MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER

On Monday evening, May 23rd Miss Annie M. MacLeod of Grandview, who is to be one of the features in an interesting event in the near future, was tendered a miscellaneous shower by her neighbors and friends. Upwards of one hundred guests were present.

An address was read by Miss Bessie MacPhee and a beautiful silver tea set and other valuable gifts were presented to the bride to be by Mr. Allan Finlayson.

During the course of the evening supper was served by the ladies and every one present did justice to the bounties with which the tables were laden.

At the close of the evening which passed all too quickly in games and music, the party dispersed wishing Miss MacLeod very much happiness and prosperity.

The address was as follows: Miss Annie MacLeod, very dear friend—On the eve of your departure from us, we, a company of friends assembled to convey to you our best wishes.

You have gone from and returned to us several times during your course of training. We missed you when absent and were pleased when you returned to us, and we always rejoiced in your success. Now as you anticipate leaving Grandview to make your home in
