.

The pain and discomfort which ordinarily arise from the operation in this instance are acutely aggravated, and is going through exactly the same process as if he had been vaccinated on the arm. He cannot sleep, and in consequence the eye is never at rest, but it is not considered likely that the sight of the unfortunate doctor will be impaired.

FATAL RESULT OF DEADLY FEUD

Two Men Quarrel About a Girl, Fight and Both Drown.

FORT WILLIAM, May 17.—(Special)—As the result of a feud, two men, Isadore Bouchard and W. A. Armstrong are dead in Helen Lake, north shore of Lake Superior. Some weeks ago they had a quarrel over a girl and have been sworn enemies since. Tuesday last they set out together in a canoe and when half a mile from shore they engaged in a deadly hand to hand fight. The canoe was overturned but they clambered on the bottom and fought tooth and nail for nearly half an hour when one sank and a minute later the other toppled from the canoe and disappeared.

MODERN "BABES IN THE WOOD"

SACKVILLE, N. B. May 16.—For three days and three nights the woods in the vicinity of Peacock settlement, the parish of Botsford, have been searched for Ralph and Ollie, the little children of John Creamery, but so far without result. The little ones were last seen at Sunday night, but though the alarm was given shortly after their disappearance no trace of them has so far been discovered. From fifty to seventy-five men and boys have joined in the search. Creeks and ponds have been dragged for their bodies but still the mystery remains unsolved. The whole country round about Bayfield is greatly excited over the sad affair and all hopes of a safe discovery of the children have been abandoned. The parents of the children are almost frantic with grief, and the case is exceptionally sad.

PROPHETS PREDICT END THE WORLD

LONDON, May 16.—Terrible predictions concerning what will happen to the poor old earth during the next twenty-five years were made the other day at Exeter Hall. The prophets of disaster, a large number of whom were clergymen, were in attendance at "the prophetic and second advent conference."

While they differed somewhat in details all agreed that the end of the world was at hand. They were not quite sure whether the final catastrophe will come on May 2, 1920, or April 9, 1931, but they were quite sure that one of these dates will prove to be the right one. There can be no doubt that the world has nearly outlived its usefulness, the prophets declared. The wars and earthquakes which have afflicted it recently are proof positive and all that is required to fulfill these prophecies is the coming of an antichrist, who is somewhat unkindly identified with Napoleon.

He will make his first political appearance as the King of Syria, but in 1922 he will attack and conquer France. Then he will extend his rule over the other kingdoms. There will be 10,000,000 christians in the world at this time the prophets declare, but evidently they will not all be equally deserving of favor, for in 1924 or Heaven while the other 9,999,000 will be transported to the desert near Mount Sinai, where they will have to wait three and a half years. Members of the British Parliament of that time are evidently to be a lot of terrible sinners, for only a very few will be found worthy of immediate translation. The Rev. M. Baxter declared that the great majority of members of Parliament would be left behind.

ST. JOHN, May 17—(Special)—Three new cases of typhoid fever were reported this morning. This makes a total of twenty-one cases. The Board are very anxious that the real source of the disease should be discovered.

RUSSIAN DUMA PASSES ADDRESS

ST. PETERSBURG, May 17—(Special)—The address in reply was adopted by the Duma today substantially as presented. The debate ended sensationally by discussion on the motion to insert in the Address an appeal to the country to stop political assassinations. This motion was rejected. Only five members refused to make the Address unanimous. President Mourmoutzff will probably present the reply to the Emperor today.

MEANING OF THE WORD DOUMA

BOSTON, May 16.—The true meaning and significance of the name of Russia's first Parliament are vividly explained by the reply of the first peasant elected to that body, when taunted by his adversary with the sneer that he didn't even know what the Douma meant. "The Douma, replied the peasant, 'is the Douma, and for that reason you cannot belong to it.' What the peasant meant to say was that his opponent represented merely autocratic authority, rather than intelligence. In other words, Douma literally means thought."

ITCHING PAINFUL SORES ON HANDS

Suffered for a Long Time Without Relief—Had Three Doctors and Derived No Benefit—One Doctor Was Afraid to Touch Them—Soreness Disappeared and Hands Now Smooth After Application of CUTICURA SOAP AND CUTICURA OINTMENT

"For a long time I suffered with sores on the hands which were itching, painful, and disagreeable. I had three doctors and derived no benefit from any of them. One doctor said he was afraid to touch my hands, so you must know how bad they were; another said I never could be cured; and the third said the sores were caused by the dipping of my hands in water in the dye-house where I work. I saw in the papers about the wonderful cures of the Cuticura Remedies and procured some of the Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. In three days after the application of the Cuticura Ointment my hands began to peel and were better. The soreness disappeared, and they are now smooth and clean, and I am still working in the dye-house. 'I strongly recommend Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment to any one with sore hands, and I hope that this letter will be the means of helping other sufferers. Very truly yours, Mrs. A. E. Maurer, 2340 State St., Chicago, Ill., July 1, 1905.'"

CARTWRIGHT ON SENATE REFORM

He Gives His Personal Views—Senate Should Have Power to Hold Over Bills One Session and More Work to Do—Might be Made Partly Elective.

OTTAWA, May 17—(Special)—The Senate was the centre of interest today when Sir Richard Cartwright made a carefully prepared speech advising reform of the whole Canadian political system both Commons and Senate. He made it clear that he spoke as a private member and reserved the right to modify his opinion. He believed the Upper Chamber was useful as a protection for the smaller Provinces and for the representation of certain bodies which could not elect members to the Lower House, such as Ontario Roman Catholics. As to reform, he believed each party should be adequately represented.

The senate should have more power and more legislative work to do. At least one third of the members should be men of experience as Cabinet Ministers, Lieutenant Governors, Provincial Premiers, Judges or Members of the Commons. He recommended that the Senate be given power to hold over for a session bills sent in by the Commons late in the session, so that the people might have a chance to express their views. The equalization of political parties might be found by grouping constituencies and have four or five ridings combine to choose a Senator on the principle of one man one vote.

INQUEST INTO MEIKLE DEATH

Tragedy at Lynn, in Which a P. E. Islander Lost His Life.

LYNN, May 16.—An inquest into the death of Charles E. Meikle, who is supposed to have committed suicide in the presence of his 14-year-old son, Edgar, on Nov. 7, 1905, has been asked for on the strength of investigations carried on by the police who say they fully believe that Meikle was murdered. Charles E. Meikle, who was born in Prince Edward Island 50 years ago, was employed by the General Electric Company as a blacksmith. On the day of his death he went home from work at noon, and before he had time to eat his lunch a quarrel between father and son ended in the death of the elder Meikle.

The story, as told by young Meikle, is that at the conclusion of the quarrel his father drew a revolver and shot himself. The weapon fell from his hand and was picked up by young Meikle, who placed it on the ice chest. The neighbors were then notified and found Mr. Meikle dead on the kitchen floor.
