HOME

Home's not merely four square walls,
Though with pictures hung and gilded;
Home is where affection calls,
Filled with shrines the heart has builded.

Home? Go watch the faithful dove
Sailing 'neath the heavens above us,
Home is where there's one to love
Home is where there's one to love us.

Home's not merely roof and room—
It needs something to endear it!
Home is where the heart can bloom,
Where there's some kind of lip to cheer it.

What is home with none to meet,
None to welcome, none to greet us?
Home's not merely roof and room—
Where there's some kind lip to us.

CUTICURA

If Cuticura did no more than soothe and heal eczemas, rashes, itchings and burnings, bringing speedy comfort to tortured, disfigured men, women and children it would be entitled to the highest praise. But it does more. By using the Soap exclusively for toilet purposes, allowing no other soap to touch your skin, you will in many cases prevent these distressing experiences.

Letters of Sympathy

LETTERS OF SYMPATHY

The following touching letters of sympathy have been received by Mrs. Ewen Campbell, of Alberton:

France, 15-5-18.

Mrs. Ewen Campbell, Alberton, P.E.I.

Dear Madam,—It is with regret and deepest sympathy that I introduce myself to acquaint you with the circumstances of your son Ross' death.

He was killed on the morning of the 17th of May by shell fire and it may console you to know that his death was instantaneous and painless. I wish to express to you the sympathy of the platoon, who mourn the loss of a good soldier and a true comrade. He was liked and esteemed by all.

His personal effects will be forwarded to you through the usual channels His body was taken from the line and was given a military funeral well. behind the line.

I will close, again offering you my sympathy in your great trouble, and believe me,

Yours in sympathy,
R. B. MURRAY, Lt.,
No. 11 Platoon,
26th Bn. Can

26th Can. Bn.,
France, May 23, 1918

Dear Mrs. Campbell.—Just a few lines tonight in kindly thought and sympathy, of your dear boy, Private E. R. Campbell, who was killed in action a few weeks ago. All who knew him loved him. He could have honorably stayed at home, but of his own free will bravely and truly he preferred to follow in the footsteps of his brother, who had gone before him, to show him the way, and he in turn has gone to show us all the way.

To be the mother of one son and give him to the world for those who still remain, and for generations yet unborn is something; but to give two priceless sons to the world, what can repay? Their sacrifice cannot be in the smallest way rewarded, so far as this world is concerned. Your sacrifice may only be made bearable by the thought of the worthiness of the cause and by the thought and pride of their true worth, unselfishness and nobleness.

May the good Lord help you, and give you strength in this time of trial to bear it all.

He was killed instantly by a shell which also killed two comrades at the same time, while faithfully guarding a trench, doing their duty nobly till they fell.

Sending to you with this all our sympathy. I have the honor to be

Sincerely yours,
ERNEST H. STRONG, Lt.

MONTREAL MARKETS

Eggs Continue Active and Butter Was Weaker.

MONTREAL, June 12—The only feature of importance in the local egg situation last week has been the falling off in supplies. The domestic trade continues active.

There were no developments in the market for potatoes during the week

An easier feeling developed in the butter market during the latter part of the week, and indications are that prices will go lower.

The feature of the cheese situation during the week was the easier feeling prevailing in the country. Domestic demand for small cheese for home consumption was steady.

The quotations were:—Cheese—Finest easterns, 22½ to 23c. Butter—Choicest creamery, 43½ to 44c. Eggs—Selected, 44 to 45c; No. 1 stock, 40c; No. 2 stock, 38c. Potatoes—Per bag, car lots, $1.55 to $1.60. Dressed Hogs—Abattoir killed, $29.00 to $29.50. Lard—Pure, wood pails, 20 lbs. net, 32 to 33c.

U.S. CHEESE BOARDS.

Watertown, N.Y., June 12—Cheese sales—9,000 boxes at 22 c.

GERMANY WILL NOT PROPOSE PEACE NOW

LONDON, June 12—In her forthcoming statement of war aims Germany does not intend to make any fresh peace offer, according to Berlin newspapers, says an Exchange Telegraph despatch from Amsterdam.

Amsterdam, June 12—Judging from press comment telegraphed here from Vienna, the leading newspapers there interpret the official announcement regarding the decision of the Versailles Conference as an abandonment of the Cecho-Slovak war aims by the Entente nations.

The decision referred to in the above despatch was reached at the Suupreme War Council which was held at Versailles last week. The text of this decision has not yet been made public. Upon his return to London, however, Premier Lloyd George said:

"The declaration agreed to by the British, French and Italian premiers bring the defined policy of the European powers into harmony with that of the United States on two very important points; namely, concerning Poland and the Czecho-Slovaks and the Jugeslav peoples."

KEEP PLANTING

Don't forget about your succession-al plantings as the season advances. Every war gardener should make a point of having a continuous supply of fresh vegetables for the table. There should be several successive plantings, one or two weeks apart, of string beans, lettuce, radishes, spinach, sweet corn peas, beets and carrots.

Onions to be used green may be followed by late tomato plants in the same row. A few of the onions may be removed to make room for the tomatoes. Radishes mature early and as they are harvested the space they occupy may be used for cabbage, lettuce, cauliflower and Brussels Sprouts.

Successful plantings musut necessarily be left largely to the good judgment of the individual gardener. Weather conditions and the success he meets with in his various crops will largely decide the question for him. The main point to remember is that full use must be made of the ground at his disposal.

PREPARE FOR CANNING

June sees the beginning of the canning season. The Canada Food Board insists that every woman do some canning this year and work with a will to make the most of the supply of fruit and vegetables which the war gardens have already begun to yield.

Before another day passes the wise woman will investigate her cellar or her pantry shelves and find out just what she needs to complete her canning equipment. The season has come and if she is unprepared to meet it she should immediately get to work and secure the materials necessary for canning. It is poor housekeeping for a woman to start preserving and in the middle of it find that she is short of rubber bands, or that the stoppers are not secure, or that she has not enough containers

Her work will be cut in half if she starts canning with everything in good order. Poor tools necessarily make a bad workman. And in war time bad workmen are expensive to the country.

UNFORTUNATE REMARK

In the great drawing room with its rich furniture and rose-shaded lights, the heiress and her husband sat chatting after dinner. "Ernest, dear," she said presently, a tender light in her eyes, "do you remember what day tomorrow is? Fancy, we shall have been married nine years, and not once have I missed baking you a special cake for the day, have I?"

Ernest gazed fondly at her. "No, my darling," he agreed. "You have never failed me, Hildregarde, and I look back on those cakes as milestones in my life."
