ALL NEWS OF LOCAL INTEREST

The postponed lobster boat races take place on the harbor today.

The Express arrived Saturday night at 9.25 and the Princess at 9.15.

St. John Sun says:—No 6 Co. (Souris) will not do as the other companies and for fear of the fog, put two days drive into one but will take the time.

Recent deaths of Islanders in Boston and vicinity include, Hannah Driscoll aged 82, in Milton and Mrs. Julia Hollard wife of Joseph Holland in East Boston, aged 25 years.

The Zephyr of Souris and the Cabot, the new yacht built by Mr. Pineson, both of which are going to take part in the Coronation races at Sydney, also the Micmac, now holder of the cup, besides other yachts will take part in the regatta to be held on Charlottetown Harbour Wednesday.

No. 3 COMPANY C. A., leaves tomorrow morning for St. John in command of Capt. D. A. McKinnon and is made up as follows: Captain, D. A. McKinnon; Lieut., E. E. Jordan; Sergt-Major, J. Lightizer; Sergts. R. Sellar, J. McPherson, C. McQuillan; Corporals, F. Bremner, F. Jenks, H. Ballum; Bombardier, R. Lowthry, and thirteen gunners.

Among the prominent prize winners at the Provincial Rifle Association meeting last week was L. M. McKinnon, son of D. L. McKinnon of Montague. Although this was his first year as a competitor and although he entered as a tyro, Mr. McKinnon took a high place among the older shots making surprising scores and capturing prizes to the amount of $98. His shooting was alike creditable to him as a marksman and a sportsman.

A BOOK FOR THE HOME.
D. Chase's Last and Complete Receipt Book, containing over three thousand medical, cooking, veterinary and miscellaneous recipes is sold at 25¢ postpaid. A SOLO was sweetly sung by Miss Lea of Moncton in First Methodist church last evening.

Owing to the rough weather the S. S. City of London was obliged to return to Victoria Saturday evening and with the clearance of the wind she arrived in port last evening.

The new yacht built by Martin Pineson to compete for the Coronation Cup at Sydney, had a spin Saturday afternoon. She was much admired and shows signs of great speed.

In lieu of the regular afternoon trip to Crapaud on next Saturday the place from S. S. City of London will make but one trip to St. John's Tea, leaving Charlottetown at 8.00 a.m.

JOHN H. RAFTERY of the Chicago Tribune, who has spent some days on the Island inquiring into the attitude of our people regarding reciprocity, leaves this morning on return westward.

JUDGMENT was given Saturday by Stipendiary Blanchard in the assault of George Rodd vs James McLeod. As both parties were to blame he fined them both $5.00 or 30 days, J. J. Johnson for plaintiff and A. J. B. Mellish for defendant.

THE S. S. City of London had a large load of freight to Crapaud on Saturday morning. There were 40 passengers on the return trip. The return cargo consisted of 20 cases lobsters, 10 cases eggs, 10 boxes butter, 5 lambs, 1 beef cow and 1 live hog together with sundry other consignments.

THERE was an unusually large number of players at the Bevidere Golf Links on Saturday afternoon and the day was suitable for enjoying the game. Many of the amateur players were qualifying to compete for the Challenge Cup. Next Saturday afternoon the ladies will begin play for the Gold Medal presented by W. K. Rogers. Tea was served by Mrs. MacLean, Mrs. Palmer and Mrs. Musgrave.

The first Tennis Tournament of the season took place at Victoria Park on Saturday afternoon. Quite a large number taking part. The game was mixed doubles, and after several series had been played the final was between Rev. Leo Williams and Miss Constance Fitzgerald vs. Percy Pope Jr. and Miss Helen Howard. The best two sets out of three decided the tournament and was won by Rev. Mr. Williams and Miss Fitzgerald who were presented with prizes. The tea was served by Mrs. F. C. Cotton, Miss L. R. and Miss Ethel McLean. Next Saturday afternoon another tournament will take place, viz. men's doubles and ladies' doubles; drawing for partners to take place at 2.30 sharp.

On Wednesday afternoon July 20th 1904, a fatal mortal of the late Mrs. John N. Evans, (nee Mary Margaret Smith) was said to rest in the cemetery of St. Stephen's Church, Irishtown. A large and sympathetic congregation witnessed the funeral services, which will be held at 10 a.m. on Friday, August 13th, at 10 a.m. The Rev. J. A. Winfield, was assisted in the service by the Venerable T. B. Reach of Milton who also preached the funeral sermon from the words, "He Giveth His Beloved Sleep," Psalm 127, verse 2. The Archdeacon's sermon was touching in its tenderness yet without a full of hope and consolation for the bereaved ones. His high tribute to the Christian life and character of the deceased found a ready echo in the hearts of one and all who had the privilege of her acquaintance. The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the husband in his deep sorrow. May the hand that sustains and uphold him in his loneliness and grief. Deceased was 37 years of age, the eldest daughter of James and Mrs. Smith, Kensington, and leaves three sisters, Mrs. Geo. Murray, Kensington; Mrs. James H. Milligan, Burdett, and Miss Emma of Boston, Mass. In the death of Mrs. Evans the church at Irishtown suffers a distinct loss. Ever in sympathy with all church work, a faithful teacher in the Sunday School and a zealous leader in the cause of Missions, she will be pitifully missed. While "the grief that must have sway," cannot be wholly checked, yet we realize that our loss is a eternal gain and in contemplation of her consistent life and final victory, we are constrained from grateful hearts to say "Thy will be done, and I thank God and take fresh courage.
