OPERA HOUSE TONIGHT.—At the Opera House tonight, the laughable comedy of the "Honey moon" will be performed by Price Webber's popular company, the sterling actress, Edurna Grey, will be seen in her very clever impersonation of the character of Juliana, ably assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Bedell, Mr. Warren Chase, Mr. and Mrs. Stillwell, Miss Kingsley, Messrs Loring, and McKnight, and Mr. Webber, making a very strong company of actors and actresses.

A WRIT was issued yesterday out of Supreme Court at the instance of C. E. Warren formerly Charlottetown now of Glace Bay, against the Phoenix, the Anglo-American and the Canadian Fire Insurance Companies, for claims amounting in the vicinity of $4,000. It will be remembered that a few weeks ago the business place of Mr. Warren, at Glace Bay, was burned out. The insurance amounted to only $1,400, which was insufficient to pay for the heavy loss suffered. The companies are now refusing payment on some technicality or other, and are offering $1,400 in full settlement of the claim, which Mr. Warren refuses to accept.—Glace Bay Gazette.

COATS THAT FIT

One reason why this store sells more ladies' coats than any other on P. E. I. is that it has a bigger stock to show. Another good reason is that it sells the very latest coats all the time—coats that fit the figure at prices that fit your purse.

We sell good coats at $2.25, 2.55, 3.25, 5.85, 6.25.

We sell better coats at $7.35, 8.65, 9.45, 10.75.

Up as high as you like.

At any price you will mention, we will show you the most coats and the best coats. That is a large claim, but we make it without any fear of contradiction. Drop in any day, and see what a really tip-top cloak stock we have ready for you.
