-JUDGES AT EGMONT BAY EXHIBITION--Messrs. Hearty, Boyer and Prof. H. W. Clay motored to the Egmont Bay Exhibition where they were judges of live stock. Prof. Clay is an expert on Botany and Zoology. He graduated from McGill University and specialized in animal breeding at MacDonald College, Truro. Professor Clay is particularly enthusiastic about the distinctive type of Yorkshire hog evolved in this Province, which are being shipped to far distant places. Six carloads have been shipped to Quebec, one to Ontario, one to Saskatchewan, one to Iowa, one to Ohio, and one for Iowa in October. Genetic knowledge and close observation is the price of success.

They received many valuable and useful gifts including silver, pyrex-ware, linen, glassware and a sum of money. The gifts were opened by Mrs. John F. Gallant while the verses were read by Mrs. Peter F. Gallant. Mr. Joseph LeClaire, in a few well-chosen words, addressed the happy couple on the occasion. A delicious lunch was then served and the remainder of the evening was spent in music and dancing.

LOWER FREETOWN W. I.

Mrs. Lloyd Burns entertained the September meeting of the Lower Freetown Women's Institute at her home on the evening of the 21st, when fourteen members answered the Roll Call with "The Name Of My First School Teacher".

It was decided to send $10.00 to the Salvation Army. School committee reported that the teacher would like some Duthane for the floor and also that the missing window panes be replaced. It was decided to ask the teacher to interest the children in the M. F. Schurman radio contest.

It was moved that the Institute get $5.00 worth of Cod Liver Oil Capsules through the Institute and sell them out to the children in the district at 1-3 cent per capsule.

Next meeting to be at the home of Mrs. William Rogers and program committee will be Mrs. Jardine Stewart. Roll to be answered by a Halloween's Verse. Interesting contests were put on by Mrs. Alfred Reeves, and Mrs. Henry Reeves, at the close of the meeting delicious refreshments were served by the hostess and a social hour enjoyed.
