Hampton

"Believe it or not," Mr Jack Dixon of Dixon's mills owns a hen that lays her eggs in a spruce tree 21 feet above the ground. She was seen flying from there, cackling. The boys climbed the tree and found a nest with eight eggs. Some brush and twigs had caught in the tree and made the nest.

Page Diogenes, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wood of Victoria, P. E. I. have returned from a motor trip through New England. Between Portland Maine and Lawrence, Mass. a check blew out the window and was lost. Two days after their return the check came to them in a letter. The finder had turned it over to the police of Lawrence who forwarded it to the man who wrote it in Charlottetown. He returned it to Mr. Wood. Congratulations.

Congratulations are being extended to Mr. and Mrs. John Sobey of Hampton on the anniversary of 60 years of married life. A gathering of relatives and close friends, in celebration of this event, was held at the home of Mr. Mark Cameron. Mr. William McFarlane, a nephew, spoke briefly and asked Rev. D. J. Morrison to take the chair. He very graciously extended his congratulations and pleasure in the acquaintance of this charming old couple. He then asked Hon. John H. Myers to address them. Mr. Myers responded with a sincere and reminiscent address interspersed with flashes of wit. He then presented a large wedding cake from the family. Causing gales of laughter by the remark that "It was probably the first wedding cake they ever had, having no doubt eaten oatmeal bread 60 years ago." Congratulatory remarks were made by Mr. William McFarlane, Mr. Hector McKay, Mrs. Hannah C. Inman, an old school mate, and several others. The spice of the evening being added by their son Mr. Edgar Sobey. Mr. and Mrs. Sobey's pleasure was greatly enhanced by the presence of all their children. Mrs. William Fay and daughter Mildred, Mr. Edgar Sobey of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Sobey of Victoria. Mrs. Sobey, nee Charlotte Cameron, was born in the house in which the reception was held. This house has an interesting history. It is one of the oldest in this section, dating back almost 100 years. It was built by a Cameron and has remained in the family. Mrs. Sobey's father Mr. David Cameron lived there for 94 useful years. He and his wife, lovingly known as "Aunt Betsy," celebrated their golden wedding and their 60th anniversary there. So the old house smiled benignly on the second 60th anniversary held there. Mr. and Mrs. Sobey are hale and hearty, living alone in Hampton, they have a garden that is a wonder and delight. Their latch string is always hanging out. Young and old enjoy visiting "Uncle John and Aunt Charlotte." Sincere wishes from the community go to them for continued good health and the celebration of their diamond wedding. "Let me not to the marriage of true minds Admit impediments. Love is not love which alters when it alteration finds, O bends with the remover to remove, Oh no! It is a fixed mark, That looks on tempests and is never shaken; It is the star to every wandering bark, Whose worth's unknown, although his height is taken. "Love's not times fool, though rosy lips and cheeks Within his bending sickle's compass come; Love alters not with his brief hours and weeks, But bears it out even to the edge of doom. "If this be error, and upon me prov'd I never writ, nor no man ever loved."

STURGEON

Mr. Lloyd Collings is doing nicely after being operated on for ruptured appendicitis in the Montague Hospital. Mrs. Mat Taylor, has returned home from the P. E. I. Hospital where she underwent an operation. Congratulations are being extended to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lavera, on the arrival of a baby girl.

Good work is being done on the Sturgeon Bridge under the foremanship of Mr. Arch King. Master Bruce MacLeod left yesterday for his home in Boston, after spending his vacation at his aunt's Mrs. Dave Godsoe's. Mr. Jones Llewellyn recently visited Mr. Ben Graham who has been very ill.
