

SMOTHERING SENSATION.

Kingston Lady's Experience with Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills in Relieving this Distressing Condition.

"I have suffered for some years with a smothering sensation caused by heart disease. The severity of the pains in my heart caused me much suffering. I was also very nervous and my whole system was run down and debilitated.

"Hearing that Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills were a specific for these troubles, I thought I would try them, and got a box at McLeod's Drug Store. They afforded me great relief, having toned up my system and removed the distressing symptoms from which I suffered. I can heartily recommend these wonderful pills to all sufferers from heart trouble.

LANCASHIRE Fire Insurance Company OF ENGLAND.

This Company is prepared to take Fire Risks on Property in Prince Edward Island at very moderate Rates of Premium. Persons having property to insure will find it very much to their advantage to apply to the undersigned for quotations of Rates. Unscrupulous agents are endeavoring to persuade persons from insuring in the "Lancashire" by circulating a report that the company never pays its Losses. This gives us the opportunity of stating that during the Twenty-Five Years in which the "Lancashire" has been operating in the Maritime Provinces it has never had a Law Suit therein, and furthermore that on the occasion of the Great Fire of 1877 in St. John N.B. the "Lancashire" was the first Company to complete payment of its Losses, having paid, through us, nearly a Half a Million of Dollars in Claims, within 28 days after the fire (See St. John Daily Telegraph, 19th July, 1877.)

The only outstanding Losses which we have on our books are for Fire occurring within the last few weeks; and which will be all paid before 24th inst. It is to be regretted that the representative of any Company should consider it necessary to resort to inaccurate statements in hope of being able to retain his business at rates higher than those which the Lancashire is prepared to charge.

THEN AND NOW.

In the year 1885, when Britain was at war in the Soudan, General Laurie and the late Col. Williams offered to raise two regiments at the expense of Canada to assist in the campaign. Lord Lansdowne, then Governor General, consulted Sir John Macdonald, who replied that the policy of Canada was opposed to taking part in the wars of the Empire. This incident was referred to by Mr. Tarte in a recent speech and is quoted by the Toronto Globe in justification of the position taken by the Minister of Public Works. Mr. Tarte has not been enthusiastic about sending a Canadian Contingent to South Africa. He was at first strongly in favor of obtaining the sanction of Parliament before sending our Regiment to the Transvaal, and when a decision was reached to send it, he now says he caused a proviso to be placed in the Order in Council that the action should not constitute a precedent.

No doubt something would be forgiven to a Scotch Premier which might be held in certain quarters as highly objectionable in a French Canadian Minister, though this ought to not so to be. But what neither Mr. Tarte nor the Globe have taken into account is the fact that there is no just parallel between the situation in 1885 and that of the present time. The British war in the Soudan was a matter of imperial concern, no doubt, but could not be of the same interest to the Canadian people as the present war in South Africa. In that case no part of Britain's actual possessions were in danger or were threatened. In South Africa British territory has been invaded, and our fellow subjects in Natal and Cape Colony have an enemy's army occupying their soil and despoiling their homes.

Something also might be said of the progress which has been made in the consolidation of the Empire during the past fourteen years. Within that time the great Jubilee Celebration has been held in London, with representative men and small contingents of troops from every colony and dependency of the Empire gathered together under the eyes of the Sovereign and rejoicing together in the grandeur and glory of combined Great and Greater Britain. Canada has within that time inaugurated a new trade policy giving a customs preference to the products of the Mother Land, The Australian Provinces have laid the foundation of a great United Commonwealth under the aegis of the old flag and have also become generous contributors to the naval defence of the Empire. Cape Colony has voted from her Colonial treasury the price of a battleship, and even little Natal has pledged an annual contribution of coal from her mines at Dundee for the Imperial Naval service.

All these are indications of the growth of the Imperial spirit in the portions of the Empire beyond the seas, marking an immense stride in that direction since the year 1885, and ought to be taken into account. It is also to be observed that in the same period of fourteen years Canada has grown in population and grown greatly wealth, importance, and in the volume of her trade over seas which we look to the Imperial navy to protect. All these considerations are so many potent reasons why Canada ought not now to be guided by the precedent set in 1885.

If Mr. Tarte were, a thoroughly astute politician he would take note of and respect that strong and growing sentiment throughout English-speaking Canada which sets toward the consolidation and mutual helpfulness of all portions of the British Empire. So strong is this sentiment that had the Premier of today taken his stand upon the policy declared under different circumstances by Sir John Macdonald in 1885, Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his Government would have imperiled their existence. Mr. Tarte, whose mental vision is bounded by the Quebec horizon, is not aware of this fact, and even the Globe seems but dimly conscious of it. Many things have changed and there has been a vast progress since 1885.

Sir Charles Tupper left Ottawa on 1st November for a political tour in the west including Manitoba and British Columbia.

THE YUKON IS CLOSED.

River Freezes up and Dawson is Shut out.

SEATTLE, Nov. 1.—One hundred and thirteen passengers, principally from Dawson, Adis, Copper River, and Lynn canal ports, arrived yesterday on the steamship Alkali, six days from Skagway. Telegraphic advices received at Skagway from Dawson, and intermediate points announce that the river navigation of the Yukon had ceased, and that floating ice, particularly in the head waters in the main stream, rendered it unsafe for steamers.

IT'S TOO RISKY

To undergo an operation for itching. Piles when Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment is a surer, cheaper, easier way to cure.

Cruel, barbarous methods belong to the dark ages of the past. There was a time when a surgical operation was considered the only possible cure for piles. Not so now. Occasionally there is still found a physician who adheres to this dangerous and expensive method, but to every one who still believes in using the knife, ninety and nine recommend the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Dr. C. M. Harlan, writing in The American Journal of Health, says: "We know that 'Dr. Chase's Ointment' meets all the requisitions of the highest standard of worth, that it will be held in high esteem wherever it is used, and consequently we endorse it to every reader."

By force of merit alone Dr. Chase's Ointment has won its way into this wide, wide world, until it has made the name of Dr. Chase familiar in almost every home, and won for the venerable discoverer the title of "America's Greatest Physician."

Dr. Chase's Ointment has never been known to fail as a cure for piles. It matters not whether blind, itching, bleeding or protruding. Dr. Chase's Ointment is an absolute and perfect cure. Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment is the discovery of the author of Dr. Chase's Recipe Book, whose portrait and signature is on every bag of the genuine. "A. W. Chase, All Dealers, at Wilmington, Mass. & Co., Toronto."
