A WINTER SCENE

While sitting by my window,
I look across the lea,
On a sunny winter afternoon,
What pictures do I see!

The naked grey-brown maple
Top etched against the sky;
All their Autumn grandeur
With frosty winds did die.

The plain and rolling meadows
Are covered deep in snow,
From this well-protected earth
Next Summer's crop will grow.

Down by the road I see the school
Red, nestled in the snow;
Smoke curling from the chimney top
Tells me its fire's aglow.

Beyond the school a spire I see;
It points to Heaven above.
Yes, yellow 'gainst the snowbank there
I see the church we love.

Behind the church a warm thickness
Of rich darkgreen one sees;
It is nature's shelter
Of evergreen spruce trees.

As thus in peacefulness I muse
This quiet afternoon
I thank the Lord of earth and sky
For the peace on earth He's won.

The Markets At A Glance

WINNIPEG, Feb. 5 — (CP) — Rye futures values on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange today gave a most erratic display with prices breaking as much as five cents in early trading.

CHICAGO, Feb. 5 — (AP) — Dimming prospects that wartime food subsidies and price controls will be eliminated on their expiration date, June 30, caused May rye to break the full five-cent daily limit in early trading today.

NEW YORK, Feb. 5 — (AP) — Late buying of coppers, steels, packers, rails and specialties propped the Stock Market today after an extension of Monday's selling during the forenoon.

The pace quickened on the comeback and closing gains of fractions to 2 or more points predominated but losers were plentiful.

The Associated Press 60-stock composite was up .4 of a point at 80.3.

MONTREAL, Feb. 5 — (CP) — While there were signs of profit-taking at unchanged or lower levels in spots in trading today on the Stock Exchange and Curb Market leaders displayed enough strength to promote their groups in most of the indices. Industrials and utilities went to new all-time tops and golds were at their best for five years. Papers declined.

Strong spots in industrials were Stelco, Westinghouse, Hamilton Bridge, Niagara Wire, R. Mitchell, Ontario Steel, Consumers Glass, Foundries, Canadian and International Bronzes and, temporarily, cement. Among other stocks firmer were General Steel Wares and Canadian Car Preferred.

TORONTO Feb. 5 — (CP) — Moderate weakness in the early stage of today's Toronto Exchange Market was succeeded by a more bullish tone in the later hours and prices were advancing at the close, index gains were netted by both mining groups, giving them new high price levels for seven to 12 years. Western Oils took a small index loss.

A group of the junior issues in gold share list crowded into the spotlight in the afternoon trading. Paymaster closed at 99 cents, a new high and up 16 cents for the day. It traded 103,000 shares. Sladen traded 157,000 shares and gained 12 cents to 1.01 and Golden Arrow firmed 9 cents to 69. Other gainers of the group on good volume were Bobjo, Central Porcupine, Lingman and Alger.

LINER VISITS 24 COUNTRIES

LIVERPOOL, England — (CP) — The Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Scotland, which once cruised the Pacific as the Empress of Japan, has travelled more than 500,000 miles as a British troopship.

During the war she made three complete trips round the world, was the temporary home of 220,000 troops, including 50,000 Canadians, and visited 24 different countries. Thousands of servicemen, travelling to and from the war, cut their names and initials into the ship's rails, which it is suggested should be preserved as a memento of the Empress's war service.

GLASGOW DOCKERS HAD BIG WAR ROLE

GLASGOW, Scotland, Feb. 5—(CP)—Glasgow dock workers not only handled huge supplies of ammunition and food here and in other ports during the war, but trained soldiers in handling dock gear and mechanical appliances in preparation for invasion operations, says a report published by the Scottish Transport and General Workers Union.

The dockers took part in a mass exercise in which an army was embarked as if a concentrated air raid were in progress, while experts watched to detect any flaw in the operation.

Despite large quantities of ammunition handled, the only serious accident was a shell explosion which injured two men, the report said. Store workers were responsible for the storage of food in emergency and sheltered places throughout the west of Scotland and were trained for distribution work in the event of invasion.
