ENSIGN AND MRS. CONDIE'S VISIT.--Ensign Condie, St. John arrived in Charlottetown last evening to conduct the week end services of the Salvation Army in the absence of Ensign Cranwell who has gone to Halifax for his marriage. Mrs. Condie is expected tonight and will assist her husband in the services. The many friends of the popular pair will be glad to welcome them here on his flying visit. It should be mentioned that the Ensign and Mrs. Condie are now in charge of the Returned Soldiers Hospital in St. John and are carrying on a great work in connection with the civil re-establishment of the boys.

ORPHEUS NIGHT.--It was Orpheus night at the Prince Edward Theatre on Thursday evening. The Orpheus Club to the number of sixty persons supplied delightful music during the course of the evening. His Worship Mayor Wright and Mrs. Wright were guests. A pleasing feature was the presentation of a beautiful bouquet to Miss Mae Edwards which was tied with the Club's ribbon. At the close of the show all repaired to the Rose and Grey where luncheon was served and a delightful time was spent in speech-making and dancing the dance music being supplied by the Mae Edwards musicians.

BRIDAL PARTY RETURN.--Mr. and Mrs. Milton Roe Sabin (nee Bertha Florence M. Gorman after an extended honeymoon trip of four months) are making their home at present in the "Magic City" Tulsa, Oklahoma, where Mr. Sabin is interested in the Oil industry. Mrs. Sabin is well known in Charlottetown, her native city in social and professional work, also in Halifax and other Canadian centres. She was prominently identified with Red Cross and served on all patriotic committees in the exclusive Vincent Club and other Boston Clubs, being a member of the Boston Women's Council on National Training Camp Activities. The young couple were the recipients of many beautiful gifts and numerous miscellaneous showers from her college associates and checks from home and abroad, including one from her cousin Senator Murphy of Tignish who with Mrs. Murphy were present at the wedding. The young couple are at making friends in their Tulsan home.

A druggist can obtain an imitation of MINARD'S LINIMENT from a Toronto house at a very low price, and have it labeled his own product. This greasy imitation is the poor many that every Tom, Dick and Harry has tried to introduce. Ask for MINARD'S and you will get it.

Courtesy and Cheerfulness a Combination with which we Spice Every Sale

Some people have an idea that drug stores are pretty much the same the world over. They do not consider the fact that stores have character just the same as individuals. Study the stores in any place and you will soon learn as to how they differ. At our store customers are greeted with a happy smile and a word of welcome. Courteous attention is given to customers while shopping here. All packages are neatly wrapped. In fact our service throughout is marked by care.

We do everything in our power to guard customers' interests. WE SHALL APPRECIATE AN OPPORTUNITY TO PROVE TO YOU THAT OUR DRUG STORE IS "DIFFERENT."

DISTINCTIVE waists for women, over 300 to choose from, white and leading colors, Patons Ltd. 2357-11-15-M11

POLICE COURT.--Three boys charged with causing damage on Halloween night were before the Court yesterday. The case was adjourned until a number of others implicated in the damage are located.

WE WOULD DIRECT special attention to the programme of the services in connection with the fifty-fifth anniversary of the dedication of the Methodist church to be held tomorrow which appears in another column. 2351-11-15M11.

SALVATION ARMY.--The services on Saturday night and Sunday in connection with the Salvation Army will be conducted by Ensign and Mrs. Condie of St. John, former very popular residents of this city.

WEDDING BELLS.--A very quiet wedding took place at St. Dunstan's Cathedral on the morning of November 12 when Mr. Ronald Vessey of Charlottetown claimed for his wife Miss Mary McLaughlin, also of Charlottetown, Rev. Father McGuigan, officiating. The bride was attended by Miss Sadie Vessey sister of the groom while the groom was ably supported by Mr. Wilfrid Cormier. The bride wore a tailored suit of blue with black hat and raccoon furs. The bridesmaid wore a burella coat with black hat. After the wedding ceremony the happy couple proceeded to the home of the bride where a sumptuous breakfast awaited them in the presence of the immediate friends of the bride and groom. After breakfast was served they indulged in singing and music, which whittled away the hours. The happy couple left later on the western train on a short honeymoon. Mr. Vessey who recently returned from overseas was an original 26th man and went through all the heavy engagements with that Battalion. Their many friends join in wishing them a long and happy journey through life. Minard's Liniment Cures Colds, Etc.
